EXPECTS LATE HARVEST.

Mr. F. W. Thompson Speaks of Crop Outlook in the West.

Speaking of the latest crop reports from the West, on Saturday, Mr. F. W. Thompson, vice president and managing director of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, Ltd., said:

"Our advices from the West are generally favorable. The growth, however, is very rank, and we do not look for the harvest to be general before the last week of August or the first of September. It is also impossible to make any predictions regarding the probable yield at the present time where the growth is running so much to straw, and we certainly do not look for so early a harvest as some people are predicting. Allowing that it will be generally headed out by July 10 or 12, the period of harvest would be then in about six weeks, which would mean from August 21 to 23, under ordinary conditions, but with so much straw as this year, it will require from ten to fourteen days longer."

"It will be seen, therefore, that under favorable conditions, based on past experience, it is not reasonable to expect harvesting to be general before September 1, although it is quite possible that here and there favored spots may get started earlier."

Mr. Thompson added that up to date there had been some damage by hail. He noted that 1,200 acres had been destroyed on the night of July 3, at Manitowish, Man., 2,000 at Grand View, and 1,500 acres at Oakville, but in the aggregate the quantity destroyed by hail did not go beyond the average of past years.

When Seven Men Die.

You know at least one of them. had Consumption. At first it was only catarrh—but it was neglected. When "Catarrhose" cures so quickly it's foolish to suffer—it's a shame to keep on sniffing and hawking. Catarrhose goes direct to the cause of the disease,—that's why it's so dead certain to cure. It stops the cough, prevents that disgusting discharge, clears phlegm out of the throat in five minutes. Very pleasant and safe too; get Catarrhose from your druggist to day.

A BIG FISH.

The largest sturgeon ever caught in fresh water was received by the Doyle Fish Company, of Toronto, last week, and the remarkable catch reported to Mr. S. T. Bastedo, deputy commissioner of Provincial fisheries. The mammoth fish was caught near Warton, in the Georgian Bay, and weighed 323 lbs. This is the biggest ever heard of in fresh water, the previous record being a sturgeon of 185 lbs., caught in the same district some years ago. Some idea of the value of the huge specimen, which was caught in a pound net, can be formed by the fact the fish sells at 12 to 15 cents per lb., and being a female has over 100 lbs. of roe, which sells at 70 cents per lb. Mr. Bastedo at once instituted steps to have the fish preserved and mounted, but, unfortunately, its great length had so inconvenienced the skippers that they had cut off both its head and tail.—Shelburne Economist.

A SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

There occurred on Wednesday last, at six-thirty o'clock in town a runaway that was attended by rather serious results. John Irwin's team, which was attached to a wagon loaded with lumber, was standing near Mr. Irwin's barn on Yonge street, when a board, which Stewart Crumley was handling off the load to Mr. Irwin, slipped out of his grasp and struck one of the horses. Both animals jumped and before either could get the lines, tore along Yonge to Main, and in turning the corner east the hind wheels came off taking with them the lumber and the boy. The horses made straight for the McCullough House corner, and before the people standing there knew what was the matter, had run between the hotel and the big telephone pole. A Drasby was one of the number and he jumped behind the pole, thinking to escape danger, but the tongue on the wagon struck him on the side, breaking three ribs and knocking him into the street. He was carried into the hotel, and later home, and will soon be able to be around again. The boy was hurt slightly, but his escape was miraculous. The wagon and harness were badly smashed, but the horses escaped uninjured.—Dundalk Herald

A MORTAR-FIED TOAD.

As some workmen were repairing the stone tower, on the Evangelical church at Hespeler, which had been leaking, a toad was found imbedded in the mortar between two stones with just enough room to move and was still alive and quite lively. The tower, which was forty feet high, was built sixteen years ago, and the toad must have been put into its prison at the time. Mr. Walker, who did the repairing, has the toad, which is the color of the mortar, on exhibition at his residence.—EX.

HE WAS LOADED.

Yesterday forenoon a man who could not sit up straight in his buggy drove recklessly along Main street. Finally in its meandering the horse ran the rig against a telephone post and the man was thrown out violently on his head. He soon picked himself up and made the sage remark: "If I hadn't been drunk I'd a' been killed." If he had not been drunk he would probably have been conducting himself like a decent citizen and a reasonable being. No, we don't know who he was.—Mt. Forest Confederate.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Disease Prevalent Now But Can Be Cured with Hyomei.

Until very recent years, it was thought that catarrh was a disease of the blood, but now modern science has proved that catarrh is a germ disease, and can be cured only by a treatment that will kill the germ and heal the mucous membrane of the throat.

Therefore, when you have catarrh, you can readily see that if you want to cure it, you should use Hyomei, which medicates the air you breathe, thus killing the catarrhal germs and healing the smarting and raw membrane of the passages through the nose and throat. In breathing Hyomei you are really treating your catarrhal troubles with the only natural method, for it will make the air you breathe as pure, healing and antiseptic as that found on the mountains where the pine forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and a medicine dropper, costs only $1, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

If you cannot obtain Hyomei of your dealer, it will be forwarded by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price. Write to-day for consultation blank that will entitle you to services of our medical department without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Hyomei Building, Ithaca, N. Y.

WESTERN FAIR, LONDON.

The Western Fair of London, Ont., will be held this year Sep 7th to 15th. Over three thousand prize lists and several hundred banners have already been mailed, and the large posters will be sent out in a few days.

The Board have this year added over $1500 00 to the prize list, making the prizes in all classes well worth competing for. Entries are coming in quite fast and space is being allotted accordingly.

Over four thousand dollars will be expended this year, and an entirely new and up to date entrance on Dundas Street is in course of erection. The Western Fair has taken its place as the leading exhibition of Western Ontario and manufacturers and merchants are not slow to see the advantage it affords of bringing their goods before the public.

In the arrangement of the prize list the interests of the farming community have not been lost sight of and special inducements will be found for the enterprising farmer to show his stock and products of his farm.

There will be an exceedingly interesting programme of attractions this year, of which more will be said later. The Secretary, Mr. A. M. Hunt, would be pleased to mail a prize list to any one who have not as yet received one, or give any information regarding the Exhibition, on application to the office, London, Ont.

Clear Weddings.

It is hard to look over my record of marriage services without continuous comment," writes the Rev. John Henry Barrows, president of Oberlin College. In a memoir of her father's life Miss Barrows gives some of his experiences in his own words.

"I recall the marriage where the awkward father of the bride, who was himself nearly seven feet tall, tried to kneel when his daughter knelt and who required help after the benediction to bring him to his feet again.

"I remember the loving groom who had come to my house to be wed and who, after the ceremony, tenderly remarked:

"Jennie has no friends here, doctor. I should be so glad if you would kiss her."

"I think of the couple whom I called by wrong names, saying, 'Do you, George?' 'Do you, Martha?' when I was really addressing John and Jane. In hurriedly glancing over the license I had read the names of the bride's father and mother instead of those of the bride and groom."

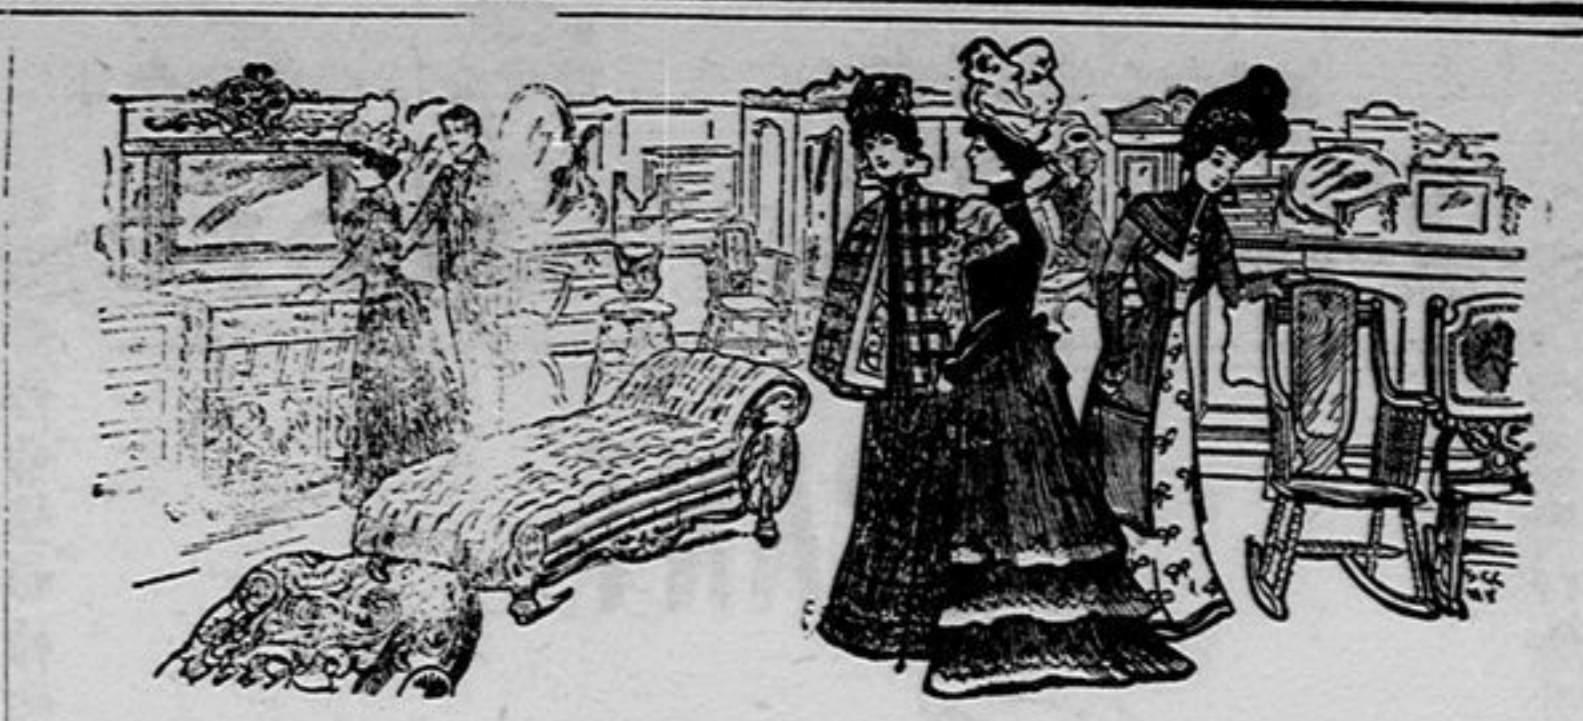

A Story of Edwin Forrest.

Edwin Forrest, the great actor, was at Columbus, O., on one of his tours. It was in the railroad station at midnight. It was cold, bleak, biting weather, and the old fellow hobbled up and down the platform, but there was majesty even in his very hobble. An undertaker's wagon pulled up at the station and a corpse was removed from it. The baggageman carelessly hustled the body into his dray and wheeled it down the platform. As he halted, old Forrest broke out into the most horrible cursing, and with his tongue lashed the baggageman for his careless handling of the human clay. Then he turned, approached the corpse and broke into the oration of Mark Antony over the body of Caesar. No one was there but the frightened baggageman and a handful of actors. The great actor's voice rose and fell and the subtle tears and resolute thunder of the oration awoke the echoes of the station as a grand organ in a majestic cathedral. He read every line of the oration and said in an aside speech as a climax: "There, take that, you poor clay in the coffin. I'll be dead myself inside a year." And he was.
