

All-Winter Coughs Often Start Now

Quite often a cough is developed in the early fall which lingers through the entire winter, sometimes growing dangerously worse as the cold weather advances

Don't neglect what you consider a simple cough, it may not be as simple as you think. Take Carr's Cough Cure and cure it at once, then you are it won't become dangerous.

Carr's Cough Cure is a modern preparation and unlike the old-fashioned cough remedies does not drug the cough with opiates, but cures scientifically by acting directly on the inflamed surface restoring the air passages to normal condition. We warrant it

DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, NOVEMBER 8, 1906.

SANCTUM SIFTINGS.

The time is fast coming when we should begin to take an interest in the Council for 1907. Municipal affairs in the town are very sadly neglected and the neglect is not at all creditable to the intelligence of the electors who should get, if possible, the best and most capable men to transact the town's business. It is rather sad to think that in years gone by the town has had to go begging for enough members to form a council. Some times we have been fairly well represented and sometimes we have not. In the face of such circumstances it is unfair and uncharitable to criticise the faults and follies of the men we had to put there by coaxing them to accept the position. Such should not be the case, there should be more interest taken on the electors generally, and every man should use his franchise without being forced to it. We are not going to name any prospective ratepayers just now as suitable persons to sit at the Council table. It may be that the present council is all right in the opinion of a majority of the electors. If so they should be sent back again, but from the hints we hear the satisfaction with the present board is not wholly unanimous. These men did not all seek the position and as they were in a measure forced to accept we should be willing to submit to their short-comings if such there be. Let the electors now think out their men and not leave so important a matter to the eleventh hour and then grumble for the rest of the year.

The "Claim" was a monthly publication issued at Nelson B. C., by Mr. J. T. Lowery, and was denied the privilege of the mail a short time ago by the authorities at Ottawa. He writes a letter to "The Flaneur" in the Mail stating his position, to which that able writer replies in the following sensible paragraph:

"In publishing Mr. Lowery's letter I neither approve nor condemn Lowery's Claim, of which I have only at intervals seen four or five copies. My object is to protest against post-office censorship of opinion. Within a brief period the postal authorities at Ottawa have arbitrarily refused the use of the mails to Secular Thought (published in Toronto), Physical Culture (published in New Jersey), Eugene Debs' labor paper (published in New York), and Lowery's Claim (published in British Columbia). I have never seen a single copy of Debs' paper, and have no knowledge of what it contains. But the point is—are the post office people at Ottawa to dictate to us what political or theological views we may be allowed to read? Some blackguardly sheets published in London and Paris are openly sold here; they are not interfered with. Any paper issued in the Dominion of Canada can be called to account in the law court; any other course of procedure is arbitrary, unnecessary, and unjust."

REGULAR meeting of Durham Lodge No. 306 A. F. & A. M. Tuesday evening, Nov. 13. Official visit of D. D. G. M. Visitors welcome. W. E. Brooker, W. M.; J. R. Gun, Secy.

WE notice that Mr. Newton Large the choir master in Scrope street, Methodist church, Owen Sound, was presented with a silver tea service last week. He was married recently to a Miss Marcotte of Leamington and the choir of which he was leader thought this a good time to do something handsome. Mr. Large was once a pupil of Ye Editor, and some members of the family of Mrs. Large can look back to the same distinguished honor. It always affords us pleasure to see our former pupils succeeding in life.

WE hear that the wood pile artists have begun work again, and that one chap who sold wood to a family in town, got the sticks so "stilted" that that a cat running through the holes jarred the pile and the whole thing tumbled in on itself. Such daylight robbers should be attended to and made to suffer for the fraudulent practice of selling fresh air at two dollars and a half a short cord. And we'd bet ten dollars to a cent if we had the money that these very thieves are the quickest to grumble about being cheated by storekeepers and others whom they deal with. It never pays a man to be dishonest. We got some wood from a man named Sparling out in Glenelg and we have no fault to find with the piling. He doesn't take the Chronicle either.

THERE was a calendar man round the other day and we presume the merchants have been giving their orders. From the moment the calendars are seen to arrive the youngsters will be on the war path to the annoyance of every dealer. These calendars actually cost from $15.00 $500 a thousand. Many of those given in past years cost the merchant as high as ten or fifteen cents apiece, and we feel safe in saying that it's nothing short of impertinence for the man who never buys a dollars worth in a store to expect a calendar for nothing. This giving away business is a nuisance and one bad feature about it is that ninety nine per cent have but very little appreciation for what he gets for nothing. Calendars are for customers and they should be given out properly. There are some families of whom every member will make a systematic round to every store in town, while deserving ones have to go without. It would be a perfectly legitimate business to buy calendars and sell them like every other commodity. If this were done the number in some families would be lessened. What right have we to expect something for nothing.

A DOLLAR A YEAR.

The price of the Chronicle is a dollar a year—no more, no less. We make no glaring promises about the character of the paper in the future. The progress will depend upon the support we get from our readers and patrons generally. We have been quietly moving onward since we took up the editorial quill. When we made a dollar we didn't hoard it up but we used it to make our business better. It is not our intention to defraud the people and die a multimillionaire so that our great wealth may give us a good name when we're gone and the hospitals, and asylums we endow may perpetuate our memory to the children's children of those who now live. That isn't our way. We are going to let the present generations have the benefit of our work and those who help us on legitimately will be repaid with interest by getting a better paper.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

UPSET LOCAL OPTION.

The local option by-law passed by the Township of Elma, Perth County, was quashed by the divisional court at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, on Oct. 23rd. The by-law was passed last January by 506 to 305, but John Bell a local hotelkeeper, moved to quash it on the ground of technical irregularities. The by-law had omitted to make provision for the appointment of persons to represent each side at the counting of the ballots. The poll books were also improperly closed in many cases. Judge Anglin dismissed the motion on the ground that the irregularities did not effect the result of the vote. "We are all of the opinion that the judgment should be reversed," said Chief Justice Falconbridge in court at the conclusion of the argument. Judges Britton and Mabee were on the bench with the chief justice.

YESTERDAY THE LAST DAY.

Yesterday was the last day for filing petitions whereby Municipal Councils would be compelled to submit local option by-laws. Providing the petition was signed by 25 per cent of the ratepayers, the Councils are forced to allow the people to vote, but from now on they may submit the by-law or not, according to their own wish, no matter what percentage of the ratepayers sign the petition. Up to date local option people have been laboring in 105 municipalities. —Mail & Empire of Nov. 2nd.

A NUMBER of little girls were boasting of the rank of their respective families. They had passed from clothes to personal appearance, then to interior furnishings, financially came to parental dignity. The minister's little girl boasted—"Every package that comes to my papa is marked D. D." And every package that comes for my papa is marked M. D." retorted the daughter of the physician. Then followed a look of contempt from the youngest of the party. "Why!" she exclaimed, "every package that comes to our house is marked C. O. D."

A NATIVE of Ireland started away on his first trip. Never having been in a railroad station, he did not know how to get his ticket, but he saw a lady going in and determined to follow her.

The lady went to the ticket box, and putting down her money, said: "Maryhill, single." Next in line was Pat, who promptly planked down his money and said: "Patrick Murphy, married."
