THE LAST SURVIVOR.

'Twas the last word of English Left blooming alone,
All its lovely companions Were faded and gone.
For the President's ukase Had blighted the fruit, And had withered the branches—Destroyed every root.
Words from Saxon and Norman,
Were kicked by the crime, Leaving this sole survivor, Last darling of time Though the flowers of Shakespeare Had vanished from view, All alone in its glory Still flourished "skidoo!"

HOW LARGE IS CANADA?

Canada is larger than the United States by 250,000 square mile.

Canada contains one third of the area of the British Empire.

Canada extends over twenty degrees of latitude—from Rome to the North Pole.

Canada is as large as thirty United Kingdoms.

Canada is as large as eighteen Germanys, twenty Spains, twenty-three Italys

Canada has a boundary line of 3,000 miles between it and the United States.

Canada's sea coast equals half the earth's circumference.

Canada is 3,500 miles wide and 1,400 miles from south to north.

Harmful Stomach Dosing

No Need of It When Hyomei is Used to Cure Catarrh.

Physicians and scientists agree that the less medicine one swallows, the better. It is in keeping with this idea that Hyomei is recommended by leading physicians throughout this and other catarrhal sections.

When this treatment is used in catarrhal troubles, there is no stomach dosing, for the medicine is taken in with the air you breathe, and goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present, heating the inflamed and irritated mucous membrane, killing the disease germs and entering the blood with the oxygen, driving all catarrhal germs from the system.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head by putting medicine into your stomach.—this is neither a scientific nor common sense treatment.
Breathe the healing balsams of Hyomei and in a few days you will notice relief, and its continued use will result in a complete and lasting cure.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents. We do not want anyone's money unless Hyomei gives relief and cure, and we absolutely agree that money will be refunded unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hyomei or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, and every package is sold with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Write us to-day for a symptom blank, which we will send you free, together with treatise on Catarrh and how to cure it. When you fill in and return to us the symptom blank, our consulting physician will give your case the best care and attention, and write you a letter of advice without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

Jack-the-Hugger on Deck Again

Jack-the-Hugger appears to be in evidence again. On Friday night last a young lady was followed and molested on Water st. near the Seldon house, but escaped into the hotel, and on Saturday two young women had a similar experience on Terrace street near Brooke, but the hugger was frightened off. This fellow appears to have periodical spells. It is to be hoped he will strike a snag soon and get what he richly deserves—a good thrashing. Another assault was committed on Saturday afternoon when an elderly lady was attacked and grossly insulted on Mill Road.
The victim managed to escape without bodily injury, but is completely prostrated with the shock. It would be well to detail a policeman, or better, an officer in plain clothes, to patrol this section of the town, so that this menace to the safety of women may be disposed of and the streets made safe.—O. S. Sun.

THROWING OUT HINTS.

When an East-Lober father found out that his son John was sparking a certain farmer's daughter for a year or more without settling any question, he called him on behind the stack and said to him:

"John, do you love Susan Tinker?"

"I guess I do, dad."

"And does she love you?"

"That's what I dunno, and I'm afraid to ask her."

"Well, you'd better throw out a few hints to-night and find out. It's no use wearing out boot leather unless you are going to marry her."

That night at ten o'clock, John came home a wreck. His face was all scratched up, his ear was bleeding, his hat gone and his back was covered with mud.

"John! John! What on airth is the matter?" exclaimed the old man laying down his paper.

"Bin over to Tinkers," was the reply.

"And—add—"

"And I threw out a few hints to Susan."

"What kind o' hints?"

"Why, told her I'd been hoofing it two miles four nights out of a week for the last year to set up with her while she chewed gum and sung through her nose, and now I reckoned it was time for her to brush her teeth and darn up her stockings, cure the hile on her chin and tell the old folks that we're engaged."

"And her bounce you?"

"No, dad, no; that's where I'm consoled. It took the whole gashed family, including Susan, two bired men and three dogs, and then I was n't more'n half licked. I guess we moved on 'em too soon, dad—I guess it wasn't quite time to throw our hints."

SAM JONES DEAD.

Sam Jones, the noted Evangelist and temperance reformer is dead.
He was found dead in his berth on the train, on his way to Memphis, Tennessee. Samuel Parker Jones.

Sam Jones' who first became prominently known to the people of this Province during a series of revival services which he conducted many years ago in the city of Toronto, was born in Alabama on October 16th, 1817. Removing to Cartersville, Ga. in 1859, he studied under private tutor and at boarding schools.

Having begun a professional life as a lawyer under bright auspices he broke down in health, from nervous dyspepsia, and then took to drink. In 1872 he professed religion, and became a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the south. Even while pastor of various churches he devoted much of his time to Evangelistic work. For the past fifteen years this line of endeavor has engrossed his whole energies, and he has appeared in all the principal cities of Canada and the United States.

HORSE STOLEN.

Gustav Schultz was a very excited man for about 24 hours of the latter part of the week, and he had good reason to be excited. On Friday afternoon he drove down town and put up his horse at the Central Hotel sheds. When he came around an hour or so after to get his horse again he found no horse there. After enquiring of everybody he met for an hour or two, and being unable to secure any information in regard to the missing outfit, he naturally concluded that horse and rig had been stolen. Next day he employed High Constable Russell to locate the stolen property, and before dark the same day he had succeeded in doing so.
The horse was found tied to the fence near Connor's mill in Brant. It had evidently been out all night. No trace of the thief has yet been discovered. It is assumed that somebody, probably in a state of intoxication, drove the rig for a few miles into the country, and then realized that he was engaged in a dangerous piece of business, tied it up to the fence and got away himself as fast as he could.—Walkerton Telescope.
