ROBT. BURNETT

IMPERIAL SHOES

Flesherton.

After an illness of seven months, Mr. George Best, one of the pioneers of Artemesia township, passed away at his late home here on Tuesday of last week, aged 84 years. The funeral took place at the public cemetery here on Thursday afternoon, and was under the auspices of old Victoria Lodge No. 244, L. O. L., in which the deceased became a member of the order over fifty years ago. Before proceeding to the cemetery service was held in the Methodist church and the pastor, Rev. Dr. Caldwell, preached an appropriate sermon, closing with fitting reference to the memory of the deceased, who was an old member of the congregation. Mr. Best was born in the County of Limerick, Ireland. Soon after coming of age he emigrated to Canada and for a few years lived near Toronto, during which time he was married at Streetsville to Miss J. E. Duncan, of Toronto township, who died 17 years ago. About 58 years ago Mr. Best and his young wife came to Artemesia and settled on the Durham Road, where he farmed successfully till 14 years ago, when he retired in Flesherton and was again married to Mrs. T. Blakely, a very highly esteemed lady of this village, who survives him. Three sons and four daughters, the fruit of his first marriage, also survive him, as follows: James and Robert, Toronto line, the former an ex councillor and the latter now serving at the Artemesia Council Board; John T. on the homestead Durham Road; Mrs. Robert Taylor, near the old homestead; Mrs. W. Hacking, Woodstock, N. B.; Mrs. Duncan Stewart, Depot Harbor; and Mrs. Alex Stewart, of Teeswater.

At Rockvale Baptist church there was a big congregation on Friday evening last, when Mrs. Lewes Whewell, nee Miss Stafford, recently married, was presented by the congregation with a beautiful mantle clock, ornament and tray cloth as a token of appreciation of her services as church clerk, S. S. superintendent and Bible class teacher. The presentation was made by Misses McDowell and Arms and the pastor, Rev. L. F. Kipp, gave a suitable address, to which Mrs. Whewell replied in fitting terms.

J. & W. Boyd's store was again broken into one night last week, this being the third time within a year. Entrance on this occasion was effected by breaking the glass in the hardware door and removing the iron bar by which the doors are secured. The burglar evidently knew something of the conditions. That the intruder helped himself was evident from the disturbed condition of the goods in several departments of the store.

At a meeting of the directors of East Grey Agricultural Society held here last week, it was decided that Government regulations be fully complied with and horse racing be dropped at the fall fair this year. Other attractions will be added, among which will be foot races and dog races, which created so much interest at the recent celebration here. The directors hope more than ever to make the fair educative and interesting.

The Mission Band here held their annual picnic in the Park on Friday last, and were joined by the young people of Meaford Road church. It was an enjoyable time for all.

W. A. Armstrong and family and M. Wilson and family, with some visiting friends, picnicked at Bell's lake on Friday.

Mr. Fred Nicholson, 4th line had a fine granite monument erected in the public cemetery here last week to the memory of his father and mother.

The Swanton brothers have had the remains of their grandfather, the late Mr. Geo. Calbeck, removed from the Irwin cemetery to the family plot in the public cemetery here.

Miss Annie Wilcock purchased a very fine upright grand Heintzman & Company piano last week, which has been delivered to her here.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell spoke twice to the Orangemen on Sunday, in the morning at Ceylon and in the evening at Eugenia. Dr. Caldwell's pulpit here was supplied by Mr. Thomas Harness, of Markdale, in the morning, and Rev. T. Laidlaw, of Eugenia, in the evening. At the Baptist church Rev. L. F. Kipp preached to a large congregation on the ordinance of baptism, and at the close of the service six were baptized.

While playing ball on Saturday Elvin Jamieson got struck on the end of the thumb with a swift ball which dislocated the member at both joints, causing the bone to protrude through the flesh. Dr. Carter attended to the injury, which will be some time in healing.

Messrs. M. K. and W. E. Richardson received word on Saturday of the death of their brother Joseph at their old home at Culgaith, England. The deceased was 76 years of age.

Dr. Caldwell delivered his lecture, Courtship and Marriage, at a garden party at Priceville last week, which we learn was very successful.

Our citizens ran up their flags on Monday in honor of the Glorious Twelfth. The band and many others went to Dundalk and a goodly number took in the celebration at Eugenia.

The baseball clubs in School Sections No. 3 & 4, east of the village, played a match on the grounds of the former on Saturday, in which the boys of No. 3 won.

Mr. W. J. Bellamy is a delegate this week to the Masonic Grand Lodge at Niagara Falls.
