NEWS AROUND TOWN

APRIL 23rd.
Get your calling cards at this office.

SPRING is here, but the weather continues cold.

SEE our large showing of men's and boys' clothing.—S. F. Morlock.

PLOWSHARES and sole plates for the various plows in use, for sale at the foundry.

WE regret to learn that Mr. J. H. Brown is confined to his bed through illness.

CALL and examine the fine laces, embroideries and lace curtains at Kate Cochran's, opposite S. Scott's store. 2

SEE our Wedding Stationery. If we haven't what you want, we'll get it for you on short notice.

MR. MORAN, of Toronto, is the cutter and tailor engaged with Harry Burnett, and the suits he is turning out are talking for themselves.

DR. BROWN, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist, will be at the Hahn House on the second and fourth Saturday in each month from 12 to 6 o'clock, p. m.

TICKETS for the I. O. O. F. Smoker may be procured at W. C. Vollett's Barber Shop, Gun's Drug Store, H. H. Mookler's, and Dr. J. F. Grant's, and at the door on the evening of the Smoker.

EVERY housekeeper who has used Campbell's Varnish Stain is delighted with the results obtained. Nothing else like it they say. So easy to apply, and so durable. Alex. Russell carries a full line of this popular stain.

EASTER Sunday was a disagreeable day, drizzly in the morning and cold in the afternoon. It must have been a disappointment to those who wished to show their new hats and couldn't. The Merry Widow might have been made to do service as an umbrella.

THE Cement Works commenced burning on Saturday last, and will be working full capacity soon. We understand the demand is good, and from the good name earned by the National Brand a ready market will be found for the output.

On Wednesday evening of last week Mr. Thos. Derby passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jas. Kerr, Egremont. The deceased was for many years a resident of these parts, and was 82 years of age. The funeral took place on Saturday to Hampden cemetery.

MR. HARRY BURNETT, having lately taken over his tailoring business recently carried on by J. L. Flarity, intends running it in connection with his Gents' Furnishings. He has procured the services of Mr. Moran, Toronto, who is a first-class tailor and cutter, and who has had eighteen years experience in the business. Mr. Burnett is now in a position to turn out first-class work on shortest notice. A trial order solicited.

On Tuesday last the CHRONICLE received information that the improvement in Dr. Maccharin's condition during the past week has been steady, and though it will be quite a time before he will be able to resume his duties here, he is now out of danger. Not a day passes, but we are asked regarding his condition and this good news, coming as it does, from the Dr.'s own home, will be much welcomed by his many friends here.

We are informed by Mr. Wm. Edge that the Edge Estate is willing to repossess the market property and make modifications in the deed and re-convey it to the town. The property was given originally in trust, and the town never fulfilled their part of the agreement, which required making and grading of streets within a certain time. This failure, they claim, causes the Edge property to revert to the estate, and it may now be claimed for fulfillment of conditions. We made no error in last issue in saying that the deed to the town provided for a street 132 feet wide, and there was consequently no room for an armory outside the market square, which is largely boggy and unfit for a good building of any kind.

MR. LATIMER is re-modelling the inside of his house up town.

NEIL McCANNEL M. P. P. How does it look?

JUST arrived, a large stock of fancy parasols and umbrellas at Morlock's.

It seems that building operations will not be very brisk this summer.

SIR ADOLPHE CARON, ex-minister of Militia and ex-postmaster-general of Canada died on Monday last.

LADIES, don't forget, that if you want a nice tailor made coat, I have the goods. Call and see.—J. A. Glass, Tailor.

THE construction work on the new rink is going on slowly but surely, but there's nothing definite to hand about the armory.

It's Mrs. Crawford and not Mrs. Colville who is putting improvements on her house. We must have seen double last week.

THE tinwork on the Durham depot is now completed. L. C. Karstedt had the contract and will also do the work on Hanover and Walkerton stations.

IN renewing his subscription for the CHRONICLE, Mr. Hugh McKechnie says they are having beautiful weather out in Bethune, Sask., and that everyone is busy seeding.

FOUR Great Lights: sunlight, moonlight, starlight, and greatest of all, the light that will direct a man to get an up-to-date suit, for style, fit and finish from J. A. Glass, Tailor.

THE Methodist church was crowded on Sunday evening last. The choir had special music, and a selection by the church orchestra was much appreciated. Add to this a good sermon by the pastor and a good solo by Miss Everitt, and imagine the spiritual bill of fare both in service and song.

THE young people of the Methodist church are installing a telephone from the church to the home of Miss Hunt, who has for several months been unable to attend service. Miss Hunt is confined to her bed on account of rheumatism, and the young people are to be commended for bringing the church to her when she is unable to go to the church. The young people of Flesherton treated Mr. Blackburn similarly a few years ago, and he has ever since appreciated their kindness. The apparatus consists simply of a transmitter at the pulpit end and a receiver at the other. There's no chance to talk back at the preacher.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Porter is quite ill at present.

Mr. Allan Bell was at Chatsworth a few days ago.

THIRTY DAYS ON THE ROCK-PILE.

As we intimated in last week's issue the trial of William Britton, the young Englishman who re-paid Mrs. McArthur her seven weeks' board by skipping out with a sixty-dollar watch, took place in the town hall, on Wednesday last, before Magistrate Telford. The extreme penalty for the crime committed, is, in this country 14 years imprisonment, but young Britton was let off with a month at hard labor, thanks to the pleadings of Mrs. McArthur, who interceded for him.

The trial over, Britton was taken to the gaol, and Mrs. McArthur departed for home, satisfied that she had done a kind act and saved a young wayward from at least a two-months' sentence in the Owen Sound coop. Mrs. McArthur went home, we said, and we might add that there she has been even since trying to find out just what the young miscreant did or did not take.

In addition to the watch, a meerschau pipe, belonging to Mr. McArthur, tobacco and other articles were taken out of the store, and the latest article to be missed is a valuable and much prized brooch. The brooch is set in the centre with a Scotch thistle, and surrounding it are numerous Scotch pebbles. A suitable reward is offered for information that will lead to its recovery.

Many other articles of minor importance were found in the lining of the young lad's clothes, and in one pocket was found a pitiful appeal for assistance to a lady in Dublin, Ireland, stating that he was out of friends and work, and could get nothing to do whereby he could earn an honest living. This is a poor recommendation for Durham to get in Dublin, especially from Britton, who has had several good homes in this locality, where he could have grown up as one of the family, were it not for his utter thick-headedness and disinclination for hard work.

Anyway, Britton is in for a month on the rock-pile, and we venture to say it will be the first time he earned his board in this locality. When he comes out, the arm of the law may again descend upon him for his other thievings and this time Mrs. McArthur will be as mum as the sphinx, so far as leniency for this young scoundrel, who so shabbily re-paid her for his winter's board is concerned.

DEAR SIR,—On reading in the Toronto News the account of the fiend incarnate near Brockville, who allowed all his stock to starve to death, I am sure that righteous indignation must burn in many a christian and humane heart. Yet, sir, here in this town of Durham are living a great number of the same fraternity, whose unhuman and cruel treatment of dumb animals should meet with the extreme penalty of the law.

We have many societies in this town—some of these, perhaps, being mere "fads," but sir, it is a crying necessity to have a Society for "Prevention of Cruelty to Animals" here. I shall be one of its first members, if such be established, and have my criminals "spotted" even now.

Hoping you will give me space in your valuable paper, I am, sir, Yours very truly,

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.
