For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. For rect any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Flesherton.

The result of the afternoon session of the Prohibition Convention held here on Tuesday of last week has been already reported in the Chronicle, and readers will remember that the Convention, after hearing Mr. I. B. Lucas state his position, did not deem it wise to nominate a candidate. At the evening meeting in the town hall there was a fairly good attendance presided over by Rev. Dr. Caldwell, and some good temperance addresses were given. The speakers were Rev. Henry Berry, Priceville; Rev. A. P. Stanley, of Maxwell; Rev. L. F. Kipp, of Flesherton; Rev. Wm. Beilby of Meaford; Dr. Shultz, of Heathcote, and Mr. Little, manager of the Sheldon House, Owen Sound.

The regular meeting of Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M. on Friday evening last was one of special interest, made so by the presence of Rt. Wor. Bro. J. W. Bethune, of Sarnia, D. D. G. M. of the Georgian District, who made his official visit. The opening and closing of the lodge in the several degrees was gone through, and one candidate was passed to the degree of Fellow Craft, after which the District Deputy, in the course of an instructive and pleasing address, complimented the Wor. Master Bro. W. A. Armstrong, and his officers on the excellent work done and the prosperous condition in which he found the lodge. During the evening the annual election of officers took place as follows: W. M. B. O. L. A. Blakeley; S. W. Bro. C. H. Munshaw; Chaplain, Bro. Rev. Dr. Caldwell; Treasurer, Wor. Bro. Jos. Blackburn; Secretary, Bro. Herb. Smith. At the close of the lodge all repaired to the dining hall where a beautiful spread was laid by the wives of the village members, and a couple of hours were enjoyably spent with speech-making, &c.

Rev. Geo. Washington, M. A., of Stouffville, representative of the Dominion Alliance, gave good addresses here on Sunday in the interests of the Alliance. Mr. Washington spoke in the Baptist church in the morning in the Presbyterian church in the afternoon and in the Methodist church at night.

Miss May Hales was given a pleasant surprise at her home on Friday evening last, when about twenty of her young lady friends assembled and presented her with a beautiful mission clock and shower of china on her approaching marriage. Refreshments were served and the young ladies spent a very enjoyable evening together. Miss Hales has also been the recipient of an appreciated gift from her Sunday School class.

Mr. I. B. Lucas, who we have already noted was here at the temperance Convention on Tuesday of last week, was, before leaving for home in the evening, serenaded by the Band at the home of Mr. M. K. Richardson. In a neat speech, Mr. Lucas graciously acknowledged the honor and the band fund was helped with a liberal donation.

The "Unclaimed Jewels" of Flesherton are this (Tuesday) evening giving an At Home, for which a large number of invitations have been issued. The function will be held in the new Richardson block, which is being artistically decorated and prepared for the occasion.

Among the successful candidates for the degree of B. A. at the recent examinations in McMaster University, Toronto, we were pleased to see reported last week Mrs. W. E. Kerr, now a member of the public school staff here. We tender congratulations to Mrs. Kerr, B. A., upon the honors won.

Born—On Sunday, May 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ekins, Toronto line, a son.

Mr. Bob. Meggot who recently returned from the lumber camps in New Ontario, has moved his family to his farm on the west back line.

Mr. Alex. Stewart, a highly respected resident of the village, was on Friday last seized with a slight paralytic stroke, but on Saturday one more severe occurred which affected his throat and rendered him speechless. At the time of writing there is some improvement and Mr. Stewart's family and friends anxiously hope for his recovery.

Miss Muriel McTavish celebrated her 15th birthday on Tuesday of last week and gave an enjoyable party to fifteen of her young friends.

LAST week we received a notification through the mails, signed "Edge," announcing the engagement of his daughter to one of Glenora men. The article appeared, and we published it. On Wednesday Mr. Edge was in town, informed us that the report was entirely false, and inquired as our authority was. We refer to the signed communication, he immediately pronounced Mr. Edge has since made a number of inquiries on the side, and at the time kept his eyes open, at the present, secured enough to leave no doubt in his mind who the perpetrator of the was a joke, all right, but it was not on Mr. Edge or this part of the time the young man gets with his part of the business swears to a charge of forgery, culminating false and libellous statements to charges preferred by Mr. will then be in a position to music this paper has ready and thoroughly appreciate it.
