

Rapid changes of temperature are hard on the toughest constitution.

The conductor passing from the heated inside of a trolley car to the icy temperature of the platform—the canvasser spending an hour or so in a heated building and then walking against a biting wind—know the difficulty of avoiding cold.

Scott's Emulsion strengthens the body so that it can better withstand the danger of cold from changes of temperature.

It will help you to avoid taking cold.

Flesherton.

A goodly number of ratepayers assembled at the town hall on Saturday afternoon last in response to an invitation from the township council to meet with them that day to discuss wire fencing and the prevention of snow blocked roads in the winter. Mr. W. C. Bellamy was called to the chair after which several propositions were made and discussed but none met with the unanimous approval of the meeting. That which appeared to be most in favor was the bonusing of wire fences towards which the council may take some steps.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Meddaugh, Proton Station on Wednesday evening of last week when their daughter, Ethel Harvey was joined in marriage to Mr. Robert McKenz White. The ceremony was performed by Rev G C Little, of this place. Miss Irene Meddaugh, of Corbetton, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Arthur Meddaugh of Riverview, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boyd entertained a number of their friends at a christening on Friday evening last when their infant daughter Doris Muriel received the rite of baptism administered by Rev. Dr. Caldwell. After the ceremony, which took place at 6 o'clock the company sat down to beautifully spread tables and the festive hour with those which followed till midnight was a season of much social pleasure. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Boyd celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their wedding day.

Mr. Wm. Clark, of the Collingwood Road, who sold his farm recently to Mr. Thos. Atkinson, had a successful sale of his farm stock and implement last week. Mr Clark and family are leaving this week to settle in Idaho. Old neighbors regret the removal of residents so highly esteemed as Mr. and Mrs. Clark who were given a surprise at their home one evening last week and presented with an address and well filled purse.

Miss Ettie Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Douglas of Vandeleur, has retired from the teaching profession to enter upon missionary work in South America for which she left on Monday. Rev. Dr. Caldwell is yet suffering from injuries sustained in the Caledon wreck and became so affected on Saturday evening as to unfit him for his work on Sunday, though able to attend service. Ivison Wilson preached with his old time eloquence to a large congregation pleased to hear him again.

Corner Concerns.

Miss Edith Allan is even more seriously ill than we reported in our last budget. In place of it being appendicitis it proves to be peritonitis, and much anxiety about her recovery is felt. Yet with the aid of a good nurse and close attention of Dr. Brown, it is to be hoped she will recover.

The many friends of Mr. Andy Matthews and his good wife are pleased to have them amongst us for a time. Although it is many years since he left here he is by no means forgotten, as he was one of the bright spirits in those days, and the renewal of acquaintance is quite a pleasure. They will return shortly to their home in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Drumm, Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Baird and Mr. Willie Freeman and Miss Galagher, of Holstein, were in the neighborhood and attended church on Sunday.

LOCAL

TIMES can't be very hard for Mr. Glass has heaps of faith in the future of Durham, when he is starting in the merchant tailoring business.

RUMORS are afloat that a change is to be made in the mail service of the Grand Trunk. It is said a mail clerk will be put on the train coming in at ten o'clock, and that no mail will go out on the train till 11.20 each morning. This is only a rumor, and we give it as such, being unable to get full information.

OWING to the irregularity of the trains for the past week, our serial story, the "Making of a Successful Husband," is stalled somewhere between here and Toronto. Its failing to arrive has set us back a day, but we hope after this week to be able to place our issue in the hands of its readers at the regular time.

THE Farmers' Bank manager at Southampton, H. L. Pratt, suicided yesterday by shooting himself. The body was found on the railroad track between that place and Allenford, where he had charge of the other branch. Mr. Pratt was 35 years of age, quiet and clean living, and well liked by all with whom he had any dealings. No motive can be ascribed for the deed.

In one of the daily papers last week we noticed that J. M. Kearns, of Arthur, was out for the Presidency of the C. L. A. We hope he is, and think he will get the support of the majority of clubs up this direction. Since it has been our fortune to know McK, we have always regarded him as honest as a lawyer can possibly be, and a man, who as a player and member of the C. L. A. executive for some years, would fill the presidential chair with honor to himself and the association. "Get up and doing" McK, old boy, and we think you'll win out.

Traverston.

Mrs. John Greenwood Sr., is on the list of sick ones at present.

W. L. Falkingham had the misfortune of having a fine yearling drowned in the mill pond on Monday.

Mr. Thos. Scarf is a hustler. He took a run out this way the first of the week and purchased quite a number of cattle at fair prices.

Rob Goodwill hauled away a load of maple flooring from the mill this week, that surpassed anything we've ever seen in that line. It was without a flaw or knot and of the purest white with the finest texture possible to be.

Mr. J. J. Peart sold a handsome mare to Mr. Dickson, of Bentinck, on Thursday last. She's just in her prime.

Miss Mabel Hunt, teacher at Harkaway, was home from Friday evening till Sunday.

We regret very much, that manly, little Vincent Paylor is a very sick boy since last week and is under medical treatment.

Mrs. A. Rutherford, of town, is spending a week at the homes of her brothers, Thos. and Will Jack.

Beecher Jack had a sharp attack of blood poisoning in his hand and arm lately, but prompt remedies checked it in time.

There will be a high, old time at Zion's farewell social to Mr. Thos. Jack and family on Wednesday evening. We shall give particulars next week.
