25,000 Men For Harvest

C. P. R. Vice-President Gives an Idea of the Probable Condition of Labor in West.

Strathcona, Alta., July 23.—Wm. Whyte, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, when seen by your correspondent regarding the crop prospects said:

"From all information I can gather from those capable of expressing an intelligent opinion, it would seem as if twenty-five thousand harvesters would be required to garner the crop. The probable wages given will range from two to three dollars when by the day, with board, and will probably average $2.50.

"On this basis men will lose their wages for time not worked, although there will be no reduction for board on that account.

"In arriving at these figures, all applications above reasonable figures have been eliminated. "Harvest operations should begin by August 15th.

"Crops between Calgary and Edmonton are looking very well and nearly three weeks ahead of last year.

"I am also informed that the crop of all wheat in southern Alberta is in a good condition and gives promise of a large yield."

Over Thirty-Five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera in factum. It was at that time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by all Drug Stores.

Flesherton.

After an illness of several months, borne with christian resignation, Mrs. Heard, Sr., relict of the late Mr. John H. Heard passed away on Tuesday of last week at the home of her son William, Toronto line, from where the funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Thursday afternoon. Before interment an impressive service was held in the Methodist church conducted by Rev. Dr. Caldwell, who preached an appropriate sermon from Pa. 116: 15. In closing, Dr. Caldwell paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased, who had been a faithful member of the Methodist church since settling in Flesherton 48 years ago. She lived a consistent christian life, which had a hallowing influence in the home, in the church and in the community. The deceased was born in Scotland on December 2nd, 1834, and was therefore in her 74th year. Her maiden name was Catherine White. At eleven years of age she came with her widowed father to Canada, and lived in Darlington township until married to Mr. Heard in 1860, when the young couple came to Flesherton and spent the remainder of their days. Mr. Heard died four years ago. A family of two sons and one daughter survive, viz., John A., of Flesherton; William H., Toronto line, and Mrs. David Blair, Toronto.

Mr. William Ludlow, one of the early settlers of Proton township, passed away at his home near Proton Station on Friday last, aged 72 years. The funeral took place to Inistock cemetery on Monday afternoon and was largely attended, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Mr. Ludlow was a resident of the township, near Proton Station, over fifty years. He is survived by his widow, one son, William, and six daughters, viz., Mrs. John Atcheson, Mrs. Alex. Stewart, Mrs. James Morrow, Mrs. Latimer, Mrs. G. A. Blakeley and Mrs. Ed. Rutherford.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid garden party on Tuesday evening of last week was very successful, the proceeds being nearly $70. The baseball match between Markdale and Ceylon ladies' teams was a very interesting feature. The Ceylon girls did some splendid playing, and won with the large score of 38 to 15. Flesherton band gave a good program of music, and the evening being delightfully fine the large crowd enjoyed the outing.

The Junior ball teams of this place and the school east of the village played a match on the grounds of the latter on Friday evening, in which the village boys won by 27 to 18.

The Citizens' Band took part in the band tournament at Dundalk on Friday evening and report a very successful affair. On Tuesday evening the annual event will be held here.

Rev. G. C. Little is leaving this week on two weeks holidays at Guelph and other points in Western Ontario. Mr. McMichael, of Shelburne, will supply his pulpits the next two Sabbaths.

The Baptist Sunday School at Rockvale has been re-organized with Mr. Richard Allen as superintendent and several new teachers appointed. The recent evangelistic meetings at Rockvale were very fruitful, and a deep interest is being taken in the work of the church and Sabbath School.

The Baptist congregation here have decided to convert their open church sheds into a closed barn, which will be about 65 feet in length. At a meeting of the building committee last week it was decided that the work be pushed forward at once.

The Grey Old Boys excursion from Toronto brought a large number of visitors to this place and vicinity, among whom were, Mr. Thorp Wright, a guest at the Park House; Mr. George Richardson, at his old home; Mr. Edgar Bellamy visited at his home accompanied by his friend, Mr. A. Seddon; Dr. and Mrs. Thos. Henderson visited Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn; Mr. E. J. Swift visited at Mr. P. Quigg's; Mr. and Mrs. James Richards visited at Mr. A. Thistlethwaite's; Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Carter and two children visited at Mr. W. Moore's; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Whitten visited the former's brothers, Thos. and Edward; Mrs. John Whitten and son Alfred visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison; Mrs. Feigan visited Mrs. Hemphill, sep., 4th line; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McClure visited at Mr. George Ludlow's; Miss Kemp visited at Mr. W. Wilcock's; Mr. Geo. Wickens visited his parents; Miss Flo Bellamy visited her home; Misses Minnie and Ella Reid, members of Dr. Caldwell's former charge, were visitors at the Methodist parsonage, and were taken

WHAT IS THE PREMIERSHIP?

Its Meaning, Recognition, and Associations as Stated in T.P.'s Weekly.

Everybody knows that the head of a Ministry is called Prime Minister or Premier, but few people quite realize what that means. The Cabinet, of course, has the Premier for its head; the Cabinet grew naturally out of the needs of our national polity; "yet," needs of our national polity; "yet," be altogether unknown to the law. Now, of course, there is no secrecy about the names of members who constitute the Cabinet; those members are chosen from the leaders of the majority in the House of Commons; the Cabinet, in fact, is practically a chosen body within an elected body. Yet it remains, technically, unknown to the constitution. Quite apart from his position as the Head of the Government, the Premier has extraordinary influence. It is upon his recommendation that the dignitaries of the church are appointed; he has the right of nomination to over a hundred crown livings—of course, as vacancies occur; and it is he, nominally at least, who confers temporal and honorary distinctions—peerages, baronetcies, even the Garter itself. Yet until quite recently the Premier enjoyed no legal precedence over his fellows, his official position not being recognized by statute. It was only by Royal Warrant dated Dec. 2, 1905, that his precedence was definitely established, and he was given "place and precedence next after the Archbishop of York." Only the Princes of the Blood Royal, the Lord High Chancellor, and the two archbishops, therefore, rank above him.

Mr. Asquith, we all believe, will worthily sustain the traditions of the great office which he has been chosen to fill. Even as a schoolboy he had strong convictions; amongst them was a great antipathy to women's suffrage. Dr. Abbott, Mr. Asquith's old headmaster at the City of London School, said of him: "One thing—I may say because I remember saying it at a public dinner some ten years ago, when the School Club congratulated him on his Home Secretaryship—that from his boyhood upward he knew what he meant; and I will add that he always seemed to me to have a right to speak his mind freely, because he had taken so much pains, and used so much judgment, good sense, and patient thought and study in making up his mind." In Mr. J. P. Alderson's monograph on Mr. Asquith, published in 1905, from which I quote Dr. Abbott's words, there occurs the following passage: "At the appointed time, the bonds will burst and the hidden fires will flash forth. When that time comes the Liberal party will have a leader who will be a second Gladstone." That this is not mere speculative rhetoric we leave to the judgment of the careful student of Mr. Asquith's character and record. Everyone regrets the loss of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman; everyone looks to Mr. Asquith to consolidate and augment his well-earned reputation.

"Slippery Jack." Of William Hunt, a seaman of 63, who pleaded guilty recently in England to stealing a boat, it was told that "he used to grease his body, and, boarding ships late at night in a nude condition, rob cabins." Therefore he was known as "Slippery Jack."

One captain who was awakened, said a constable, tried to detain Hunt, but he easily escaped. After being liberated from prison he was sent to the Salvation Army at Manchester. He was caught returning to London in an express train without a ticket, and he jumped out of the carriage. As a result of his injuries he was unconscious three days.

Hunt said his life had been a miserable failure and degradation. He borrowed the boat with the intention of getting upon a foreign-bound steamer.

Mr. Wallace said Hunt had spent forty-two years in prison. He sometimes wondered whether such criminals were responsible for their actions. As there was no other alternative, he would send him back to penal servitude for four years.

A Wilful Misunderstanding.

The reconstruction of the British Cabinet by Mr. Asquith recalls an incident that happened in Pitt's time, when a Scotsman, who was eager to be elevated to the peerage, was the victim of a neat stroke of business. Sir John Sinclair was President of the Board of Agriculture, and after being in office for several years, he expressed a desire for promotion in the social scale.

"Dear Mr. Pitt," he wrote to the Prime Minister, "don't you think the President of the Board of Agriculture should be a peer?"

Pitt at once seized the opportunity to "shunt" the too-eager Scot. "Dear Sir John Sinclair," replied the Prime Minister, "I entirely agree with you. I have therefore appointed Lord Somerville to succeed you as President of the Board of Agriculture."

Sir John, on recovering from his stupefaction, went about wringing his hands and exclaiming, "Dear me, dear me, it was such a wilful misunderstanding!"

A King Who Objects to Titles.

King Haakon of Norway has scientific tastes. He is interested in few inventions and especially in any contrivance which may be of use at sea or in the navy. He also likes sport, is a fine shot, rides well to hounds and is a first rate billiard player. King Haakon is a knight of the Garter and holds several other British dignities. It is curious to note that at the court of Norway there are no nobles and no titles, and in this respect it resembles the courts of Athens, Belgrade and Bucharest. When he came to the throne he abolished the prefix of "your excellency" for Ministers and other dignitaries, and even wished to dispense with the title of "majesty."

NEW AMBASSADOR FOR BERLIN.

Lascalles Steps Out, Lowther Steps In—Some Facts of Their Careers. Sir Gerard Lowther, British Minister in Tangier, has been appointed Ambassador at Berlin, in succession to Sir F. Lascalles, who vacates the post in the autumn.

The Right Hon. Sir Frank Cavendish Lascalles, who has been nearly forty-seven years in the Diplomatic Service, is the son of the late Right Hon. William Sebright Lascalles, M.P., third son of the second Earl of Harewood, and of Lady Caroline Georgina Howard, daughter of the sixth Earl of Carlisle. Born in 1841, he entered the Diplomatic Service at the age of 20, and was soon afterwards appointed Attaché at Madrid. Until 1878 he filled many subordinate posts in Paris, Berlin, Copenhagen, Rome, Washington, and Athens, and in all these varied positions gained the character of an able, painstaking diplomatist. In 1878 and 1879 he, on three occasions for several months, was Agent and Consul-General in Egypt, and in that capacity convinced his official superiors of his fitness for higher and more independent spheres of action.

Accordingly he was sent to Bulgaria in November, 1879, and filled that difficult position with so much ability the discretion that in 1886 he was made a K. C. M. G., and on Jan. 1, 1887, was appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Bucharest. From that post he was transferred, in July, 1891, to the court of Teheran, succeeding Sir Henry Drummond Wolff there as Minister Plenipotentiary. His success in Persia led to his being promoted to one of the most important posts in the service. He was made Ambassador to St. Petersburg at the close of 1893, in succession to the late Sir Robert Morier. Since Oct. 24, 1895, he has been Ambassador at Berlin. Sir Frank married, in 1867, Mary, daughter of Sir Joseph Francis Olliffe, physician to the British Embassy in Paris, but was left a widower ten years ago.

Sir Gerard Augustus Lowther, K. C. M. G., who was born in 1858, is the younger brother of the Speaker, and a nephew of the third Earl of Londsdale. He joined the Diplomatic Service in 1879, and has filled with ability and distinction various posts, ranging from Paris to Constantinople and from Tokio to Washington, where for some time he was Secretary of Embassy. In 1901 he became Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Chile, but three years later was chosen for the difficult post of British Minister to Morocco, being created C. B. at the same time. He represented this country throughout the tedious and tortuous proceedings of the Conference of Algiers, and for his services in this connection he was in 1907 made a K. C. M. G.
