Corner Concerns.

Mr. Joe Lennox goes to Owen Sound as juror next week. He was also one of the chosen ones last spring.

Mr. James Lawrence has closed the deal with Mr. Wm. Matthews for his cosy home. It is one of the finest farms in Glenelg and is well situated. We hope Jim and his good wife may long enjoy it in good health.

We notice the Varney school has a new ladder hung from it. If we remember right, the insurance policy of our own school requires some such contrivance around it.

Mr. James Eden had the end of one of his toes tramped off with a horse a week ago. Horses are always exasperated by flies this hot weather and to keep a safe distance away is good policy.

Miss Sarah Tucker was amongst the visitors to the Toronto fair, and spent a pleasant visit with friends, as well.

Everybody go to Hanover on the special train on Thursday to hear Leader R. L. Borden.

The County Judge will be in Holstein on Wednesday to make corrections in the Egremont Voters' List and will thus prevent some of us contributing our mite to the success of the Durham show.

Messrs. James and Alex. Allan, Aroh. Baird, and Wm. Pettigrew, have returned to their work of stock selling for a farmers' manufacturing company in Sioux City, Iowa, after spending a few weeks with their families.

Mr. Joe Lennox had to turn over the care of his twin girls to Dr. Jamieson last week, but they are safe in their mother's arms again.

While returning from Durham last week John Wilson lost the nut from one of his wagon wheels, and supposing it would be but a few steps back, left the team standing and started to hunt for it. He found it more than a mile back, and the team, growing weary of waiting, tried to make the wagon go without a runner. They were stopped, however, before much damage was done.

Dominion Organizer Birmingham is to be with the Varney brethren on the evening of October 23rd. The meeting will be a public one. No doubt Mr. Miller, who is becoming an enthusiastic Orangeman, will be there.

Mr. John Sharpe was so unfortunate last Saturday as to have a valuable two-year-old colt break through the covering into the well head first so that death was certain. In our last we reported a similar incident. People should take caution about the safety of such places.

A quilting bee in the house of Mr. James Allan, afforded recreation for the ladies last Thursday. In the evening they were joined by the young men, when they spent the remainder of the evening most enjoyably in dancing.

The Pricieville man says that if the Conservative party would only bring us out as a candidate we would be left at home sure pop. If such a calamity befel us we would certainly say it was caused by the disloyalty of our own brother at Pricieville. It is little wonder he is willing to sacrifice the welfare of his country in supporting Mr. Miller, who is so ready with talk of faithlessness towards one of a family who recently took him in, intending to make a man of him, had he not gone and made a fool of himself.

A week ago to-day, Mrs. Wm. Sirrs was enjoying a visit with her daughter in Mt. Forest. Tuesday, on returning from a search for eggs in her own barn, she was noticed to be not her usual self, and Dr. Hutton was sent for. He pronounced her to be suffering from a very slight paralytic stroke, and before the rising of another sun, a second visitation, much more severe, rendered her condition hopeless, and on Friday evening death ended her race of life and removed her from the scene of her struggles to a better land. Mrs. Sirrs was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, seventy-one years ago, where her girlhood days, up till the age of fifteen were spent. With her parents she came to Canada, and for a year or two lived in Montreal, subsequently coming to Egremont, where they became one of the very first settlers. Forty-six years ago she was wedded to the man of her choice, Mr. Wm. Sirrs, who survives her. The union was blessed with nine children, seven of whom survive to realize the fact that there is none carved in place of her, but not in time for last word: William, at home; Mary, (Mrs. Robt.
