

CONVICTED ON HIS OWN EVIDENCE.

Hotelkeeper David Butler is Found Guilty. A Startling Statement.

(Special Despatch to the Globe.) Aylmer, Oct. 2.—The hearing of evidence in the charge against David Butler, proprietor of the licensed Albion Hotel at Orwell, of keeping a disorderly house, was concluded this afternoon before County Police Magistrate F. Hunt. A conviction was registered, but the imposition of a penalty was deferred pending the argument at St. Thomas next week on a technical point as to whether the conviction is to be regarded under the amended liquor license act as a second conviction, one having been previously made against Butler a few months ago. The case was the one in which the Conservative machine sought to throw the onus on Mr. W. F. Hepburn, the former Liberal candidate for East Elgin, and it has been hanging fire for weeks. But though the Magistrate convicted Butler, he pointed out that he did so absolutely on defendant's own testimony. Butler, he declared, had failed to exercise proper care in the conduct of his house.

SOME SIGNIFICANT POINTS. Those who had followed the case did not fail to notice the significance of several striking incidents in connection therewith. One was that already referred to, namely, Butler's conviction solely on the testimony given by himself. Another was the fact that Butler stated he was in absolute ignorance of how the case came to the attention of the people not at his hotel on the night in question, and finally to that of the license inspector, the alleged circumstances being known only to himself, one of the women and Mr. Hepburn. The inspector was not examined on this point, which, so far as the public is concerned, remains a mystery. There was also the apparent attempt to bring in Mr. Hepburn's name at every opportunity and make it appear he was on trial. This led to an emphatic declaration from the Magistrate to the effect that the charge was not against Mr. Hepburn or anyone else, but Butler.

At the close of the case Magistrate Hunt, who had acted in that capacity for thirty years, took occasion to express some sterling opinions in reference to a question of importance to the social life of the county and the attitude of the temperance people thereon.

A DEPLORABLE CONDITION.

After disposing of the case, as stated, Magistrate Hunt addressed the crowd in the court room as follows: "I want to say, because I see a good many ratepayers here, that I consider it in the interests of the public, and especially of the young people, that these public houses, licensed or unlicensed, should be conducted in a moral way. We have had in parts of Elgin county, in Yarmouth and Southwold, for instance, local option elections. Women and temperance men have become very much excited in these elections. They have held public meetings and prayer meetings to ask and aid the Almighty to carry local option acts, and what is the result? The result is that in the room of having licensed hotels we have in a good many cases, not in all, unlicensed bawdy houses. I know whereof I am talking. I am out through the country two or three times a week. Going by these places I see from ten to thirty rigs tied up by these unlicensed houses, and I know that in every one of these rigs have been a man and a woman, and often a girl under fourteen years of age. I think it far better myself to have licensed houses than to have these unlicensed houses of prostitution if they cannot be wiped out.

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE CRITICISED.

"What is the attitude of the temperance people after they have carried these local option laws? I will give you an example: A man came to me the other day and he said, 'Squire, there is a local option hotel in my neighborhood and I am sorry to say that my boy is going there at nights. I see many girls going there almost every night from the city (St. Thomas) and many young men too. I want you to put a stop to it.' 'I said, 'How do you know this?' 'He answered, 'I have watched it with my own eyes.' 'I said to him, 'You lay the information and I will take care to look after the matter.' 'But,' continued the Magistrate, 'he did not want to do this for fear, he said, of creating bad feeling. Then I told him to lay the information anyway, and I would subpoena his boy. His answer was, 'Squire I am afraid my boy would not tell the truth,' and he declined to lay the information.

"Two or three nights later there was a prayer meeting, and this same man asked Almighty God to close up that bawdy house. I am afraid that in the day of judgment the Almighty will want to rule him out of court for contempt. In place of asking the Almighty to shut up that house that man and his friends should have got a hustle on, secured the evidence necessary to convict the keeper of that house, laid an information, and I would have done the rest."

EARLIER MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

The Ontario Municipal Union has decided to petition the Provincial Government to change the date of holding the municipal elections so that nominations may take place the last Monday in November, and polling the first Monday in December. In other words it requires that we pursue the system that prevails in Manitoba. It has long been felt that the present practice of holding elections on the first Monday in January is an undesirable one, largely because of interference with the Christmas trade and with the holiday season. Elections on New Year's day have also been considered objectionable in some quarters, while favored in others. The change suggested by the Municipal Union would do away with these objections and it is not unlikely it will be seriously entertained.

"A TUG OF WAR."

One of those delightful and interesting pictures that brings sunshine in one's home is entitled "A Tug of War," and has been selected by the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal as their annual gift to subscribers this season. It is a beautiful gravure, 22x29 inches, on the best plate paper. It certainly is a gem worthy of the best place on the walls of any home. When one sees the picture and learns that it is given absolutely free to all who subscribe to that great family weekly there is no longer cause to wonder why the Family Herald and Weekly Star has five times the number of readers of any other weekly in the country. Any person remitting one dollar for a year's subscription to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal will get the picture free, and from the demand we learn you cannot get your dollar in too quickly. "The Tug of War" is a high class production and would command a high price if sold in the stores, but it is reserved for Family Herald subscribers.

MANY CHILDREN SICK.

Get their feet wet, catch cold or cramps, and give mothers an anxious time. With the first shiver or sneeze rub the little one's chest with Nerviline, gargle the throat, and give ten drops in hot water at bed-time. Next morning all is well. No cold, no time lost at school. If Polson's Nerviline isn't in your home get it there at once. Dealers sell it in large 25c bottles.

Sackett's Corners.

The farmers are busy ploughing and taking up potatoes at present. We don't hear of the rot being so bad in potatoes as last season, and there is an average good yield. Miss Margaret McDougal spent Sunday with her parents here. Mr. and Mrs. T. Haw, of Toronto, visited at Mr. G. Sackett's and other friends this week, returning home on Saturday. Mrs. G. Witter is visiting friends at Neustadt this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lane visited friends at Hanover recently. We are pleased to hear that Miss Sadie McFadden is very much improved in health since her return from the city. Mrs. Donald McMillen, of Webwood, who is visiting friends in this part, called on Mr. and Mrs. Sackett. Mrs. Sealey returned to her home in Stratford this week after a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Jas. Renwick, of this place. Mrs. Sealey made many friends while here. We will welcome her return. Miss May Ernest is home from Durham at present. Mr. and Mrs. Love, of New England, is visiting friends at Bolton and taking in the fall show.

Preventics, as the name implies, prevent all Colds and Grippe when "taken at the sneeze stage." Preventics are toothsome candy tablets. Preventics dissipate all colds quickly, and taken early, when you first feel that a cold is coming, they check and prevent them. Preventics are thoroughly safe for children, and as effective for adults. Sold and recommended in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes by Macfarlane & Co.

This is an apt description of constipation. It's an unnatural condition to begin with, and it's more, because it brings about blood deterioration, interferes with digestion, renders you susceptible to infectious diseases and causes anaemia.
