

Bakery and Residence of Geo. H. Stinson.

G. H. STINSON.

A place where the staff of life is er and confectioner at this point, and terested in every movement tending to those who are in a position to know promote the town's interests. say that there are very few in this country, who can turn out bread or pastry the equal of what G. Stinson and he keeps all kinds of canned goods in stock. As a citizen he is well and favorably known.

MRS, JOHN LAWRENCE. Mos., 22 Days.

frame, she was rational to the last and business men. was quite entertaining when interviewed by the Chronicle only a short time before her death. The Lawrence families in this vicinity are nearly all

MACFARLANE & CO.

This is one of the leading as well as one of the largest business houses here, conducting a drug and book store. In the line of drugs and proprietary medicines they carry the very best. In drugs particulary they have all the best and purest that money can buy, and the same may be said of proprietary medicines, perfumery and toilet goods generally. They carry without doubt one of the best lines ever shown here. Wall paper kept in stock to make selections from. Now is the time to do your housecleaning and wall papering. At Macfarlane & Co.'s you can always depend upon receiving a good line of wall paper and sold very reasonable. This firm are also direct dealers in seeds, fancy Chinaware, etc. Dominion Express, G. N.

In grocories you always

are and fresh. Mr. Grants

a business details and keeps

o. The celebrated Stanfield

he is agent for. He is a

Durham.

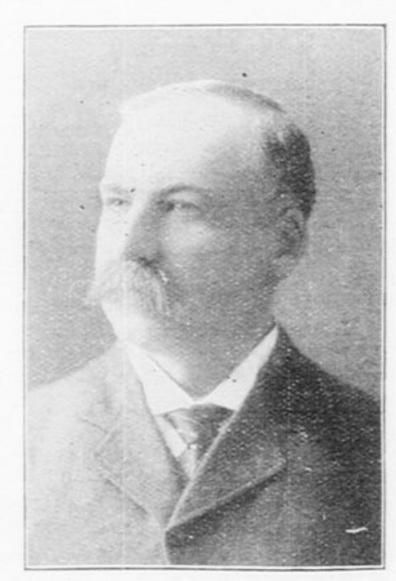

W. Telegraph and ticket agent for C. P. R. As a citizen and a business manufactured must naturally be a man Mr. Macfarlane is one of Durham's place of interest. G. Stinson is a bak. most highly esteemed and popular, in-

E. W. LIMIN.

Every line of business one must serve does, which has won for him an envi- an apprenticeship to if a success is to able name hereabouts. Fruits of all be made of it. Mr. Limin served unkinds in season, canned goods and con- der his father as a butcher, and as he fectionery. When you want the best is an excellent judge of stock, his cusof satisfaction in the bread you eat try tomers know that they can always get Stinson's. Wedding cakes a specialty, the very best meats obtainable. People are more particular to-day than they ever were as to the class of meats they use. Nothing but the best will satisfy the public. Mr. Limin always aims at getting the best. Fresh, salt and potted meats. He also buys cattle shipping to the eastern markets. Mr. Limin has a fine place of business with a plate glass front. As a townsman, Mr. Limin is well and favorably known.

MATTHEWS & LATIMER.

Among the diversified business interests of the town we must not neglect to mention Matthews & Latimer, who conduct a first-class grocery, keeping everything in the line of pure gilt edge groceries, canned goods, etc. They have obtained a good reputation along these lines for dealing only in the best. In groceries their aim has always been to secure the very best pure, fresh goods each season. And in groceries, confectionery and fruit of all kinds, their stock can always be depended upon as first-class. In flour they handle the highest grades of Manitoba, which has achieved world wide fame. In this they have the DIED JAN. 22, 1901, AGED 100 YRS., 10 "Royal Household" and "Five Roses." In homemade flour there are very few After one passes the age of three brands manufactured in Canada that score years and ten he is said to be can compare with McGowan's living on borrowed time. Some reach "Eclipse" and "Sovereign.". They althe four score mark, and a decreasing so deal extensively in seeds of all kinds, number with labor and sorrow have a carrying an extensive stock of field few more years added to their lives, and garden seeds. The business enjoycentenarian is not often met. Many ed by Matthews & Latimer is one of of our readers have, perhaps, never the best here, and it is steadily increasseen one, but the subject of this sketch ing owing to always aiming at giving Mrs. John Lawrence, passed the cen- the best of satisfaction in every line of they mark by nearly a year, and not- goods they handle. Personally both will be tanding the weight of years that members of this firm are among Durwere crowding on her weakening ham's best known and most progressive

Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P.

Residence of Dr. A. C. Wolfe, V. S.

DARLING'S DRUG STORE.

There are very few towns the size of Durham where you will find a more successful class of business men than you will find here. Darling's Drug Store may be mentioned among these, It is headquarters for pure drugs, chemicals, patent medicines, perfumes and toilet articles, A specialty is made of compounding medical prescriptions and family receipts, which are carefully and accurately dispensed. School books, school supplies and all kinds of stationery. A good line of sporting goods and choice confectionery. Ice cream sodas, seeds, pipes, tobaccos, etc. Mr. Darling has associated with him his son, James R. Darling, who is also a graduate. Mr. Darling makes a specialty of drugs, chemicals, perfumery and toilet articles. As a townsman, Messrs, Darling & Son are men well and favorably known and highly esteemed.

M. K. Richardson, ex-M. P.

A group of Durham Epworth Leaguers. graving free on all silverware or line they do some very fine work: When you want bargains in any line of goods they handle give them a call. Personally they are among Durham's most highly esteemed and valued citizens.

MR. JAMES SMITH

Is the efficient postmaster here, which position he has held ever since Mr. McKenzie's death, some seven years ago. Mr. Smith is a man eminently qualified for the position. He is suave of manner and obliging to every one. And while not wishing to flatter lected stocks of staple and fancy dry him at all, we imagine that he can see goods, men's furnishings, clothing, conducted by Mr. A. Russell is one of locality, is yet in the prime of life and the land marks of the town, being the honored in his own county. His porfirst store established not only in this trait appears in this issue. town but in this part of the country. Three generations of business men have done business there since it was first established some 45 years ago, This business was originally started by J. H. Hunter, M. P. P.'s father. then by J. H. Hunter himself, followed by J. A. Hunter, whom Mr. Russell bought out some five or six years ago.

Mr. Russell keeps one of the best sefurs, oilcloths, carpets, hardware, stoves, groceries, etc., not only in Durham but in this part of the country. If you are looking for bargains in every line of goods he handles you would do well to call in and see the great inducements he is offering in every department. A visit will convince you of the genuiness of what he offers. Mr. Russell has had a life long experience in business, and his intimate knowledge of the people, his the goal to which there is no royal jewelry purchased from them. In this The splendid business at present road. Mr. Campbell is a native of this

E. W. Limin's Meat Shop.

HON. J. P. WHITNEY, PREMIER OF ONTARIO.

R. B. KEELER & SONS

Conduct a first-class jewelry store at this point, having been in business here for the past five years. They keep, without a doubt, the finest lines of high class jewelry, watches, clocks, silverware, fancy chinaware, eye glasses, etc., ever shown here. All the goods shown at Keeler's are of the newest ideas and are very reasonable in price. In watch, clock and jewelry repairing they cannot be excelled. Their work having won for them a splendid name all through this section of the country. Eye sight tested and a graduate optician in charge. They also keep a good stock of books, stationery and wall paper, small musical, stringed and reed instruments, gramaphones, etc. A very large stock of toys and fancy goods for the Xmas trade. A full stock of nuts, candies, etc. They carry, without a doubt, one of the largest stocks here, and are in trade. One of the leading features of this establishment is that they do en-about as far through a mill-stone as most men at forty. He is well inthe enjoyment of steadily increasing formed and just such a man as Alex. Selkirk would have given five years of his life to have met on the Isle of Juan Fernandiz to have talked things over and to have shown some otherwise well informed but misguided people where they get off at. Mr. Smith was a politician one time-and he would have made a capital preacher—much more capable than some we have today. If he had been one no one would have doubted his sincerity.

THE REGISTRY OFFICE.

Mr. Thomas Lauder, Sr., is the Registrar here, and his son, Mr. A. W. H. Lauder, is the deputy, upon whom the entire work depends as Mr. Lauder, Sr., is a man now advanced in years. Mr. Lauder, Jr., is a painstaking and obliging official, and he is a man universally esteemed.

Interior of Darling's Drug Store.

correct business methods and good values for your money, is what has helped to build up his successful career. trait appears in this issue, is a resident Mr. Russell gives a close personal sup- of Flesherton, where he was engaged ervision to his trade, and in this way in mercantile life for over a quarter of he has secured the best results. He a century. He was elected to the thoroughly understands every detail Dominion Parliament in 1900, defeatof the business, and as he is a prudent ing Dr. Landerkin by 144. He resigned buyer his customers are always assur- in 1904, when Mr. Miller was elected ed of the best bargains. In every line over Mr. C. McKinnon. of goods he handles you are always assured of good values and honest treatment.

MR, GEORGE BINNIE.

Though not a resident of the town. Mr. Binnie has always taken an active interest in town matters. He is president of the Farmers' Manufacturing & Supply Co., president of the South Grey Agricultural Society, and Secretary of the Farmers' Institute. He was for years a valued member of the County Council, and a few years ago contested the riding in the Liberal interests.

MR, N. W. CAMPBELL.

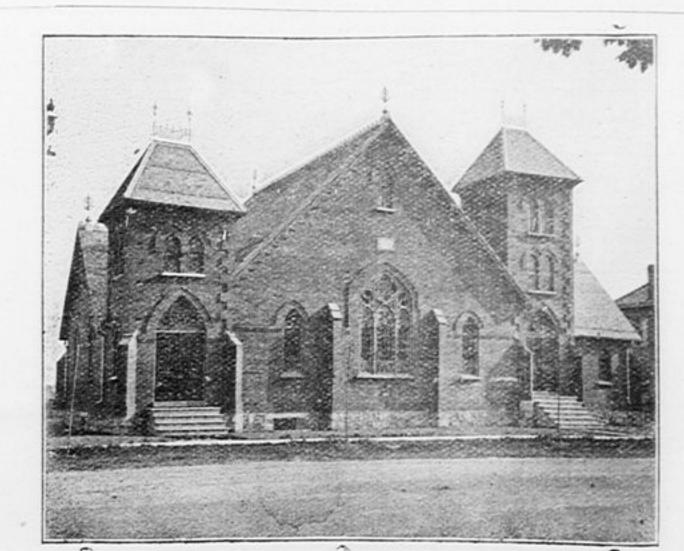

We boast of our educational system, but good as it may be in theory, it needs the guidance of a practical educationist to yield a full fruition. Such a man is Inspector Campbell, who for the past twenty years has handled the educational wheel and guided and directed both teachers and pupils towards

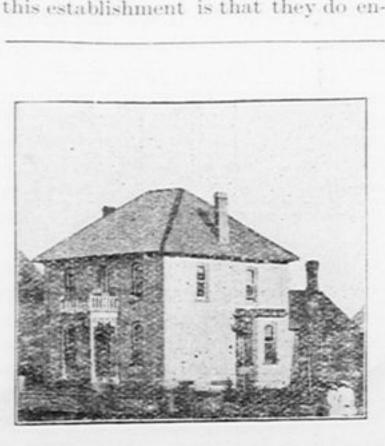

MR. M. K. RICHARDSON.

Mr. M. K. Richardson, whose por-

Mr. Charles McKinnon,

Baptist Church.

Methodist Parsonage.