Berlin Auctioneer Dead.

Berlin, Ont., November 6th .- The death of Mr. Joseph Mickus, a wellknown Twin City auctioneer, took place last evening under peculiar circumstances. He was found dead in first cousin, in Berlin, last evening. In her evidence before a coroner's jury, she said he came to see her at ten o'clock Thursday morning, and soon after that became ill and remained in a semi-conscious condition until her husband on his return at Mickus had gone up to consult her on a business transaction. A medibral apoplexy brought on by his climb of four flights of stairs, and the jury brought in a verdict that death was due to natural causes.
