The Epworth League have a proverb social in the school room of the Methodist church on Tuesday evening of last week, but the attendance was small which may have been because the function was free. Those present enjoyed the evening.

Notwithstanding the icy streets and very inclement weather on Wednesday evening of last week nearly fifty attended the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid social in the school room of the church. 7 was the number for the evening. 7 cents to get in and 7 cents to get out and every 7th one entering and retiring were passed free. The menu list had 7 kinds of refreshments and the programme consisted of 7 numbers. Oddly enough the receipts were $7.00, though more has since been handed in to the treasurer. The short pleasing programme consisted of selection by the choir, solo by Dr. Murray, solo by Miss Gladys Cornfield, who also gave a recitation; reading by Miss Maynard and Mrs. Robt. Moore and two quartettes by Dr. Murray, Ed. Bentham, Herb Staples and W. Livingston. Though Dr. Murray was on the programme he was voted to the chair and presided in a pleasing manner. The evening was enjoyable to all.

While we were conversing with the moving picture company who exhibited in the town hall a few evenings ago the manager and his assistant paid our township fathers a warm compliment on the marked improvements made in the hall since their former visit. The manager was of the opinion that the hall should also have been enlarged, but he thought it now quite as neat and attractive as other halls in which they had exhibited in larger places.

An interesting matrimonial event took place at the residence of Mr and Mrs. Wm. Fisher, 4th line, Arriestia, on Wednesday afternoon of last week when their daughter Mary Ann was joined in wedlock to Mr James S. Pedlar, son of Mr. John Pedlar, east back line. Rev. L. F. Kipp, of this place, performed the ceremony and Mrs. J. Beecroft, the groom's sister played the wedding march. The groom's sister, Miss Pearl Pedlar, was bridesmaid and the bride's brother, Mr Robt. Fisher, was best man. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The bride and bridesmaid were very becomingly attired for the occasion. The wedding supper was dainty and the wedding presents appropriate. The young couple will reside on the 4th line, and we wish their numerous friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.

On Saturday evening last the residence of Mr and Mrs. Mark Stewart was back line was the scene of a pleasant gathering of a few relatives and friends at a party given in honor of Mr Stewart's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart and Mr and Mrs. Quigg, of this place were among the guests and the former gentleman entertained with his gramophone. The occasion, we learn, was one of much pleasure for all. We wish Mr. Stewart many returns of the day.

Mrs. W. S. Christie celebrated quietly her 82nd birthday on Sunday last and we join her numerous friends in congratulations.
