SIR THOMAS AND THE BAR.

Sir Thomas Shanghnessy has just become the wonder of Moose Jaw. The president of the Canadian Pacific Railway had just arrived in his private car "Killarney." The station bar was in full blast—as usual; a Canadian Pacific bar for which the company had paid to get a license; a very handy bar for the travelling public as well as for the train hands—for it was very close to the front door. Sir Thomas looked in at the bar. He was thinking hard; and the bartender wondered who he might be and what sort of drink the gentleman might want. When the visitor opened his mouth it was not to mention the name of any drink either ancient or modern; he did not even want a cigar or a match. To the station-master he said tersely: "Shut that place up!" The official was startled and of course began to expostulate. He intimated that the license for the bar would expire within a few months and he supposed that what Sir Thomas desired was that, what it expired, it should not be renewed. "No," said the president, "I do not want it closed at the end of the year, nor at the end of the month. I want it closed now. Lock the door and pay off those men. We have too many trainmen running into Moose Jaw to allow a bar to be operated in that room."

So the bar at Moose Jaw is closed and will stay closed.

NEARLY AN OUTRAGE.

A warning is contained in an incident which occurred one day last week on the C. P. R. track at the Y. A girl aged about thirteen years was on her way to school when she was accosted by a man said to be an Englishman who arrived last summer from the Old Country and has been employed about this neighborhood since. The man took liberties with the child amounting practically to an assault, which, however, for some reason, stopped short of an outrage, and the girl proceeded to school suffering nothing worse than a bad scare. On making known her story on arrival home in the evening an attempt was made to locate the man, but no trace of him could be found. Parents would do well to see that their children are not exposed to experiences of this kind in lonely walks, which have resulted before now in tragedies of the most revolting character.—Mt. Forest Representative.

4 HOSPITALS FAILED.

James Heard, of Morton Park, Ont., says: "While employed at the Specialty Works of Newmarket 6 or 7 years ago, I bruised my ankle, but through neglect this bruise turned to an ulcerated or burning sore which caused me a great deal of suffering. I tried a great number of doctors, and was in the hospital four times. I tried almost everything, but nothing did me any good. I could not sleep at night with the scalding and burning pain, but from the first application of Zam-buk I never lost any sleep, and felt nothing more of it than if I hadn't had any sore at all. It started healing and gave me no further trouble. Shortly after this I was getting on a street car, my foot slipped and I came with all my might down the edge of the step and gave my foot a terrible mangling up. This made it far worse than ever, but I started again with Zam-buk, and it did the same work over again as it did at first and my ankle is sound and well as ever it was. I cannot speak too highly of Zam-buk."

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The neighbors gathered into the home of Mr. Chas. Gray, last Tues- day night and spent a social evening with them before their departure for the West. Mr. Jas. McIlwride acted as chairman for the program, and Miss Agnes Marshall read an address which accompanied the presentation of two fine chairs and a silver teapot. Mr. Gray made a feeling and suitable reply. Some of the real good features of the program were recitations by Misses Sirrs, Mead and Mitchell. Egremont, Feb. 25th 1908.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray.

Dear Friends:— It is with feelings of regret, that we, your friends and neighbors, realise the time is at hand when through your removal from amongst us our relationship as neighbors will be severed.

We take pleasure in this oppor- tunity of spending another social night with you, and showing a slight mark of appreciation of your good citizenship. You have been generous in all your dealings with us, always obliging and willing to lend a helping hand wherever needed with such cheerfulness as to express your pleasure in doing a kind act, while honesty and truthfulness has accompanied your actions.

We ask you to accept these chairs and teapot, not for the sake of their intrinsic value, but as a memento by which you will ever give us a place in your memories.

In your new home in far away Saskatchewan, we wish you every happiness and all the success, pleasure and advancement in every walk of life, which all hope to attain who journey to our Golden West, the land of the setting sun.

Signed on behalf of the neighbor- hood, William Marshall, James Mathews, Joseph Lennox.

IT HAS KILLED HUNDREDS.

Strong purgatives have killed many a good man. Costiveness is had- violent cathartics are worse. If bothered with stomach trouble or biliousness, try Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They are so mild you can scarcely feel their action, yet so effective that the entire system is cleansed of wastes. Dr. Hamilton's Pills move the bowels gently, they tone the kid- neys, assist digestion, clear the skin. For those subject to colds, bilious- ness, languor, there is no better medi- cine. Try a 25c. box of Dr. Hamil- ton's Pills.

"COPY READING" HOWELLS.

The London Athenum says of the following Howells paragraph that it is the best sentence perhaps in any recent English book. Describing an ancient edifice Mr. Howells writes and the Athenum quotes:

"What in the heart of all this bios- oming, was the great cathedral itself when we came in sight of it but a vast efflorescence of the age of faith, mystically beautiful in form and gray as some pale exhalation from the mold of the ever cloistered, the deeply reforested past."

Very fine, all must admit. But wouldn't that paragraph have been meat and drink to the man who used to mark up Mr. Howells' newspaper copy back at Bucyrus, O. If Howells the reporter had written that for the Bucyrus Blade he would have found it in the paper next day about like this:

"The cathedral, with flowers all around it, looks fine. It is 400 years old and needs paint."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

FOUND NOT GUILTY OF ARSON CHARGE.

Toronto, March 6—After three hours' deliberation the jury acquitted fourteen year-old Mabel Allen, charged with arson, in setting fire to the barns of Jacob Hopkins in York County.

The verdict was received with joy by the court spectators and a demon- stration was only prevented by the prompt action of the officials.

The five young men who tracked the footprints in the snow ten miles from Hopkins' barn on the morning following the fire to the Allen home were on the stand in the morning, and in the afternoon the defence opened. Mabel's sister and mother swore that the girl had not left the house all night. In his address to the jury, Prosecutor Drayton said that he thought about the same of Hopkins as the jury did, but this thing must be stopped. The judge charged strongly against the girl. The jury retired at 5 p. m. and re- turned at 8 p. m.—Free Press.

DO YOUR EARS RING?

This is the beginning of Chronic Catarrh. If not checked, the result is deafness. A simple remedy that many physicians advise is to slowly inhale "Catarrhazone" a few times each day. The soothing vapor of Catarrhazone cures the Catarrhal condition and hearing improves at once. Head noises, buzzing ears are cured. For Catarrh deafness, throat, nose and lung catarrh there is probably no remedy so efficient.

DUNDALK RESIDENCE HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

The home of Mr. John Gilmore had a very narrow escape from destruction by fire one morning last week. He got up a little after six o'clock and in lighting a lamp it is supposed the match fell on the lace window curtains. As soon as he noticed the little flame he clapped his hands on each side of the curtain where it was, and this had the effect of scattering the fire. The curtains and the blind were burned and then the flame spread to the bed clothing but the fire was soon got under control. Mr. Gilmore had his hands badly burned.—Herald.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

B. F. Coker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatica rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

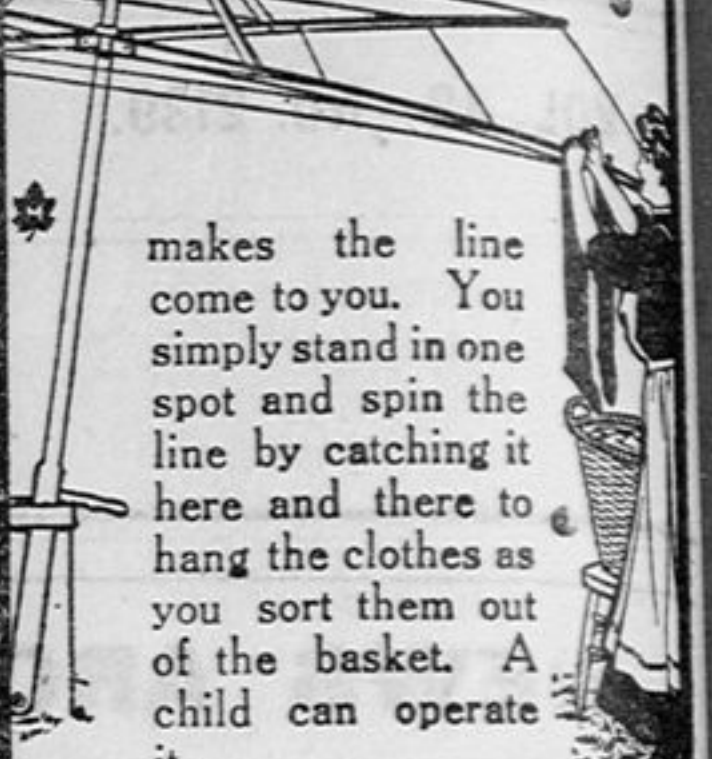

Plants That Hate One Another.

Fancy two plants being so un- friendly that the mere neighborhood of one is death to the other. Yet this is the case with two well known English plants. These are the thistle and the rape. If a field is infested with thistles which come up year after year and ruin the crops, all you have to do is to sow it with rape. The thistle will be absolutely anni- hilated.

A St. Catharines newsboy was sentenced to five years in an industrial school for retaining the charge from a dollar bill received from a customer.

General Manager McGill, who wrecked the Ontario Bank, got three years. It is therefore only three-fifths as serious an offence to appropriate a million dollars, especially if in one case is an educated, full grown man, and in the other an untutored small boy.—Cargill Cor., Bruce Times.
