My Hair is Scraggly

Do you like it? Then why be contented with it? Have to be? Oh, no! Just put on Ayer's Hair Vigor and have long, thick hair; soft, even hair. But first of all, stop your hair from coming out. Save what you have. Ayer's Hair Vigor will not disappoint you. It feeds the hair-bulbs; makes weak hair strong.

Badgerow—Davis—'Sunrise', the commodious residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis, Toronto line, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday forenoon when their eldest daughter Winnie was joined in marriage to Mr. Gordon Badgerow, of Cooksville. To the strains of the wedding march played by the bride's mother the bridal party at 11:30 o'clock took their places beneath a prettily formed arch of evergreens and lilacs with back ground of ferns. In the presence of about thirty relatives and friends of the contracting parties the ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Dr. Caldwell, of this place. The bride, who was given away by her father looking charming in a dress of white Gloria silk trimmed with applique. She wore a tulle veil with a coronet of apple blossoms. Miss Laura Davis, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and was dressed in navy cloth with white silk waist. The bride's brother, Mr. Glean Davis was best man. After the ceremony and congratulations to the happy couple a sumptuous wedding dinner was served followed by happy speeches from Dr. Caldwell, Mr. J. M. Davis and the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Badgerow left on the afternoon train for Toronto and will be at home to their friends at their new home at Cooksville after July 1st. The bride's travelling dress was of grey plaid tweed trimmed with white applique. She wore hat to match. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents many of which came from friends in Manitoba, Leeds County, Toronto and Preston. The groom's gift to the bride was a toilet set, to bridesmaid a pretty locket and chain and to the groomsmen a Swastika pin. A large number of friends wish the esteemed young couple much happiness and prosperity. Mr. Badgerow, who formerly lived on the 4th line Armesia, is now following market gardening at Cooksville.
