The only nourishment that bread affords is that which the flour contains.

Bread baking is merely putting flour in appetizing form.

Flour making is merely putting the nutritious part of wheat in shape for bread making.

Good milling is the kind that takes from the wheat all that is nutritious, nothing else.

Royal Household Flour

is made from carefully selected Manitoba Hard spring wheat.

Every pound is almost a pound of food; clean, white, pure and nutritious.

It goes farther, does better baking and is more satisfactory in every way than any other flour.

FACTS ABOUT MUSK.

How the Strong Perfume is Obtained and its Various Uses.

Although pure musk is not usually relished by the delicate olfactories of persons with cultivated sensibilities, there is no odor so extensively used in the compounding of perfumes. It is obtained from the musk deer, which inhabits the mountain ranges of Tibet.

This animal is smaller than the deer of this country, being about the size of a calf. It is of a dark gray color and has no horns. The odor for which it is valuable is a fluid secretion in a sac on the underside of its body.

This is exposed to the air and when dry is sent to the market. When first obtained it is about the consistency of honey and has a bitter, pungent taste. It is used as a medicine, but has more value as a perfume. On account of the persistency with which musk retains its odor it is used as the groundwork for other perfumes which are more volatile. It is said that a single grain of musk will perfume a room for twenty years.

So strong is it that it has been estimated that 3,000 parts of a substance in itself devoid of odor will become permeated with the scent with one part of musk. It is in consequence very valuable, and as it is difficult to procure on account of the almost inaccessible haunts of the musk deer it is quite expensive. Chemists have long endeavored to procure an artificial musk, but they have not as yet been successful.

THE HANDKERCHIEF.

It Had Its Origin in Venice in the Sixteenth Century.

About the year 1540 an unknown Venetian lady first conceived the happy idea of carrying a "fazzoletto," and it was not long before her example was widely followed throughout Italy. The handkerchief then crossed the Alps into France, where its use was immediately adopted by the lords and ladies of Henry II's court.

The handkerchief of that period was an article of the greatest luxury. It was made of the most costly fabrics and was ornamented with the rarest embroideries. In the reign of Henry III, it began to be perfumed and received the name of "mouchoir de Venus." It was not until 1580 that the handkerchief made its way into Germany, and then its use was long confined to princes and persons of great wealth. It was made the object of sumptuary laws, and an edict published at Dresden in 1535 forbade its use by the people at large.

Slowly, but surely, however, the vulgarization of the pocket handkerchief has been accomplished, and today even the humblest is superior in one important respect to Petrarch and Laura, Dante and Beatrice, who, it is somewhat painful to think, lived in a pre-handkerchief age.—London Standard.

Some North German Superstitions.

If you are superstitious there are many things you must not do. In north Germany you must not spin during the twelve nights of Christmas, lest you should walk after your death, nor after sunset on Saturday, for then mice will eat your work. Speaking of eating, if you want to have money and luck all the year round you must not fail to eat herrings on New Year's day, nor, if you wish to be lucky, must you rock an empty cradle, or spill salt wantonly, or cross knives, or point at the stars. If you leave a dirty cloth on the table overnight you will make the angels weep; if you point upward to the rainbow you will make the angels' feet bleed, and if you talk of cabbages while looking at the moon you will hurt the feelings of the man in it, who was a cabbage stealer in his salad days.

Leprosy.

From reliable statistics we draw the conclusions that leprosy is generally contracted between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five or that in a very large number of patients the disease shows itself at about eighteen; that it develops very slowly, so that the patient does not require much medical aid before the disease has run four years; that the majority of lepers die within five years of their admission to the hospital, and that the average length of life of a patient after he has developed leprosy is nine years.—Pearson's Weekly.

Odd Marriage Belief.

An unmarried man or woman of marriageable age is something that is rarely seen in the Fiji Islands. The reason of this is not far to seek. The natives believe that if a person dies while in an unmarried state his or her soul is doomed to wander about through endless ages of eternity in an intermediate region between heaven and hades. At the end of each moon they are allowed to look into heaven, but are never permitted to enter.

Sensible Advice.

A writer who had made a good bit of money at a single shake of the bag went to Charles Reade for advice as to investments. "Well," said Reade, "I should say put it in the best gilt edged securities. Divide it among the first class bonds of the first class nations. It's better to sleep on 3 per cent than to lie awake on 6."

Be Cheerful.

Let your aim be to keep cheerful always. You may fall short of the "always," but you will achieve more by taking this highest standard than by trying to be cheerful merely "most of the time." Learn to make an atmosphere of joy for yourself not only for your own sake, but for the good of the people you meet.

Pity is best taught by fellowship in woe.—Coleridge.

BARCLAY & BELL

He Cashed the Cheque.

Not long ago Mr. Russell Sage, the multi-millionaire, cashed a cheque for four cents and as he did so it is said that he remarked: "It was just like finding money; just like picking it up from the sidewalk." The cheque came in a letter. It was from a theatrical firm, calling his attention to their new play then running at a theater, and enclosing this cheque to pay for the time used in reading the letter. This was the note (says the "Daily Mail"): "Assuming that your income is $15,000 a year, and that you appreciate the fact that time is money, we enclose cheque for four cents in payment of two minutes of your time at that rate, to be employed in carefully reading a brief and honest statement of the novel, applause-winning features in our new musical farce." Such letters were sent to many wealthy New Yorkers, but it is said that Mr. Sage was the only one who cashed the cheque.

Sin Against Health.

Why the Usefulness of All Organs is Destroyed by Costiveness.

Most important to health and comfort is proper action of the bowels.

By nature these organs are intended for the removal of the waste particles of matter which accumulate in the system.

Retain these wastes and you poison the blood, ruin digestion, bring on nervousness and anaemia.

Habitual costiveness is best overcome by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which establish regularity that is exactly consistent with nature.

Not a drastic purgative—not even a pain or sensation of gripe, because Dr. Hamilton's Pills are vegetable and free from irritating mineral substances found in so many widely advertised remedies.

In every case Dr. Hamilton's Pills do cure and bring sure relief from headache, biliousness and other manifestations of constipation.

Jan. McConnell of Walkerton writes: "Since I was comparatively young man I have not enjoyed real good health."

"My appetite was good and strength kept up, yet I knew something was wrong."

"Frequently I took bilious attacks and violent headaches. My stomach was disordered, skin was murky, under my eyes were heavy dark rings."

"Last summer I read through the 'Poison's' almanac and decided my trouble was constipation. I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and can hardly tell the help they have been. I am now as fresh, strong and well as a boy."

Just try the wonderful magic of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Sold by all dealers, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00. By mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., or Kingston, Ont.

AT THE BALL GAME.

I have sat upon the bleachers, With the yelling, hooting crowd; In the grandstand I have nestled, With the wealthy and the proud. I have been in many places, But the one that was immense Was when a boy I used to seek The knot-hole in the fence.

'Twas a knot hole I had whittled Big enough to fit my eye; I could see the pitcher working, And the fielders chase a fly. I could always see the runner, Though the crowd was big and dense; I could always tell the players Through the knot-hole in the fence.

It was there I always hurried After school, and there I stayed; Nor thought of leaving. Till the final out was made. It was there you'd find me peering, With my features drawn and tense; For I often grew excited At that knot-hole in the fence.

I have tried the different places, Back of third I thought was great; I've sat just back of first, and now I sit behind the plate. But something there is lacking, I know not how or whence; For the games seem more exciting Through the knot hole in the fence.

Sore Nipples.

A cure may be affected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the child to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with the best results. Price 25 cents per box. Sold at Parker's Drug Store.

WHY DO WE SEND IT?

We were asked this week by a delinquent subscriber why we kept on sending the paper after the subscription date had expired. Every weekly newspaper in towns of this size are forced to do this. Should we stop subscriptions when time expires nine times out of ten the subscriber would give us a "calling down" for insinuating that his credit was not good. Rather than cast a reflection against the honesty of a subscriber to pay a small debt, it is next to a necessity for a home paper to continue sending the paper after the time has expired. It is not necessary for the city dailies or weeklies to follow this rule, as their subscribers live at a distance and are not personal friends as is the case in a majority of our subscribers. Our subscribers should deem it an honor to know that we do not doubt their integrity and continue to send them the paper after their time has expired. Should any desire their paper discontinued they should notify us and remit to date if they have not already done so.
