

LACROSSE.

The junior lacrosse match in Hanover on the morning of the 12th, between Hanover and Durham, was won by Hanover, 3-1. The game played here two weeks ago, between the same teams, resulted in a tie, 4-4, and everything being equal, it was expected our junior stick-handlers would get it put all over them when the Dutchmen got in action on their own field. The score was a grateful surprise, especially when it was learned that Henning, of last year's seniors, was tending nets. There was good, spicy lacrosse played at times, well worthy the support of a larger crowd than attended Thursday morning. The two towns have each got a promising aggregation of youngsters, who, with practice, will next year or so, catch a place in much faster company than junior lacrosse in its present stage, is capable of producing to any great extent.

The teams were:—

Hanover.—goal W. Henning, p C. Henning, c p Ash, defense Kuehner, Jucksch, Klemmer, centre Jucksch, home Mearns, Hauert, Wendorf, outside Ries, inside Pepper.

Durham.—goal Hughes, p Hunter, c p D. McFadden, defense A. McFadden, Kearney, Glass, centre Burnett, home Glass, Darling, Knisley, outside Smith, inside Saunders.

The afternoon was to see the main sporting feature of the day, a lacrosse match between Wingham and Durham's fast intermediate rubber-chasers, and about 4:30 the teams lined up in front of the Reid House, and marched to the exhibition grounds. The crowd was not long in following, and at the face-off about 4:45, a large number of spectators were jammed outside the ropes the full length of the field.

The game started with a rush, and with both teams nearly matched, it took Durham some time to land one in the net. Wingham tied the score shortly after, and the quarter ended as it began—eyes score and both teams playing strong. The second quarter saw good scientific combination work gone through by both teams, and the spectators from both towns, and Hanover too, were worked to a high pitch, wondering who, and hoping their own team, would break the tie. Both teams were working hard to tally, and Wingham was finally rewarded, Reid dropping the rubber where he wanted it. Thus endeth the second quarter.

And the third quarter was, at one time, looking bad for Durham. But you can't keep the working man down, and with a bunch of workers like the Shorthorns were playing, it was hard to lose. And we didn't. Before time was up, the little rubber once more nestled sweetly in the loving arms of the Wingham flags, and tied the score.

The last period was where Durham got her pretty work in, landing three behind the flags to Wingham's none, with just enough of Father Time between the tallies to keep the spectators guessing. At no time was either team too sure of the game; the other fellow was always there, and going some, too. It was a good, clean game only one being hurt, Dinsley, Wingham. Kearns, of Arthur, was an impartial and efficient referee. Score, 5 for Durham, 2 for Wingham.

The teams lined up as follows:—
Wingham.—goal, McGillivray; p Moore, c p Wingham, defense Dinsley, McGuire, Kemkes, centre Wendorf, home Cooke, Elliott, Fleming, outside McLean, inside Reid.
Durham.—goal C. Lavelle, p Wendorf, c p B. McDonald, defense H. McDonald, Smith, Mielhhausen, centre Moore, home Trelford, Glass, W. Lavelle, outside Briggs, inside J. McDonald.

This is what the Hanover Post says in commenting on the teams, who, he remarks, put up a good, interesting game of lacrosse: "Durham put up rather the better game at nearly all stages, and their victory of 5 to 2 was deserved. Durham was without the well known and prized Matheson and one or two other good men, and so they were not out full muster. Wingham was also shy one good man, but it is safe to say that had both teams carried all their sail here, the score would have been larger in Durham's favor than was the case."

"Everybody made money but the Hanover Musical Society," says the Post. We wouldn't like to accuse our friend across the way of fibbing outright, but there's one organization in this old town whose purse was not sufficiently weighted down by the glittering metal to stall the ambulance on the homeward journey. This was the junior lacrosse team, who lost the small sum of $2.40 on their deal with the Hanover juniors. It's not much to kick about, so we'll say no more, but we shudder to think of the time when our junior lacross club, or any other athletic organization for that matter, is in a financial extremity that they can't pay the transportation and keep of fifteen men for a distance of eleven miles. The boys will dip down in their jeans and see if they can't discover the necessary 20c per man to cover the expense. This isn't a jab at Hanover, whose people outdid themselves on the 12th; neither at the Musical Society, who shelled out the hard stuff with a facial expression that would suggest gains instead of losses. 'Tis a mere statement of facts, but the amount is so blooming small that were this office presented with the whole thing, it wouldn't much more than pay for the space we've used up chirping about it.

Allan Park and Durham kickers of the pig-skin came together on the grounds here on Friday evening last, Durham winning 1-0. By some misunderstanding, Allan Park sent their junior team, so a team was picked promiscuously from amongst the spectators. The game was quite interesting, though Durham had the better of the contest at nearly all stages of the contest.

Mr. Henry Brigham, of Allan Park, started a new Massey Harris binder this week and is delighted with the way it works. He bought it from Messrs. McQueen and Morice the town agents here.

Messrs. A. A. Catton, Alistair Gun, Tom Lyons and Frank Vickers, left Tuesday morning for a trip West. They took tickets for Regina, but will visit Battleford and other important points before their return. We wish them a pleasant trip.

We regret the serious condition of Wesley Storry who underwent an operation Tuesday at Fergus hospital for appendicitis. A telegram just as we go to press states he is holding his own but that there is no hope. We cannot express our sympathy for the distressed father in the sore trial he has to bear.

Haying is nicely started in the burg, and taken on an average the crop is good. The trouble is to get help to take it off, as men seem to be scarce.

Mr. Jas Atkinson has finished his contract of running the road grader for the present season, and in a brief interview with him he stated that it was no snap handling those levers. He is busy haying now.

Messrs. David Ritchie and Wm. Ryan have taken the contract of gravelling 200 rods of road on the town line between Glenelg and Egremont.

Mr. Arthur Weir of the O. S. Collegiate Institute is at present spending his holidays at the old home.

Lacrosse Challenge

The Nationals of Durham, a juvenile club, herewith issue a challenge to any team in South Grey, Hanover preferred, to play a game of Lacrosse on the Agricultural Grounds, Durham. The conditions are:—no player to weigh over 100 pounds and no one to be over fourteen years of age. The Nationals, if defeated, will pay all expenses. Challenge remains open till Sept. 1st. Robert Saunders, Captain.

Who is Mrs Saunders?

A letter addressed to Mrs. E. M. Saunders from Brookston, Minn., was forwarded last week from Varney to Durham and opened by Mr. Thomas Saunders. It was not for him and he left it with us to find an owner. It contains a Dominion Express Order issued at Crystal City, Man., signed by G. E. Adams as remitter. The enclosed letter contains no name by which we can ascertain the writer. One is signed Lillie and both letters, for there are two enclosed, are addressed to "My dear mother." The Express Order is of value and we hope to be able to place it in the hands of the proper owner.
