A JUNE WEDDING.

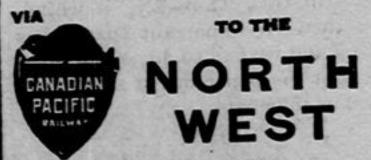

The residence of Mr. and Mrs Jas. McNally, Glenelg, was the scene of a pretty June wedding on Wednesday afternoon June the 20th, when their daughter Miss Margaret Mc Nally was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr Charles Watson of Bunessan.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Pineo, under a beautiful arch of evergree a and roses, in the pre-ence of a large gath ring of friends and relatives

The brile ho was given away by her father, was daintily gowned in white lustre and brid-1 veil, and carried a handsome bog e of roses She was arrended by Mis- Flora Mc-Arthur who was becomingly attired in white lastre.

The groom was supported by Mr James McNally brother of the bride

The presents were num-rous and valuable and attered to the ere-m in which the bride was held by her many friend -.

One of the accurate ways of telling the time is to use your hand as an hour mark. Nothing simpler. All farmers not possessed of watches or clocks, and who have some practical notions of common utilities not invented by man, but given to us by the Creator, know the rule It is necessary to keep in mind the hour of sunrise and sunset, and to hold the arm straight out from the shoulder. with the hand at right angles, bending from the wrist forward. If the sun sets at 7 o'clock and is still high in the heavens, close one eye and make three measures of the width of C. the palm near the thumb.
