CKLER

Most people know that if they have been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Now is your time to order a Suit, Overcoat or any garment you are in need of. We would like to measure you now, for we are convinced we can suit you better than anywhere else. Mr. Glass is attending to the cutting himself, and as to the making we have a first-class man to make the coats. Price away down.

LEARN DRESSMAKING BY MAIL

In Your Spare Time at Home. Or Take a Personal Course at School. To enable all to learn, we teach on cash or installment plan. We also teach a personal class at school once a month commencing last Tuesday of each month. These lessons teach how to cut, fit and put together any garment, from the plainest shirt waist suit to the most elaborate dress. The whole family can learn from one course. We have taught over 2,000 dressmakers and guarantee to give $500 to anyone who cannot learn between the ages of 14 and 40. You cannot learn dressmaking as thorough as this course teaches it if you work in shops for Dress Makers. Beware of imitations, as we employ no one outside the school. This is the only experienced dress cutting school in Canada, and excelled by none in any other country. Write at once for particulars, as we have cut our rate one-third for a short time. Address—THE SCHOOL.

SANDERS DRESS CUTTING SCHOOL

TWENTY ONE YEARS IN HARMONY

In the minutes of the last meeting of the County Council Inspector Campbell contributes an interesting report giving a retrospective view of the material, intellectual and moral progress of South Grey Schools since he assumed office in January 1887. It's twenty-one years ago next May since he first walked into our school in Flesherton, the old building on the banks of the Boyne. It seems but a day to look back, yet some of the children then unborn will be old enough to vote at the next election.

Owing to the intimacy of relationship with Mr. Campbell since the first year of his appointment we feel that it will not be out of place for us to make a few personal remarks at this particular juncture. It is pleasant to think of the friendship formed on the occasion of our first meeting, but it is still pleasanter to think the friendship then formed has never been broken. There was a something in our first meeting that caused us to harmonize with each other. As Inspector and teacher we pulled together for the good of those entrusted to our care. We never felt afraid of him; in fact there are very few we ever did feel afraid of, and his official visits were always a source of pleasure and profit. The pleasure, we believe, was mutual, even if the profit may have been a little one sided. We always regarded him as a good man for the position. Not only was he an inspiration towards higher mental development, but he never lost sight of moral culture as a factor in true educational growth. Mr. Campbell is a great worker, and few men who are not in intimate touch with him have any conception of the amount of work he gets through. He is a many-sided man. If he sees anything new he wants to examine it and find out all about it, and when he can't find out anything more he resolves himself into an interrogation point till he gets a full grip of the situation. If he sees a piece of machinery he must know all about it; if a new theory comes up he must read all about it. Thus by observation reading and enquiry he has accumulated a vast fund of general information; but never satisfied, he is still a student. Even yet he burns the midnight oil alone in wrestling with university work. He is taking an extra mural course in Queen's University, and having succeeded already in passing two or three examinations he will be able one of these days to add a B. A. to his name and mingle with those who are regarded as top-notchers on the educational ladder.

We congratulate Mr. Campbell on his long and successful experience as Inspector, and hope he may long be spared to continue in his good work along with educational lines.

Top Cliff.

On Friday evening, Feb. 21st, a number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McDougall assembled at the former home of Mr. McDougall, south line Glenelg, for the purpose of showing them the esteem they were held by all those who formed their acquaintance, as the following address which was ably read by Miss Sadie McCuaig, will speak for itself, after which a well prepared program was acted upon and placed in the hands of Mr. A. McCuaig, who, in his usual manner, fulfilled the duties of chairman to the best of satisfaction.

TO MR AND MRS. THOS. McDOUGALL. DEAR FRIENDS,—We, your neighbors and associates, old and young, many of us who have known you from your infancy, and having observed your kindly, cheerful, unselfish and amiable disposition, and your readiness at all times to add to the comfort and happiness of others, have won our esteem and admiration, and have prompted our desire at this time (which is so momentous in your lives, being the commencement of your wedded life, also your leaving our immediate vicinity) to express to you our approval and good wishes that you may have a pleasant and prosperous journey through life, and that you may long be spared to help and cheer each other and all that may have the pleasure of your acquaintance.

And as a small token of our sincerity, also as a remembrance of your earliest associates and neighbors, and the pleasant recollections of the past, present to you this Mantel Clock.

Again wishing you the best of blessings and that our time here will but increase our mutual esteem and that it may be perfected in eternity.

Signed in behalf of your old acquaintances:

F. D. McCUAIG.
H. McEACHERN.
N. McKINNON.
H. ECKHARDT.

Top Cliff, Feby. 21st, 1908.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougall were completely taken by surprise, but in a few well chosen words Mr. McDougall thanked the donors for their kind expressions in the address, and the beautiful present given to them would always remind them of the dear friends at Top Cliff. As time goes on this fine mantle clock will ever be a reminder by its continual ticks to them in future.

The program consisted of selection by Dr. Atkinson on the bag pipes, songs by N. McKinnon, Thomas McDougall, N. McDougall and the Misses Janet and Mary McEachern, Mary and Bella McDougall and Eva Pierson, and two Donald McDougalls, recitations by Miss Sarah McMillan (who is hard to excel as a reciter) and Willie Mather, who is a good reciter also, selection on bag-pipes at intervals by Dr. Atkinson and Thos. McDougall, music by the string band several times, speech by Dr. Atkinson, who, though called on unawares, made a very interesting and up to date speech. Mr. A. McCuaig, in his usual pleasing manner, made some very appropriate remarks, after which the company enjoyed themselves for a time in the old style manner of tapping the floor. This ended a very enjoyable evening.
