NEWS AROUND TOWN

CONSULT Chas. J. Western, Eyesight Specialist, on Thursday, March 20th, at Darling's Drug Store.

HURRY up and pay your sub. if you want to get the Mail and Empire for a quarter. The privilege will soon be cut off.

THE Easter hats for men are here. The King hat, the Borsaline and others.—The House of Quality, H. H. Mockler.

LAMBERT'S Hair Restorer restores faded or gray hair to its natural color. See a bottle at MacFarlane's. Fully guaranteed and harmless.—4

ONE large 12x14 Photograph will be given free with each dozen of our best cabinets. This offer is too good to last long.—F. W. Kelsey.

EVERY box holder in Durham has received my announcement of new tailor business. Those who have not may get one by asking for it. J. A. Glass, Merchant Tailor.

POSITIVELY the last chance to buy fine millinery values at 25c. Only a few pairs of each size left. Plain and embroidered ladies' hose and men's socks.—The House of Quality, H. H. Mockler.

THE Gordon property up town has been purchased by Mr. Alex. McCormick, of the Canadian Soo. Mr. McCormick, who has been with the Clergue people for some years, is now down on a visit.

THE annual meeting of the South Grey Rifle Association will be held at the Town Hall, Durham, on Monday evening, 23rd inst. at 8 p.m. A full attendance is requested. J. P. Telford, President. Robt. Torry, Captain.

MISS DICK announces in this issue that her fifteenth semi-annual millinery openings will be held on Wednesday and Thursday next at her millinery rooms on Lambton street. She extends a most cordial invitation to all to attend them.

CHAS. J. WESTERN, Eyesight Specialist, of Toronto, will be at Darling's Drug Store, Durham, on Thursday, March 20th, for consultation. Owing to the snow blockade, many who made appointments with him on his previous visit here, were unable to keep them, and others, not thinking that he would be able to make connections, stayed away. Hence this return visit.

WE are in receipt of some advertising gulf from T. M. Leary, Press Agent for the Fritz Scheff Opera Company. He sacks us up, as near as we can figure, just 123 lines, and says that a copy of our publication containing the notice will entitle us to two seats at the Princess on Tuesday or Wednesday next. At our regular rates, the notice would net us just $9.84, and, needless to say, though the CHRONICLE is in perhaps as good a condition financially as the rest of 'em, it doesn't feel able to shell out $4.92 per seat to see Fritz Scheff, or any other old chef, do a German cake-walk to the tune of "In the shade of the Old Apple Tree." We congratulate Fritz on having such a wide-awake Press Agent as Mr. Leary, and will keep our weather eye open for those who hit on his little advertising scheme. So long, Fritz! Send the cash next time and we'll talk to you, but on the present deal,—well, we fee just a little Leary.

SALVATION Army Staff Captain John W. Hay delivered an address in the Baptist church here on Monday night last to a very interested and attentive audience. His subject, "War with the B. C. Indians," dealt with many characteristics of the Red Man. Having lived amongst them for some time in the Skeena River district, Mr. Hay had learned something of their language, their manners and customs, and the changed conditions brought about through the influence of religion. The methods of the army seemed to be what they desired, and although they were advised to identify themselves with other churches they refused to do so, and asked for the Army. Good work amongst them is now reported, and the natural state of the Indian is being much improved under Gospel influence. A number of solos and duets were sung during the evening, which were much appreciated by the audience. Captain Hay, like all Army workers, is quite enthusiastic, and his descriptive power is good.

FOR Saturday only, more linen toweling at 5c per yd.—H. H. Mockler.

CARR'S Headache Cure never fails. 25c a box at MacFarlane's Drug Store.

JUST ARRIVED—A shipment of Tudhope buggies and Adams' wagons.—A. B. McLellan.

CARR'S Little Liver Pills, gentle yet effective. Two boxes for 25c at MacFarlane's Drug Store.—4

DIVISION Court was held yesterday, Judge Widdifield presiding. The docket was very small.

WE will hold our spring millinery openings Wednesday and Thursday, March 25th and 26th.—S. F. Morlock.

EASTER will soon be here. Let us show you materials and trimmings for your new spring suit.—The House of Quality.

BE sure to visit our millinery show rooms Wednesday and Thursday, March 25th and 26th, and following days.—S. F. Morlock.

JUST arrived, the first lot of Scotch white waists. Call and see them. They defy description.—The House of Quality, H. H. Mockler.

DON'T forget to remember that Miss Dick's millinery openings are to be held on Wednesday and Thursday next.

Mrs. (Rev.) Newton delivered a lecture on "India" in Mount Forest on Wednesday last, on an invitation extended by all the religious denominations there.

THE newest styles in spring millinery will be found at S. F. Morlock's millinery parlors on Wednesday and Thursday, March 25th and 26th, and following days.

WANTED—About two squirts of good oil from an old can for the audience hall door at the town hall. Apply without references at the above-named place, any time a show is on, to S. Queak, the manager.

AN interesting and much appreciated sermon was delivered in the Methodist church last Sunday evening by Rev. B. J. Bott, of Craik, Sask. Mr. Bott came east to attend the funeral of his mother, and his time being limited he returned for home on Saturday morning. On arriving at Toronto he found himself late for the train to North Bay, when he decided to return to Durham and spend the day with his friends here. The Methodist congregation were delighted with his address and will be glad to welcome him again in the near future.

WHILE in Ottawa last week Mayor Calder and Councillor John H. Brown were shown a plan of the proposed armory building to be erected in Durham. The building, Mr. Calder thinks, would cost in the neighborhood of seven or eight thousand dollars, the generosity of the Government having enlarged somewhat since they talked of a three thousand dollar structure. The Mayor says the plan gives a fine appearance, and would be quite an ornament to the town and very little expense, as it is a Government institution, erected and maintained at their expense. The question of a site yet hangs fire in the Council. Rather than lose our chance for an armory, it would be well to arrive at some kind of decision of a suitable site, and let the Government get to work the coming summer.

THE delegation to Ottawa, consisting of Mayor Calder and Councillor Brown, has not resulted in anything definite up to the present time. Though the Company's engineer, Mr. Darling, expressed in a public meeting here that the cost of putting in gates would not differ materially from the cost of an electric bell, nor would the cost of keeping a man to attend gates and maintain the same differ much from the cost of maintaining a bell, the cost of the Commission at Ottawa, before the gates on account of cost of maintenance. They claimed they would prefer to bring every train to a full stop before reaching the crossing, and were willing to have the Commission bring in an order to that effect. What the result will be can scarcely be foretold, but it is quite probable that some provision will be made for the public safety.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Moran attended the funeral of their niece at Hamilton. Messrs. Reggie and Fred Kelly, of Toronto, attended the funeral of their grandmother.

Rev. W. Farquharson and Mr. John Bell attended the meeting of the Saugeen Presbytery, on Thursday last.

Mr. George Willoughby, of Elmwood, was in town last week, attending the funeral of his wife's mother, Mrs. Eliza Bott.

Mr. Fred Bott, Lamash, and Rev. B. J. Bott, of Craik, Sask., attended the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Eliza Bott.

Miss Banks, of North Bay, has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Porter, and other friends for the past two or three weeks.

Miss Hutton, of Brampton, is spending a few weeks holiday with her brother, Dr. Hutton, before completing her course as a nurse at Fergus Hospital.

Dr. Thomas Kelly and Mrs. Kelly, of Omaha, Nebraska, attended the funeral of the former's mother, and are spending a few days with friends here before returning.

THE scissor artist on a country paper has now the right to class his vocation as a science if one may judge from some of the exchanges that turn up weekly at the CHRONICLE office. Only last week we noticed, in one paper alone, three articles that had their birth in this office, but which were reproduced and slung out to the readers of that particular paper as original matter. Knowing full well that, in the newspaper business, "flogging is the sincerest form of flattery," we are not a little puffed up over the matter and don't intend to register too strong a kick against the guilty parties this time. Keep it up, old pal, and if there is anything in this article you consider meritorious you are perfectly welcome to swipe it too. We will have our editorial eye open for it.

OUR Spring Bank correspondent has broken out again in Spring poetry. Better that than obituary stuff, which goes in this paper only at ten cents a line. We have no objection to obituary poetry in some other paper or from some other town, but the fierce efforts of some of the self-constituted obituary poets is bound to bring reproach on the dead and their friends, whom we wish to save from any unnecessary obloquy. We have had some obituary poetry that would make the angels weep, and we have had spring poetry that would make even a crocodile shed tears. Our Spring Bank correspondent is a good man, and if he gives us an innocent skit occasionally we'll not turn him down. He is a good correspondent, and we want him to stay with it.

THE Horticultural Society had a very profitable lecture in the town hall on Friday evening of last week. For over an hour Prof. Hutt, of the Ontario Agricultural College, addressed the audience on the Value of Horticulture and how to beautify our homes. In introducing himself, he referred to the pleasure he had in appearing before a Durham audience. It was seventeen years since he first tried to address a public audience, and that audience seventeen years ago was a Durham audience. He referred very forcibly to the embarrassment under which he was placed, and how his ideas left him at one point in the address. He remembered also with pleasure the encouragement given by a member of the audience who told him to "Go ahead, young man, you're doing well." This caused him to get a fresh hold of his subject, and he had no more such embarrassing failures. Mr. Hutt is not an orator but a plain matter-of-fact speaker, who wades into a subject he is evidently full of in a conversational style that will benefit all who are interested in beautifying their homes, lawn-making, floriculture and tree planting were extensively dealt with, and many questions showed the interest of the older portion of the audience.

BURNS WINS IN FIRST ROUND

Successfully Defends Title against Jem Roche of Ireland.

(Special to the Chronicle.)

Dublin, March 17th.—Burns won in the first round, knocking Roche out in the first half minute.

DURHAM'S BEST CARNIVAL.

The second and last skating carnival of the season: under the auspices of the 31st Regimental Band, was held in the rink on Tuesday evening, and, as on the former occasion, a most enthusiastic crowd of jolly, fun-seeking maskers and spectators assembled to do honor to the occasion, and incidentally drop a few dimes into the Band's treasury.

The costumes, the most interesting part of the program, and the part everyone turned out to see: these were the best ever seen here, and those who won prizes had to go some to land the Over seventy brilliantly costumed ladies and gentlemen were on the ice and the judges had no sinecure in distributing the prizes, so great was the rivalry in the various classes.

The announcement of the result of Burns-Roche fight, which was received by special message by the CHRONICLE, was a good drawing card, and great satisfaction was expressed when it was made known.

The following is the list of prize-winners and character represented: Fancy Costume, Lady—Miss Effie Hunter, as Poppy. Character Costume—Miss Jemima Saunders, Navajo Ladies' Comic—Miss Laidelle Lauder, Polly. Men's Fancy—Geo. Catton, Indian. Men's Comic—Fred Glass, Italian Organ Grinder. Crown—Merle Whitmore, Boys' Race, under 14—Mac Saunders, R. Saunders. Over 14—W. Lavelle, A. Saunders.

OBITUARY.

MRS. JOHN KELLY.

The death of Mrs. John Kelly, which occurred here on Saturday, removes another of the pioneers of Durham. She was born in the County of Wick, Ireland, in 1820, and was therefore in her 88th year. In 1847 she was married to Mr. John Kelly, who died 37 years ago. In 1856 she came to Canada with her husband and settled in this town, where Mr. Kelly took charge of the Edge mills, holding the position till the time of his death in 1871. After the death of her husband she remained in town, for the past fourteen or fifteen years in the home of her son, Mr. John Kelly, Manager of the Standard Bank. The family consisted of four sons, Dr. Thos. Kelly, of Omaha; John, of this town; Dr. James Kelly, deceased three years ago, and Albert, who died last June. For the past three or four years the deceased was an invalid, most of the time entirely helpless. She was a life long member of the English church, and a woman who was held in the highest esteem, not only by members of her own church, but by the whole community. The remains were interred Tuesday in Trinity church cemetery, the Rev. A. A. Bice conducting the services. It is just three years since the remains of Dr. James Kelly were interred in the same plot, both funerals being on the 17th of March.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETING AT MT. FOREST.

At the meeting of the Saugeen Presbytery held at Mt. Forest on March 12th, the Rev. A. Thompson, of Rothsay, was appointed moderator for the ensuing year. The resignation of Rev. M. C. Cameron was accepted and Rev. S. Young was appointed interim moderator. Much sympathy was expressed for Mr. Cameron in the serious illness that has necessitated his resignation.

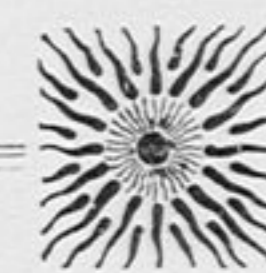

Rev. Campbell, Kendall and Farquharson, and elders from Arthur Moorefield and Drayton, were appointed Commissioners to the Assembly, Winnipeg. Heartly congratulations were offered to the Moorefield congregation on their having reached the self-sustaining standing. Much of their success is, no doubt, due to the labors of D. L. Campbell, under whose ministry the advance has been made. When he took charge two years ago they were receiving a grant of $150.00, now they raise the whole amount and are planning an increase in their minister's salary.
