DEATH OF GEORGE J. BLYTH.

The death of George Jackson Blyth took place at his home in Chatsworth, on Sunday morning after an illness extending over two years from Bright's disease, but an attack of pneumonia contracted a few days before was the direct cause of death.

The deceased was born on the 12th of March, 1845, in the city of Toronto, and was thus 63 years of age. He removed with his parents to Owen Sound when three years old, and when a young man learned the trade of printing with the editor of this paper. Some years later, about 35 years ago he moved to Markdale, where he founded the Expositor which he sold to Mr. C. W. Rutledge, who changed the name to the Standard. About eighteen years ago he founded the News at Chatsworth, which he continued to publish till the time of his death. The deceased was a man of more than ordinary ability, and his writings were of a bright and witty character, and elicited notice from the press of the province.

Mr. Blyth was the youngest son of the late John Blyth, one of the pioneers of Owen Sound, and a man who took an active interest in local affairs, also occupied different official positions. He was married about 34 years ago to Millie Hassell, who with a family of six children survive him. The children are George Jackson jr., on the C. P. R., Jennie, wife of George McKay, Arcola, Manitoba, Edith, Horace and Rhoda at home and Millie, wife of Clement Irwin of Calgary, Alberta. The funeral took place to the Chatsworth Cemetery on the 22nd inst.—O. S. Advertiser.

Varney.

The death of Mrs. Russell removed from this neighborhood one of the oldest residents. She was a very fine old lady is the testimony of those who knew her. A number from here attended the funeral. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved friends.

The Epworth League meets on Thursday night in connection with the prayer meeting, instead of Sunday night, as formerly.

Mr. Wm. Smith had the misfortune to fall and break one of his ribs a week or so ago, while going to the barn with a pail. We are pleased to report that he is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. Robert Morrison was visiting his brother William, last week.

Albert McClinton's baby was sick last week, but we are glad to say she is better again.

Winnie Blyth was laid up for a few days last week with LaGrippe.

Walter McCrie, from the west, surprised his folks one day last week by walking in unexpected. He is looking well, and says they have a very fine winter out there. Walter is a great worker and he only got two month's leave of absence and will start back again in about a month.

The Varney L.O.L will hold a box social we believe on the 18th. Look out for the notice in the papers and be sure and come.

We extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall who were united in wedlock a couple of weeks ago. We wish them a long, happy and prosperous life together.

Miss Mary Wise, from Allan Park, was visiting in this neighborhood for a few days last week.

Mrs. D. Allen had a very narrow escape from having her house destroyed by fire, on Saturday morning. She was lying down sleeping, and the dog, no doubt, knew something was wrong and began to pull at its mistress and succeeded in waking her, to find the house on fire. She gave the alarm and a number of willing workers came and extinguished the flames, but not till after a lot of damage was done to the house and contents. It was insured in the Grey and Bruce Mutual, still Mrs. Allen will be at a loss.

A few neighbors and friends spent a pleasant time on Friday evening at Mrs. Thos. Allen's.

Miss Eva Burnett, from Durham visited with her cousin, Eva Blyth, from Saturday till Tuesday last.

Ethel Pettigrew spent last Sunday with her parents. Also a friend, a Miss Mighton, from Alma, who has been attending the College in Mt. Forest, was up with her and was at church and Sunday School.

Wilbert Blyth is laid up with the Grip this week.

About forty of the Varney Sunday school drove to Mr. Thos. Wallace's on Tuesday night and spent a pleasant time. A most enjoyable part of the evening was the presenting to Miss Nellie Wallace who has been a teacher in the S.S. for a number of years with an address and a beautiful rocking chair and parlor table. The address was read by the superintendent, and the presentation was made by Misses Lena Allen, Maggie McCalmon, Edith Allen and Wilbert Blyth. Miss Wallace replied very nicely thanking the school for the very fine present.

Below is the address: MISS NELLIE WALLACE, Dear Co-Worker in our Saviour's cause:—We the officers, teachers and pupils, of the Varney Sunday School have for a number of years appreciated your faithfulness as a teacher in our midst.

Though laboring under difficult circumstances, having a long distance to come alone, you have with few exceptions been present to take charge of your class and have willingly rendered your assistance in the work of the school in any way required.

We have therefore gathered this evening for that purpose as well as to spend a pleasant time in your home. We now ask you to accept this rocking chair and parlor table, not for their value but as something to remind you of our labors together in the vineyard of the Lord; and we hope that you may long be spared to go on in this noble work and that when our labors here on earth are ended we may all meet where, alone, service for the Master receives its full reward.

Signed on behalf of the Sunday School:

THE GREEN-EYED MONSTER.

A young married man of extremely jealous disposition recently visited one of the most famous mediums in London. Being far from home he wanted to know what his wife was doing.

"She is looking out of the window, evidently expecting some one"
"That is strange," said Benedict.
"Whom can she expect?"

"Someone enters the door and she caresses him fondly," went on the medium

"It can't be!" cried the excited husband. "My wife is true to me"

"Now he lays his head on her lap and looks tenderly in her eyes."

"It's false! I'll make you pay dearly for this!" yelled the jealous husband.

"Now he wags his tail," said the medium.

The green-eyed monster subsided and the young husband cheerfully paid over the consulting fee.
