

Good Smokes

Are not always easily found but our assortment of cigars, tobaccos, pipes, etc., is such that we have no trouble in satisfying the most critical smoker.

Cigars

It's not always the so-called popular brands of cigars—made popular by extensive advertising—that are best; we have brands you may never have heard of that have no equal for the price.

Tobaccos

We carry a more extensive stock of tobacco than is usually found in a drug store. Plug, cut plug, fine cut, etc., are all represented here in variety and superior quality.

Pipes

Many grades of pipes are shown in our cases. You can find good ones here at any price you wish to pay, from 5 cents to $8.

DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor.

DURHAM, NOVEMBER 15, 1906.

Dornoch.

Mr. Brad Vasey, of Sudbury, an old Dornoch boy, is in this village at present.

Mr. Wm. Buchanan arrived home last week from Carman, Man.

Mr. D. A. Smith was down the country last week and purchased some thoroughbred stock.

Mr. John Vasey left last week for Duluth, Minn.

Mr. Peter McIntosh's sale last week passed off quietly. The crowd was large and prices were up to the average. Mr. Jno. Clark, of Durham, was the auctioneer. Mr. McIntosh has disposed of his farm to Mr. Thos. Jackson, of Holland Tp., and will move west in March next. He expects to settle near Arcola, Sask.

A very sad message came over the wire Saturday morning announcing the death of Mr. Duncan McGillivray at Little Current. The deceased was in his 24th year and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McGillivray, of Latona. The corpse will be brought home for burial and will arrive in Owen Sound on the steamer Majestic. The deceased was a very popular young man and was a member of the I. O. F., in which he carried $1000 insurance and $500 in the K. of Macabees.

On Wednesday, Nov. 7th, a very happy event took place in Owen Sound, when Mr. Thomas Shewell, of Crawford, and Miss Maggie Mink, of the same place, were married by the Rev. Father Shanacy. Miss Mary Shewell, sister of the groom, and Mr. Abe Mink, brother of the bride, acted in the capacity of bridesmaid and groomsmen. After the ceremony, the bridal party came by train to Chesley, and were met at the pretty home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mink, by over one hundred invited guests. After the usual congratulations and the partaking of a bountiful wedding dinner, a good old time dance was indulged in. The bride and groom are an extremely popular young couple, which is evident by the costly and numerous display of presents presented to the bride. After a short honeymoon the young couple will start life together in their pretty home near Crawford with the best wishes of their many friends.

Flesherton.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute here held in the town hall on Tuesday of last week was attended by fourteen members and was one of special interest to all. "The selection of meat and how to cook each cut," and "How to wash and iron" were the subjects for discussion which proved interesting and helpful. The President, Mrs. T. R. McKenzie, and Mrs. W. H. Thurston were elected delegates to the Women's Institute Convention at Guelph in December.

Married—At Proton Station on the 5th inst. by Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place, Mr. John Stephens to Mrs. Hodgins, both of Proton.

Mr. Wm. Trimble has sold his bus outfit to Mr. Emerson Adams, who is now catering to the public and carrying the mail and express. Mr. Trimble is engaged in selling the stock purchased from his father.

The fine weather of last week permitted the bricklayers to make splendid progress on Mr. Armstrong's new building. The brick veneer and addition to the old store is almost completed and Mr. Armstrong hopes to be able to complete the improvements so as to move his jewellery stock in before Christmas.

A meeting of the shareholders of the Flesherton Hotel Company at which over fifty were present, was held here on Monday when the committee of management were authorized to raise on the property, if necessary $3000 and proceed with the completion of the interior of the building as early as possible.

An organ was purchased last week by Principal Mansell for our public school. The cost has almost been covered by the proceeds granted the school from the Teachers' Convention entertainment.

The King's birthday was not specially celebrated here, but we are confident the people in the warmth of their hearts wished for His Majesty many returns of the day.

On Friday evening under the auspices of the Hockey Club the Dramatic Society will again render the drama so successfully given at the recent Teachers' Convention. In our report of the drama we overlooked the names of Mr. N. C. Mansell, who very cleverly played the part of "Buck Tyson," and Miss Christine Richardson, who as "Prudence Freeheart" was very cute and taking in her love making with "Major Duffey."

On Sunday morning last Mr. Thos. Currie, an old resident of Artemesia, passed away at his home on the South Line, from where the funeral took place to Priceville on Tuesday. The deceased, who was over 90 years of age, never married. He was born in Scotland, but has lived long in Artemesia and was an industrious and highly respectable member in the community.

At the quarterly official board meeting of the Methodist church held at the parsonage last week stewards were elected for the ensuing twelve months as follows: Wm. Clayton, Rec. Steward; W. A. Armstrong, Robert Waller, Joseph Blakely, Thos. Grainger, Wm. Buchanan and W. G. Shannon.

Mr. Alex. Smith, of Thornbury, was here part of last week erecting a granite monument for Mr. John Heard in memory of his father. Mr. Smith also put up a monument at Swinton Park.

Mr. Ed. Bentham, a member of the Methodist choir, made his maiden effort in a solo at the service on Sunday evening and we offer our meagre praise for the pleasing manner in which he sang. Ed. possesses a good voice and will doubtless be heard with pleasure again.

Mr. John Breen, who had his ankle fractured in haying last, made his first attempt since to walk up town last week with the aid of crutches. His friends were pleased to see him out again.

Mr. Thos. Manders has been ailing for a couple of weeks and is at present very ill.

Mrs. Christoe and Mrs. Thom spent part of last week in Toronto visiting the former's brother, Mr. Joseph Pearce, who is ill.

Mr. W. Livingstone and Miss Annie Wilcocks attended the Assembly in Durham on Friday evening last.

Miss Ida Simmons, 4th line, spent the past two weeks with relatives at Nottawa and Collingwood.

Mr. Bert Baulch, of Grimsby, was Miss Coulson's guest at Mr. W. J. Boyd's over Sunday.

Miss Binnie has returned from Toronto and taken the position of saleswoman with Boyd Bros.

Miss Rachven, of Collingwood, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Mitchell.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid have announced for a Seven Cent Social in the church on the evening of the 21st inst.

Prominent Manufacturer Speaks.

In Vanleek Hill, Ont., no one is better known than Geo. S. Watson. When he says "Catarrhazone is a real cure," depend on it being so. "My wife" he writes "was subject to attacks of throat irritation and bronchitis. Many remedies were tried but few proved at all useful. Catarrhazone was different. It seemed to get right at the sore spots and brought relief quickly. We have found Catarrhazone an absolute cure for bronchitis and catarrh." Nothing cures more quickly so get it today, two sizes 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

Top Cliff.

Correspondents are asked by the editor to be punctual in sending in their contributions this week.

The nights are getting long, of course, but in nine cases out of ten perhaps the correspondent is out ploughing, or as the case may be, railroading these times all day. He comes in tired and muddy up to his knees. No sooner in than he has to hustle out to the barn, for his evening chores have to be attended to, which takes up a good hour or more. Then he remembers that he didn't get his supper yet, and by the time he is through with that business the clock is indicating that it is near eight. Then he remembers that the editor wants a budget this week. Hunts up his paper and writing stick and commences telling a rigmarole of nonsense which the editor hates like the mischief to put in print, but since he is a good fellow, for fear of causing insult he puts it down in print. Josh Billings said once that an editor was a man that had to please everybody but himself. So now, Mr. Editor, we come to the conclusion that we'd sooner be a correspondent than an editor, even if we do have to sit up to ten o'clock or more setting our brains a thinking of what happened and what didn't during the past week. Augus mar sin sios ga deirraah na dullaig or, and so on to the end of the page.

Snow again this Monday morning. Some one was wise enough Sunday to take out his cutter, as we saw tracks in the new snow, but no good for sleighing.

Mr. Roger and Alex. McEachern and Arch'd McDonald are in Owen Sound attending Mr. Whiteside's (a brother-in-law) funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLean and son, who spent a month with friends here, left for their new home in the township of King, County of York.

Mrs. James McDonald moved with her nephew, Alex. McDonald, to Priceville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCannel and Mrs. Hepburn, of Durham, attended the late Mrs. McLeod's funeral, of which reference will be seen further on.

Norman and Thos. McDougall and David McIntyre returned home after spending a few months at work at Port Arthur.

This kind of weather is not very favorable for railroading, and probably the work will have to be suspended if the snow continues. The work is getting on well, and a large number of men and teams are at work between Hugh McDonald's, Glenelg, and the big swamp above Priceville.

Mr. Carmichael and Miss Ross are engaged again for 1907 in Priceville school.

This weather puts one in remembrance that wood is wanted, and poor bachelors, who have nobody to blame but themselves, will experience that something else is needed to keep wood in its proper place (the stove) when they are at their daily exercises plodding in the fields or some place else, acting in the capacity of housekeeper, caretaker and a host of other offices, for which they never receive a diploma for their excellence in performing that par of household duties belonging to the feminine gender.

Died at her home near this place on Tuesday morning, the 6th inst., after a long illness of a complication nature, borne with christian resignation, Mrs. Wm. McLeod, Sr., native of the Isle of Wm. Scotland, at the age of about 68 years. Mrs. McLeod was a long resident of the south line, Glenelg, coming here over forty years ago. She was a woman whose life is worthy of imitating; always attending to her duties in the home and the Presbyterian church, of which she was a devoted member. The funeral on Thursday, the 8th inst., to Smellie's cemetery, D. road, Glenelg, was largely attended, showing the respect she was held in by all who foamed her acquaintance. The Rev. Mr. Matheson, her pastor, preached the funeral obsequies at the house and grave. Mrs. McLeod leaves as chief mourners, a lonely husband, three sons and two daughters. The sons are: Neil, of Swinton Park; Willie, D. Road, Glenelg; and Archie in Carman, Manitoba. The daughters are: Mrs. Arch'd McCuaig, Top Cliff; Mrs. David Hincks, Ceylon; and two sisters, Mrs. McCannel, Sr., of Durham, and Mrs. McQueen, of Boothville, and a brother in a far off country. The pall-bearers were her two sons, two sons-in-law and two nephews viz.: Neil and Willie McLeod, Arch'd McCuaig and David Hincks, Neil McCannel and Francis McLeod.

Died at Priceville on Monday, the 5th inst., Donald McKinnon, after long illness with cancer, at the age of about 70 years. Mr. McKinnon was a long resident of Priceville and a good citizen. He was in religion a Presbyterian. He was buried in Priceville cemetery, Rev. Mr. Matheson officiating.

And again as we are writing, we hear of the death of one of the oldest residents of this place in the person of Thos. Curry, who we are informed died Sunday morning at the age of about 95 years. Mr. Curry was one of the old residents of the Durham Road, Glenelg, one half mile west of this place, coming there some fifty-six years ago, but later on moving to the south line, Artemesia, where he ended his life. There are only Miss Margaret and Mrs. Gilles left now of the Curry family, who were well and favorably known in the early history of the place. Mr. Curry will be buried to-morrow, Tuesday, in the Priceville cemetery.

MEETING OF HORSEMEN.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE Farmers' Institute in the County of Grey, a meeting of horse breeders and others interested in horses in the County, will be held in Markdale on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 15th. Mr. H. G. Reed, V. S., of Georgetown, and Mr. John Bright, of Myrtle, Government Commissioners in the investigation of the horse industry, will address the meeting and a discussion will be held on the steps necessary to be taken for the improvement of that industry.

All interested, as well as the general public are invited to be present and take part in the discussions.
