Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ritchie gave the young people a party, on Tuesday night of last week. There was a nice crowd, and all enjoyed themselves. As we were not of the chosen few, we cannot give any particulars.

The Spring Bank reporter is the next to wonder what he had better do with the crowd, and gives two opinions on the case. The first one is really a cruel method, the second one would do doubt be most profitable, that would mean the bringing about of grand results, viz.:—The catching of rats and mice, (he did not mention snakes), and last, but not least, the privilege of getting acquainted with that man's lovely daughter of whom he spoke of.

Mr. George Allen, of the 4th Con., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Dean, over Sunday.

Mr. Edgar Ritchie, of Edge Hill, visited friends in this burg over Sunday.

Mr. Herbert Allen, of the 4th Con. spent Sunday last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hopkins.

Mr. Graham Timmons, accompanied by his sister, Miss Susan & Master Herbert, all of Eborvale, spent Sunday with the Hewitt family.

Mr. Hiram Dean has recently purchased a house and lot on Garafraza Street, Durham, and started moving his effects on Monday last.

We are creditably informed that Mr. George Smith has sold his farm lately for the handsome figure of $4,000. The purchaser is Mr. George Newell, of Mordens' Corners, who is busily engaged moving his implements, and takes possession on the first of April.

Mr. Thos. Meenagh has been changing the looks of the interior of his dwelling recently by placing the stairs to run from the kitchen instead of the hall door, enlarging the parlor and hanging doors. He has also done a stretch of painting which makes things look cheery.

TORONTO PROTESTS LICENSE REDUCTION.

Toronto, March 6.—Massey Hall was packed to the ceiling to night on the occasion of meeting called to protest against the reduction of liquor licenses in the city. It was one of the largest meetings ever held in the great auditorium, and to judge from the enthusiasm the action of the council is decidedly unpopular.

The speakers, each and every one prominent in the life of the city, denounced the reduction made, as it was without the consent of the people, and high handed.

Father Menehan, ex-Mayor Boswell, W. E. Wright and Mayor Kennedy, of Owen Sound, were among the speakers, and letters were read from Prof. Goldwin Smith, Thos. Rowland and Controller Ward, all condemning the reduction.—Free Press

SHIPPED BACK.

An Indian from the Southampton reservation, with a young equaw, took up residence some time ago in a deserted shanty back in the vicinity of Miller and Seim's mill. They worked away at the favorite occupation of the red man, basket-making. The male part of the household became seriously ill with a hemorrhage of the lungs. The neighbors gathered in and found things in a destitute condition all round, the shack being devoid of food, clothing and fuel. These were contributed generously by the good people who called. Dr. Easton was also summoned, and in a few days the outlook seemed a little brighter. The Indian grew stronger, and on advice of the Reeve of the Municipality, the pair were shipped back to their tribe, and thus ceased to be a charge on the township.—Ayton Advance.

A Leap Year Baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cobean are the happy parents of a daughter, born February 29. The young lady is entitled to a silver mug, presented by the Toronto World to all babies born in the province on that date. It has been suggested to the Reeve by Mr. A. G. Macintyre, who, as an issuer of marriage license, is somewhat of an authority on these matters, that the child be christened "Wilhelmina Maclean Cobean, in honor of the proprietor of the World, Mr. Wm. Maclean, M. P.—Kincairdine Review.

The Worth of his Money.

Not seldom in highland districts the attendance at church during unpropitious weather is but scanty. One minister, facing his own on a boisterous Sunday confronted with one solitary auditor, who happened to be a gruff, outspoken character, took him into his confidence, with a view to propitiate him. "Will I go on with the sermon, John? John answered gruffly, "Of course." Getting into the pulpit and leaning over it, he asked, "Will I give you the Gaelic sermon or the English one?" "Gis' baith. Ye're weel paid for 't," said John, more gruffly still.—Dundee Advertiser.

An Advertising Tonic

Tell us are you advertising
In the same old foolish way
That your gran' dad did before you,
And persist "It doesn't pay"

Think the whole world knows your address.
"Cause it hasn't changed in years?"
Wouldn't the paths of such logic
Drive a billy-goat to tears?

"Just a card is all you ask for,
Hidden, lonesome and unread,
Like the sign upon the tombstone
Telling folks that you are dead.

Wake up man, and take a tonic,
Bunch your hits and make a drive
Run a page and change your copy,
ADVERTISE and keep alive!—Ex.

Vandals in Flesherton.

Somebody has broken all the window glass in the Presbyterian church shed. Of course it was only boys—but even boys should and do know better. The boy who will make a vandal of himself in youth is pretty sure to continue his vandalism when manhood overtakes him, and often becomes something worse. If the lads who did the mean piece of work have a spark of manhood in them they will replace the glass without waiting to be found out and forced to do it and pay a fine besides.

LOSES THIRTEEN HORSES.

Lictowel, March 6.—Fire which broke out at an early hour this morning totally destroyed the large sale stables of Mr. W. C. Kidd, together with the contents, including thirteen horses, many of them thoroughbred sires, and some trotters of note. Among the former was the famous Oliver Wilkes. Only one horse out of thirteen was saved. The origin of the fire is unknown.

When the first alarm was given, at 10 minutes past two, the stables and stock were doomed, as the building was a raging sheet of flames. The night was made almost like day, the flames raged so high, fanned by a strong wind. Mr. W. C. Kidd, the proprietor, was out of town at the time, said to be in Toronto on business.

The fire would appear to be of an incendiary nature, on account of the hour. All parties having charge of the stables would be home some hours before it happened.—Free Press

FATHER KELLY BIDS GOOD BYE.

At the Roman Catholic church on Sunday last, Rev. Father Kelly bade good bye to the Walferton congregation. He thanked them for the kind feeling they had always shown towards him during the fifteen years of his pastorate. He thanked his assistant, Father Becker, and the Sisters of the convent, for their invaluable assistance in both church and school. He desired above all to thank his Protestant friends for their kindness and good will. He would never forget their friendship and courtesy. It would always be a pleasure for him to remember the good-feeling that existed among all denominations in Walferton, and hoped they would always continue to dwell together in the bonds of christian charity.—Telescope.

A Canadian Army.

Ottawa, March 5.—The Militia Department is now devising ways and means for the mobilization of troops at Quebec next summer. If transport, commissariat, and other arrangements can be satisfactorily arranged eighteen thousand men will be camped for a week or so on the Plains of Abraham. It may, however, be found necessary to cut the number down to twelve thousand, but in any event the Canadian army assembled at Quebec will be the most imposing ever seen in the country during the last hundred years.

The Law of the Lazy Man.

Breathes there a man withe a soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said:
"To-morrow morning I will rise
Before the sun lights up the skies."

"I'll set the clock so it will ring
Before the birds begin to sing;
Its strident bell will me awake,
An early morning walk I'll take."

And when at an ungodly hour
Next morn, the clock with all its power
Made noise enough to stir the dead,
And woke the man upon the bed—

Breathes there a man, I now repeat
Who wouldn't chuck it in the street,
And back into the bed then leap
And with a sigh go off to sleep?
