MRS. JOHN ALLAN.

The following appeared in the Review last week: With startling sud-1 denness the call came to Mrs. John Allan, Con. 20, Egremont. She had not been well for some months, and was staying with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Hastie, near Dromore, where she was tenderly cared for. About a week before her death she went home and was going around, but on Sunday morning almost without warning the end came and dropped into her final sleep. The immediate cause of death was heart weakness.
