Why Refer to Doctors

Because we make medicines for them. We tell them all about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Ask your own doctor.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of
Ayer's SARSAPARILLA, PILLS,
HAIR VIGOR.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Ayer's Pills greatly aid the Cherry Pectoral in breaking up a cold.

HYMENEAL.

DIXON—MCARTHUR

One of those happy events that occur once in a while took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur Merchant, Priceville, on Wednesday, the 10th Dec., at 2 o'clock p. m., when their only daughter, Miss Mary Ellen, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Ivan Dixon, Esq., M. D., of Priceville, son of Thos. Dixon, Esq., Barrister, of Walkerton. The bride, who was beautifully attired in white silk, carrying a bouquet of carnations and white asters, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, while Mendelssohn Wedding march was played by Miss Marion Dixon, of Walkerton, sister of the groom. Miss Olive E. Glassford, of Owen Sound, acted as bridesmaid. She was becomingly attired in white silk under point de chene and carried a bouquet of carnations and white roses. Mr. Peter F. McArthur, brother of the bride, ably supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Matheson, M. A. B. D., Priceville, in the presence of only intimate relatives of the contracting parties.

The young couple were the recipients of many costly and useful presents. After congratulations the guests partook of a dainty wedding dinner, after which they drove to Flesherton taking the 5 p. m. train to Toronto, visiting Hamilton, Buffalo, Walkerton and other places prior to their return. They take up their residence in the late A. Butters' block, Priceville. We join the many friends in extending our hearty congratulations to the happy couple wishing them a long and happy life on their journey together.

Miss McArthur is a lady who is possessed of all the good qualities that come up to the standard of making an affectionate life partner, while we can vouch for the good Dr. to prove himself equally in like manner.

FIRTH—GREENWOOD.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride at half past six on the evening of December 23, when Mr. John Firth and Miss Helen Greenwood were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. T. Colling, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of white, and the groom looked well in conventional black. Only the immediate friends were present. Following the ceremony, the guests partook of a sumptuous repast, and the presents which the happy couple received testified to the very high esteem in which they are held in the neighborhood where they will in the future reside.

DEATH OF WM. HERD.

A few weeks ago we called the attention of our readers to the illness from typhoid of Mrs. J. H. Willis who was in Dauphin, Man. Her mother Mrs. Wm. Herd, of Allan Park, left here in order to be present with her and render what assistance she could, but just when Mrs. Willis was allowed to leave the hospital Mrs. Herd took typhoid also and was sent to the same hospital where she remained some time in a very critical condition. On hearing of his wife's illness, Mr. Herd went West and remained there till Mrs. Herd recovered and both came home together about two weeks ago. Last week Mr. Herd was taken down with pneumonia and passed away after two days' illness. Though we have known Mr. Herd for the past nine or ten years we have never had any intimate personal acquaintance with him and can say very little from our own knowledge. Mr. Charter Smith who knew him since they were boys together describes him as one of the best and most honorable residents of the county, a true man in every respect, a member of the Methodist church, a liberal in politics, and of Scotch nationality. He tells us also that he was hard to beat as a farmer, and that he made money from a farm on which other people would starve, and that he has added farm after farm to his property and leaves his family in good circumstances. Mr. Smith said infinitely more in gesture than in words of the good qualities of the deceased. He was sixty-eight years of age, died on the 20th and was buried on the 24th inst. He was a resident of Priceville for over fifty years.

ADVICE TO A BRIDE

Will Carleton says:

"See that your kitchen fire be bright
Your hands be neat and skilled;
For the love of man one takes its flight,
If his stomach be not well filled."
This is his opinion, but opinion is not always fact.
