

OBITUARY.

The whole town was shocked on Thursday afternoon last when the intelligence passed from one to another that Mrs. John A. Darling was dead.

The deceased was thirty-nine years of age on the 23rd of April last. She was a daughter of Mr. R. W. Horn, who carried on his business as blacksmith in this town for a period of about thirty years.

Beside her sorrowing husband and the family just mentioned, Mrs. Darling's death is mourned by three brothers, Samuel, of London, Nathan, of Orangeville, and Walter, of Lucknow.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. E. McNally, of Weston, aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Forsyth, of Teeswater, the latter being a sister of the deceased; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horn, of London, Mr. Nathan Horn (brother) of Orangeville, Mr. Thos. Chittick and Miss Chittick, of Walkerton (cousins).

The very deepest sympathy is felt in the community for Mr. Darling and family who have been so suddenly and sorely bereaved.

Interment took place on Sunday afternoon last to Durham cemetery whither the remains were followed by a large concourse of friends and relatives.

Card of Thanks.

To the citizens of Durham, and to the public generally, I desire to express my sincere thanks for the great sympathy manifested by all in consequence of my bereavement through the loss of my beloved wife.

Yours very truly, JOHN A. DARLING.

EBENEZER school held a successful picnic on Tuesday last, in Mrs. Britton's bush. A good program consisting of singing, recitations and speeches by Rev's. Farquharson, Pineo, and Stephenson was provided, and everyone was thoroughly pleased.

LONDON'S OPEN SORE.

Almost 80,000 People in Her Poor-houses—20,000 Children Branded With Name of Pauper.

From a London Times' article on the legal poor of London the following extracts are taken:

In dealing with the question of the legal poor of London this Christmas we have to record the dismal fact that the numbers in receipt of pauper relief in nearly every month of the past year have been greater than in any of the previous forty years comprised in the official statistics, with the exception of the period from 1867 to 1871, and that the ratio of paupers per 1,000 of the population in most months has been higher than in any year since 1874.

It is gratifying, however, to be able to state that this month the official returns record a decrease of pauperism compared with the corresponding period of 1904. The reduction began in the week ended Dec. 2, and it has continued up to the 16th last, the date of the last weekly return.

It is a deplorable fact that the poor law establishments of London contain nearly 20,000 children. Of these 7,805 are being educated and trained in district or separate schools, 3,871 in cottages and other homes, 2,968 are in workhouses and infirmaries, 1,748 are in institutions belonging to the managers of the Metropolitan Asylums Board, 2,976 are in training and industrial homes, 180 are in institutions for the blind, deaf and dumb, epileptics, etc., and 125 in hospitals and convalescent homes for the sick.

Convincing Evidence.

In the Afghan war of 1878 some British forces under the late Sir Montagu Gregory came upon the only Sikh temple in Afghanistan and heard the story of the laying of its corner-stone from a member of the gallant warrior tribe.

Lord Strathcona's Purchase. Lord Strathcona has purchased the famous Black Corries estate, of Glencoe, one of the finest grouse and deer preserves in the Highlands, and— for quite other reasons, however—described by Macaulay as 'the very valley of the shadow of death.'

An Old Roman Village.

Another old Roman village has been revealed by recent excavations at the Little Wellington wood, near the Berkshire village of Watchfield. The foundations and portions of the walls of dwellings and many pieces of pottery, jugs, bottles, bricks, nails, and other interesting objects have been found.
