A Temperance Candidate.

The executive of the Dominion Alliance for Centre Grey met at the Park House, on Saturday afternoon and decided to bring out a candidate in opposition to the present member Mr. I. B. Lucas. A convention has been called for Tuesday, May 12, to choose a candidate, the meeting to be held in the town hall, here, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and a mass meeting will be held at night with the candidate (whoever he may be) and a gentleman from a distance as speakers.

The temperance people of the section, it is said, feel very sorely over the attitude Mr. Lucas took on the three fifth question, and also at the determined stand the government has taken in the same matter, and feel like teaching them a lesson. Four out of the five townships in Centre Grey are under local option, and brought strong pressure to bear on Mr. Lucas to champion the elimination of the three fifth clause in the Local Option Act, but were not successful in securing his aid.

The proposition is, we believe, to put up a Temperance-Conservative candidate against the present member, and by that means it is thought an interesting contest will result. The only name we have heard mentioned as the possible candidate is that of the Reeve of Collingwood township, Mr. Samuel McKnight, but it is said there are also one or two others from whom choice can be made.—Flesherton Advance.

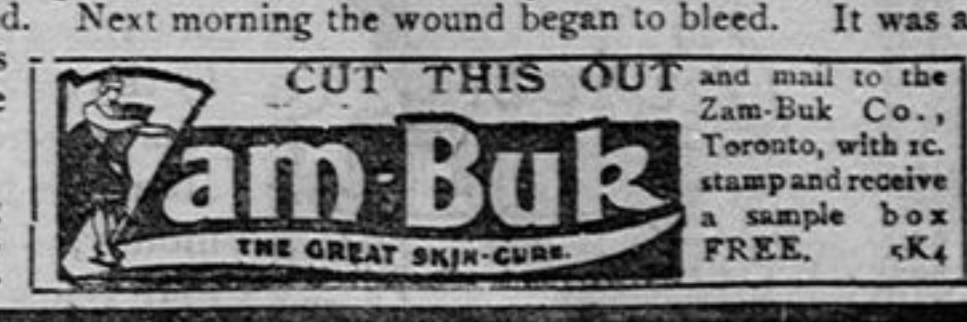

Has Been in Durham Too

A man giving his name as Graham, and exhibiting a fearfully burnt foot and twisted hand, passed the hat around town on Tuesday soliciting aid. According to the man's story he was blasting in a coal mine in West Virginia when the fuse united prematurely, causing an explosion to take place before he could be pulled up. The nature of his injuries would seem to bear out his statements, and made him indeed a fit object for charity. An odor of liquor off him didn't seem to help his case and he would probably have worked up more sympathy if he had less evidences of the beverage about him. He carried on his person a large package of lead pencils, showing that it was sometimes necessary to resort to traffic, when the sympathy racket failed.—Bruce Times.

ZAM-BUK SAVED THIS MAN'S FINGER!

Mr. William C. Edwards, Peter Street, Toronto (late steward Elks' Club), sustained a severe cut on the middle finger of the left hand. Blood poisoning ensued and the finger caused him excruciating agony. He says: "My hand was so swollen and painful that I had to carry it in a sling for some months. I was under the care of a well-known doctor in Toronto for several weeks. The wound got no better, and one day he said my finger would have to be taken off. The pain from the wound was terrible and was extending right up the arm. I consulted another medical man and was treated by him for some weeks longer. He then suggested that I bathe the wound and apply Zam-Buk as directed. Next morning the wound began to bleed. It was a healthy sign so I continued with the treatment, and in a week's time I was able to discard the bandage. A little more perseverance and Zam-Buk cured the wound completely."

Zam-Buk Cures cuts, burns, chafings, itch, eczema, running sores, ringworm, piles, bad legs, poisoned wounds and all skin diseases. All druggists and stores, etc., or postpaid from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patroiman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale at Parker's Drug Store.

Acquitted of Poisoning Charge.

On Thursday of last week Magistrates D. M. Sutherland, of Skipness, and J. E. Campbell, of Hepworth, sat on a case of suspected poisoning. The plaintiff was Wm. Currie and the defendant Miss Annie Ferrol. Defendant tried to prove that plaintiff poisoned his baby which died last fall, and that she attempted to poison his other child recently. After several witnesses were heard on both sides the magistrates found that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant their sending her to Walkerton for trial, and so acquitted her. The case was tried in the Spencer House.—Journal.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.

An incident of a peculiarly touching character occurred yesterday in one of the elevated railroad trains, that brought tears to the eyes of the passengers. The train had just left One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street when the passengers saw entering the car a little boy about six years old, half carried by an older boy, evidently his brother. Both were well dressed but at first glance it was seen that the little fellow was blind. He had a pale, wan face, but was smiling. A quick look of sympathy passed over the face of the passengers, and an old grey-haired gentleman got up and gave his seat to the two. The "big brother," who was about eleven years old, tenderly lifted up the little blind boy and placed him on his knee.

"How's that?" he asked.

"Nice," said the little chap. "Where's my 'monica'?"

This puzzled some of the passengers, and several turned to see what the child meant. But the "big brother" knew, and immediately drew out a small mouth harmonica and placed it in the little fellow's hands. The little fellow took the instrument into his thin hands, ran it across his lips, and began to play softly. "Nearer my God, to Thee." Tears came into the eyes of the old gentleman who had given up his seat, and as the little fellow played on, running into the "Rock of Ages" and "Abide with Me," there were many moist eyes in the car.

The train rushed along, the passengers listened, never missing a note of "Annie Laurie" or "Home, Sweet Home." Finally the "big brother" leaned down and told the little one to get ready to leave, as the train was nearing their station. Then, as if he knew he had won a whole carload of friends, the blind boy quickly changed "The Swanee River" into "Auld Lang Syne," and with one accord the passengers burst into a round of applause, while the "big brother" carried the little one out of the car.—New York Times.

Fatal Runaway Accident.

A serious and fatal runaway accident occurred on Poulett street shortly after eleven o'clock on Wednesday forenoon. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hughes, of Balacava, who had been at the market with dairy produce were driving northward and when near Ward's grocery their horse became frightened at a dog which ran at it. The horse kicked and then started to run. There was an opening ahead of Mr. Hughes between Ward's delivery wagon and another team going north, and through this he was guiding the animal when the dog made its attack. The result was that Mr. Hughes' horse swerved so that the left wheel of his buggy passed between Ward's horse and the shaft of the wagon to which it was hitched. Mrs. Hughes, who was on that side was struck by the end of the shaft, which pierced her body and bore her to the ground, while her husband fell forward over the front of the buggy, and sustained flesh wounds on the head and was otherwise injured. The whole affair occurred in a few moments. Mrs. Hughes was carried by Mr. W. E. Dickin into Middlebro's drug store, where it was seen her injuries were very serious. Mr. Hughes also collapsed and was carried after his wife by Messrs. A. J. Creighton and W. A. Howard, who witnessed the accident. Mrs. Hughes was shortly afterward conveyed to the hospital in the ambulance, but only lived till 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The shaft of the delivery wagon had pierced her left side under the heart, penetrating and rupturing the spleen, part of which protruded from the wound. She was conscious to the last, but Dr. Middlebro, who was in attendance, saw from the first that she was fatally injured. She was aged 55 years. Mr. Hughes was severely shaken up but had no serious injuries.

Wednesday evening, Mr. Greenfield, of St. Vincent, started for the Hughes' home with the horse which the unfortunate couple had driven and the animal again ran away on Scope street, colliding with the stump of a willow tree at the Queen's Hotel, wrecking the buggy, and continuing as far south as Dease street. Mr. Greenfield escaped without much injury.—Advertiser.

To Move Off a Cold.

Cough mixtures "dope" a cold—but don't cure. Above all else, keep the bowels regular and stimulate the eliminatory organs. More valuable than any cough syrup are Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They clear the system of every trace of cold—the dull head ache, aching limbs, and cough disappear. Take the pills before retiring, they work while you sleep, and by morning your cold is broken and passes quickly away. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills in 25c, boxes.

On Friday last Mr. Albert Ammerman, of Normanby, put in an interesting few minutes with his horse on Main st. The animal was tied to a post in front of Burke's bookstore when it became frightened at some loose matting which was blown under its feet, and began to kick at the stuff. Mr. Ammerman ran out and in attempting to remove the cause of the trouble from under the horse's feet had both hands pretty badly bruised by the animal's hoofs. The animal became so frenzied that in its efforts to free itself it fell, breaking both shafts and had to be held down and unhitched when it was led away and Mr. Ammerman went to a doctor and had his wounds dressed. Every citizen should try to prevent loose paper or rubbish blowing about the streets as that is a fruitful source of runaways or accidents such as described above.—Representative.

Many Get Consumption In Spring Months

The System is Generally Run Down and Lacks Power to Destroy the Germ

Winter takes the vitality and snap out of us all. Instead of being rich and healthful the blood is sure to be thin and watery in the spring. An overpowering tiredness comes upon us—this is followed by dead weakness loss of sleep poor appetite and depression.

Doctors all say the only hope lies in supplying lots of new blood which must be brimming with vitality and building material.

The quickest way to get the necessary supply of vitalized blood is by taking Ferrozone. It establishes a high standard of blood, increases nerve force, restores bodily vigor in a truly marvelous way.

You are amply protected from spring fever and debility diseases by using Ferrozone.—This is proved by Mrs. E. J. Richardson, of Manotick, Ont., who tells in the following words how she gained in health and spirit from Ferrozone: "For about two years I was not at all well. I was thin and anaemic. Towards spring I fell into a condition of nervous exhaustion that made life scarcely worth living. A dead tiredness seemed to hang over me like a load of lead. I simply could not do housework of any kind. A bad cough developed that worried me greatly, for I thought it might be tubercular. When I first read about Ferrozone I was convinced it was good. I took it regularly for about eight weeks and the change in my health was wonderful. My cheeks filled out and became clear and rosy. I gained eight pounds in weight and am now as strong and vigorous as possible."

Ferrozone feeds and nourishes the organs that require assistance. It sends the thrill and vim of robust health from head to foot, makes you feel better at once. Won't you use Ferrozone? Sold everywhere; 50 chocolate-coated tablets in a box for 50 cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers.

WATCH YOUR TONGUE

If Furred and Coated, it's a Looking Glass Stomach Warning.

When it is the morning after the night before, you do not have to look at your tongue to know that the stomach is upset, the head is aching, no appetite, nerves on edge with all the sunshine of life clouded.

The real time to watch the tongue is all of the time. If it is coated with a white fur, or possibly with dark trimmings, even though the stomach does not tell you by the acute pains of indigestion that it needs help, yet the coating shows that you are getting into a bad way and that there is need of Mi-o-na.

Mi-o-na is so positive, so sure, so reliable in its curative action upon the stomach that MacFadlane & Co., the local agents, give a guarantee of satisfaction with every 50 cent box or money back.

WE HAVE "LOCAL OPTION."

Local Option came into force here on Friday last and our town certainly looked the part on Friday and Saturday with both hotels closed, one shed and stable closed and a couple of men ordering the rigs out of the other one. The temperance element having made no preparation whatever for the traveling public, just laid back on their oars and the boat took its course. Now for ourselves, we have no use for the bar or its goods, but we hate to see a few people so small minded as to take away what accommodation we had and fail to replace it as they promised to do. We hear that a list was started to see what could be raised to start a temperance house, and it must have been poorly subscribed to or something would have been done surely. On Monday things took a little different light and Mr. Dulmage, who owns the Albion hotel, has commenced operations at fixing up the place for the accommodation of people, but not the stable for horses. What Mr. White intends doing we have not heard, but in all probability he will return to town also. But if both places are turned into temperance houses and properly run that will be no thanks to the temperance people, as they are doing it to keep their insurance up and not see their buildings stand idle. Our space does not permit us to enlarge on this or we could tell our distant readers some funny things on the temperance people of Howick and what an injury it has already been to our little village since last Friday, which, if continued, would put us clean under before three years.—Gorrie Vidette.
