It will certainly be a great feast of clothing bargains, suits, overcoats, shoes, dry goods, hardware and groceries, and the sale will no doubt attract thousands of people to Durham, Ontario. Alex. Russell has only been in business six years; and as the stock is practically new, it will likely be sold the first four days of the sale, as the public are always ready to save themselves one-half on their purchases, whenever that opportunity presents itself, and this certainly is your chance to supply your wants at about one-half actual value of the goods. Merchants from Durham or vicinity, wishing to buy portions of this stock or any part of the fixtures, safes, counters, etc., will please call between the hours of eight and nine a.m., as all other time will be devoted to the immense crowds of people who will wish to buy this stock out at retail by the single articles.
