

Many Happy Returns of the Day

To his Majesty King Edward on his 67 birthday. Long may he rule over us, happy and glorious. God Save the King.

BARGAIN COUNTER MARRIAGES.

Of late years the number of American girls who have thrown themselves and fortunes at the feet of characterless and impetuous young sons of the English nobility, has caused them to be the laughing stock of all Europe, as well as Canada. They have become the subject of coarse jests, and the stock subject for cartoonists.

These stories that appear from time to time in the press show all too plainly that wealth counted by millions, titles, princely ancestry and high position in society, do not bring happiness for either man or woman.

It is probable that none of the so called international marriages has ever attracted so much attention as did that of the young Duke of Marlborough and Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, who, at the time of her marriage, was not quite eighteen.

Since her arrival as a bride in England, the Duchess of Marlborough has made herself exceedingly popular with all classes. She has been an active supporter of charities of every sort; she has been a hard worker for the benefit of the tenants of the Blenheim estate, and a general favorite in society.

Two lovely children are the result of the alliance; they are with their father at Blenheim, while the Duchess lives at Sunderland House. When such unhappy broken hearted wives have realized the terrible mistake they have made in life and behold their bargain counter husbands (of noble ancestry) degenerate and depraved beyond the hope of redemption, their horror and shame may be imagined.

To know that one has thrown away the most priceless thing in life on such a social degenerate, is the saddest and most bitter ending that could come to any young life. Such a romance and such a life!

The woman in the case named is not given, but it is known that she belongs to one of the families of ancient lineage.

DEARTH OF PREACHERS.

Presbyterian Church of Canada Need More Ministers.

"The scarcity of Presbyterian ministers," said Rev. Mr. McGregor, editor of the Presbyterian, yesterday afternoon, in referring to the prospect of further pulp vacancies in the Paris Presbytery, "is great. In this presbytery there are at present six vacancies altogether, and four of those who occupied the pulpits have gone to the West."

ALMOST DEAD OF BRONCHITIS.

Few people have suffered more than Jno. P. Taylor of Dymont, P. O., Ont. To-day he is well and writes: "I must tell you how much Catarrh-ozone has been to me. I was so bad with bronchitis sometimes I thought it would soon be over with me."

Grand Valley, Nov. 1—A Chinaman named Quong Lung, who had been conducting a laundry business here for the past few months, was found dead, having committed suicide by hanging himself.

The citizen who saves time at the risk of his life by taking a short cut along the railway track is liable to fine or imprisonment. The hobo who hides on the bumpers and rides free for a hundred miles gets thirty days in jail if the railway yard constable catches him.

There is joy in many a household. There is joy in many a soul. When the busy benefactor hits the riding with his roll, then mother buys her bonnet, and the kids are nicely dressed.

Oh, it's London, merry London, When election day is near, When the streets are paved with silver, And the fountains running beer, And if you do not credit, What I've told you in this rhyme, Why, go and visit London, In the glad election time.

They usually contain acids and burn the flesh. The one safe cure in liquid form is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which is purely vegetable, causes no pain and cures in one day. Don't forget the name—"Putnam's."

It takes more than modern machinery to produce good flour. It is the care used in selecting the wheat before it is ground and the searching tests of expert chemists afterwards that give its nutritious qualities, its purity and its uniform goodness. In its preparation no process tending to improve its quality is omitted or slighted. Tell your grocer that you want Royal Household because the makers guarantee it.

The Beauty of the Morning.

Oh, the beauty of the morning! It showers its splendors down From the crimson robes of sunshine, the azure mountain's crown; It smiles amid the waving fields, it dapples in the streams.

It floats upon the limpid air in rainbow clouds of mist, It ripples through the glowing skies in pearl and amethyst; It gleams in every burnished pool, it riots through the grass, It splashes waves of glory on the shadows as they pass.

It steals among the nodding trees and to the forest croons In airy note and gentle voice, 'neath waning penitence; It calls, and lo! the wooded brakes, the hills and tangled fens— A world of life and mystery—swarm with its denizens.

It trembles in the perfumed breeze, and where its ardor runs A thousand light-winged choristers pant forth their orisons; A thousand echoes clasp their hands, and from their dewy beds A million scarlet-throated flowers peer forth with startled heads.

Oh, the beauty of the morning! It rains upon our ears; The music of the universe, the chiming of the spears; From cloistered wood and leafy vale its tuneful medleys throng, Till all the earth is drenched in light and all the world in song!

Harmful Stomach Dosing

No Need of It When Hyomei Is Used to Cure Catarrh.

Physicians and scientists agree that the less medicine one swallows, the better. It is in keeping with this idea that Hyomei is recommended by leading physicians throughout this and other catarrhal sections.

When this treatment is used in catarrhal troubles, there is no stomach dosing, for the medicine is taken in with the air you breathe, and goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present, healing the inflamed and irritated mucous membrane, killing the disease germs and entering the blood with the oxygen, driving all catarrhal germs from the system.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head by putting medicine into your stomach,—this is neither a scientific nor common sense treatment. Breathe the healing balsams of Hyomei—and in a few days you will notice relief, and its continued use will result in a complete and lasting cure.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents. We do not want anyone's money unless Hyomei gives relief and cure, and we absolutely agree that money will be refunded unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hyomei or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, and every package is sold with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Write us to-day for a symptom blank, which we will send you free, together with treatise on Catarrh and how to cure it.

A very happy event took place in Detroit on Wednesday, Sept. 26th, which will be of interest to quite a few in this vicinity, when Miss Jessie, daughter of Mr. Archibald Park, of Applegate, Mich., formerly of Allan Park, became the bride of Mr. Frank Smaldon. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. Mr. Allan. The bride was very becomingly attired in white silk being unattended. The young couple will reside in Applegate.—Post.
