THE Pastor's theme on Sabbath evening in the Methodist church will be "Girlhood." A chorus of young ladies will lead the singing.

THE Egremont Council must have a poor opinion of the pick and shovel ability of the people of Holstein when they think it advisable to pass a By-law to commute their Statute Labor at 25c. day. No doubt the wily council knows that half a loaf is better than nothing.

THE Normal Examination results were published on Saturday, with the usual large list of successful candidates for teachers. Amongst those in this vicinity whose names appeared were Miss Dora Davidson, Miss Caldwell, Miss Leeson, and Miss Andrews. We congratulate them all and trust they may find teaching both profitable and pleasant.

A BAD wreck took place on the Grand Trunk, at Varney on Tuesday evening last about six o'clock. A special train, hauling coal and clay to the Cement Works, here, left the rails near the Garafaxa street crossing, tore the track up for a distance of eighty or a hundred yards, piled the right of way up with clay, coal and broken ties and wrecked in all eleven cars. Passengers on the night train and the Baptist picnicers, who were enjoying their annual outing at Holstein, were transferred at the scene of the accident and the remaining part of the journey was made in box-cars. The wreck is supposed to have been caused by a broken flange on a large coal hopper, which with seven flat cars was badly damaged.

"Too many cooks spoil the broth." This old saying is true in more ways than one, an instance of which occurred in last issue of the Chronicle. We gave an interview with Mr. Collins of San Francisco. The notes were taken down by Ye Editor-in-chief, and being called away hastily the write-up was left to a junior writer who didn't get the "old" notes into his "young" head. The result was that two or three errors occurred in the first half of the issue. Mr. Collins was thirty-six years in San Francisco, not three years, and the number of earthquakes he himself heard after the "big" one was thirty-two instead of three hundred and twenty. These errors might be regarded as small for a newspaper, but our desire is to give as near the truth as possible, and we make the correction.

THE Baptists of Mulock gave another successful garden party at Aberdeen on Thursday last on Mr. Duncan McLean's lawn. The weather was all that could be desired, and notwithstanding the attractions at Hanover during the day, a goodly number were present to enjoy a few hours together at this annual gathering. As usual the tables were laden with everything to satisfy the cravings of the inner man, and many were the complimentary remarks heard for the good cooks of that locality. About nine o'clock a programme was given consisting of music by the Baptist Choir of Durham and short addresses by Revs. Messrs. McDonald, Bice and Ferguson, and others. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Pines, was chairman and kept everything a-goin'. A couple of well rendered duets were given by Misses Maud Davidson and Ada Browne, and by Misses Rita McComb and Lily Walker. Mr. Allan Bell was called upon, at the close of the programme, to say a few farewell words of cheer to his friends, and by the applause which followed we are now convinced that Allan has many admirers. The proceeds amounted to about $35.

WANTED.—A working housekeeper. Apply to John A. Darling.

SPECIAL. 8 bars of best soaps for 25c. on Saturday 21st. at the Big Store.

WANTED.—Young man for office work. Apply to J.P. Telford. July 13-2

THE clearing sale will be continued until the last of July. All kinds of snaps in remnants at the Big Store.

FIFTY large 12x14 beautiful photographs given away free. One with every dozen cabinet photos. F. W. Kelsey, Photographer.—July 12th

THE Presbyterian Garden Party will be held on the Manse Grounds, Tuesday evening the 31st. inst. A good programme is being prepared and a delightful time is assured.

STANDARD BANK OF Canada Savings Bank department. Interest paid quarterly on deposits from date of deposit to date of withdrawal at highest current rates. Any portion may be withdrawn at any time without delay.

THE little two or three years old son of Mr. E. A. Rowe, baker, had the misfortune last Thursday to step on an axe, which resulted in a deep wound in the foot and toe. He's a good healthy looking chunk, and as he is suffering only from a flesh wound, he will not be long getting better.

THE Trinity church garden social, held on Friday evening last, was, judging from an onlooker's standpoint, a huge success financially. Fully four hundred must have been present, and as the evening was fairly warm, the numerous good things offered for sale found ready purchasers. The Art Gallery and the Minstrels were something new and took well and helped to make a greater success out of an already successful social. Durham band was present and gave some good selections during the evening. The good people of Trinity church have won a good name in the good treatment afforded those who were lucky enough to attend their festival, and we are sure if they ever think of getting up another one, many new faces will be seen on the Rectory grounds.

It gives us much pleasure to learn of the marriage of our good friend Mr. Joseph Lindsay of West Superior, Wisconsin. The announcement of the happy event is just to hand this afternoon Monday July 16th. The bride was Miss Julia W. Wingate and the ceremony took place at her home at Burr Oak, Iowa, on Thursday last July 12th. The honor was a fitting one to commemorate the two hundred and sixteenth anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, and we have no doubt King William himself would appreciate the event, if he had been alive and well. Future anniversaries of the tying of the nuptial knot will hardly be forgotten by Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay to whom we extend our hearty congratulations. Miss Wingate made a good choice when she picked on Joe for a husband. Good luck.

THE South Grey Rifle Association is undergoing its first experience in lawlessness, committed by some low minded individual whose brain cavity is lacking even the necessary amount of gray matter to qualify him for a third rate bunk in a second-rate madhouse. If caught, he will be made to suffer for his vandalism, and about the only thing to do with this cheap John class of nonentity, is to soak 'em in their behindmost parts with a pair of those old-fashioned, hob-nailed brogans, the kind that father used to wear. The targets and pit of the association have, in some way, aroused the wrath of this imbecilic imbecile to such an extent, that, between Friday and Monday evenings he visited them, destroyed the marking discs, tore the signal flags into shreds, and knotted the running ropes of the targets. The perpetrator of the deed is known, and as soon as a little more evidence is collected, will be brought to justice. MacKay & Dunn and the Town Constables are on the trail, and with the assistance of the officers of the Rifle Association, expect to have the pleasure of introducing the party to the Police Magistrate in a few days.

GEORGE CALVERT.

Another of Bentinck's old pioneers passed peacefully away on Friday last, when Mr. George Calvert closed his eyes and sank into his last, long sleep, at his residence in Upper Town, at the age of seventy-seven years and six months. The deceased gentleman had been a sufferer for some time from a complication of ailments, and these, together with his great age, made recovery doubtful from the start.

Born in Cumberland, England, in 1829, Mr. Calvert came to Canada in 1852, and spent his first seven years in Toronto, Hamilton and Brantford. It was in Hamilton, in 1854, he wooed, won and married the lady of his choice, Miss McClocklin, sister of Mr. David McClocklin of this town, who lives to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband.

Removing to Bentinck in 1869, Mr. Calvert took up the occupation of farming, which he followed till some four years ago, when he retired and came to live in Durham. During their residence here, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert have won the approbation and respect of all who knew them. Mrs. Calvert and the sorrowing family have the sympathy of the whole community in their hour of trouble.

Mr. Calvert leaves to mourn him, a wife, three sons and six daughters, Thomas, of Russell, Man., William, of Kincardine, George, of Vancouver, B. C., Mrs. A. Wilson, of Glenelg, Mrs. R. Grierson, of Bentinck, Mrs. W. Caldwell and Mrs. W. Whitmore of Durham, Mrs. Geo. Watson, of Arkell, and Miss Millie Calvert, of Guelph.

Interment took place on Sunday last to Saugeen cemetery.
