Home, Sweet Home.

Murdock McLeod was liberated from Goderich castle on March 5th, and wended his way homeward. In Goderich township he went to a house to get something to eat. No one was at home, so he helped him- self to provisions, and to some other things that he could not eat. On his arrival here he was again arrested, and once more is enjoying the hospi- tality of the county jail for another term. Perhaps it is easier than working for a living amid snowdrifts. —Wingham Advance.

Never.

A girl recently sent this extraor- dinary request to the editor of her church paper: "Do you think it is right for a girl to sit in a man's lap, even if she is engaged?" The editor answered her question thus: "If it were our girl and our lap, yes, if it were another fellow's girl and our lap, yes; but if it were our girl and another fellow's lap, never! NEVER!"

CORRESPONDENCE.

Traverston.

(Received too late for last week.) St. Patrick's blessing on the sons and daughters of old Erin. An exodus of our people took place on Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Olive Cook goes to Durham to learn the dressmaking art with Mrs. Whitmore.

Mr Jim Davis, who has spent the winter at the old home, here, and among relatives throughout the province, left for his home near Van couver, accompanied by his sister, Miss Allie. His brother Dick, the clever smithy, is also gone West, but was uncertain at what point he would stop off.

George Paylor has engaged with Mr. Asa Robson in Manitoba, and leaves for there this week.

Lastly, the home of Mr. Thos. Jack is broken up, he and the two oldest boys, Beecher and Everett, leaving on Tuesday morning with two car loads of settlers' effects for Saskatch- ewan. Mrs. Jack and the other members of the family will follow in a few weeks. About a dozen of help- ful neighbors were on hand to help to load up and put things in good shape. Tom treated them most generously.

On Wednesday evening of last week a farewell social was held in the church in honor of those going away. An excellent supper was first served, the tea and edibles being extra good. The church was filled with a happy crowd. A bright pro- gram followed of songs, recitations and music. Mr. Arthur Blair receiving warm encores and Mr. W. Bailey being highly applauded for his recital. Coming near to the close of the pro- gram, Miss Allie Davis was called to the front and presented with a neat address and a silver fruit spoon. She most gracefully expressed her grati- tude and, then, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jack and family were requested to come forward. They were surround- ed by a happy throng, and after the reading of an address by the chair- man, R. Edwards, which spoke of the deep sorrow and regret of the community at the parting, of the high esteem in which they were held and of the noble qualities that have been characteristic of the family, Mr. John McNally presented the family, in behalf of the neighborhood, with a fine Galloway robe; W. L. Falking- ham and Mrs. E. W. Hunt handed to Mr. and Mrs. Jack a Persian lamb cap each; to Miss Stella was given a silver fruit spoon; to Master Beecher a finely bound hymn book and bible; to Master Everett by his teacher, Miss Olive Cook, and his class mates, a handsome bible and cuff links; to Jennie, a Daisy booklet; to Sammy, a jack knife; to "Tootsie," a tie pin. Mr. Jack most feelingly replied, and the whole crowd most rapturously sang at the close, "For h's a joll, good fellow." Rev. Mr. Jamieson followed in a bright speech and Mr. E. W. Hunt in a most eloquent ad- dress. W. L. Falkingham paid a warm tribute. The meeting was brought to a close by singing "Blest be the tie that binds." A lot of peo- ple went home with hearts feeling sad at the parting; but with the best of wishes for their future prosperity and welfare.

Darkie's Corners.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lindsay, was the scene of a jolly time, a week ago last Friday night, when that sociable couple threw open their doors to about seventy invited guests. Dancing was the chief amusement of the evening, but those who did not care for dancing, were well provided for with games. Nothing occurred to mar the friendly feelings of all present, until the hands of the indicator of time started pointing to the larger hours. Every- body had an elegant time.

Spring Bank.

(Crowded out last week.) Mrs. Andrew Picken is recovering from a very severe illness.

Miss Mary Dennett visited Miss Edith Watson the fore part of the week.

Mr. Charles Reid left on Tuesday last for the West.

Mrs. Philip Lawrence was quite ill for a time but is recovering.

Wedding bells are ringing to the east.

Mr. T. J. Watson has been under the weather for some time, but is on the mend.

We omitted in our last budget to say that Mrs. Jas. Whitmore spent some time in Toronto owing to the death of her sister.

Here comes the Darkies' Corner's Crow, Oh! isn't he the poet? Spring is coming, you can know. And now he's bound to go it.

Yes! Here comes the Darkies' Crow In poetical array, And o'er the Gander and the Snipe He wishes to hold sway.

Indeed, my Mr. Darkie's Crow, (Tis just a gentle joke) Still we would like to clip your wings And fun upon your poke.

But Crows and Snipes and Gander birds They never can agree, And editors, on spring-gush stuff, Are not at all friendlee.

So drop your quill, my "cawing" friend, And poetry renounce, Or our good boss in Durham town May give us the grand bounce.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and Eczema.

These are diseases for which Cham- berlain's Salve is especially valuable. It quickly allays the itching and smarting and soon effects a cure. Price, 25 cents. For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

Townsend's Lake.

Received too late for last week. Still the winter hangs on. Our school teacher, Miss Jay, had to give up her school duties owing to ill health and return to her home near Meaford. Hope she may soon recruit again.

Mr. Sam Shield and Miss Mary Montgomery, of Markdale, spent Sunday afternoon, March 8th, with the latter's cousins, Wm. and Hannah Boyle.

Mr. John Townsend, of Iowa, gave some of his old schoolmates a flying call some time ago.

A few of the youth and beauty from around here attended the box social at Latona last Friday night, and report an A 1 time. Much cred- it is due to the teacher, Miss Kate McDonald, for the excellent program rendered.

As spring draws around there is always more or less moving among the farmers. Mr. Bob Goodwill will, in a couple of weeks, move to his new home down the country. Bob has certainly been a hustler, and will certainly make things go yonder. Mr. Charlie Watson moves onto the farm vacated by him. Charlie has it leased for a term of years.

Mr. Wilson, who has been on the Kerney farm for the past year, has been busy moving the last couple of weeks to Mr. John Bain's farm, Hol- land.

Most of the farmers around the Lake have been fattening a few head of cattle and hogs, and are sorely disappointed with the low prices. Mr. Samuel Baines delivered a nice pair of steers to Mr. Wm. Lambert last week.

Willie Boyle sold a fine young horse to Roch Marlen last Wednesday for a nice figure.

Mr. George Henderson has put in a steady winter teaming for Mr. Bob Goodwill. George doesn't believe in feeding idle horses.

ENTITLED TO PARTICULARS

One ounce Fluid Extract Dande- lion; One ounce Compound Salate; Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla; Mix, and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.

The above prescription has been found invaluable in the treatment of kidney, bladder and urinary troubles, and diseases arising therefrom, such as rheumatism, sciatica, lame back and lumbago, and we feel that the public are entitled to particulars concerning it.

A prominent physician states that the excellent results that have been obtained from the use of the mixture are due to its direct action upon the kidneys, assisting them in their work of filtering all poisonous waste matter and acids from the blood and expelling same in the urine, and at the same time restoring the kidneys to a healthy condition.

He further states that anyone suf- fering from affections of this nature will find it to be very beneficial, and suggests that it be given a trial.
