It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about this.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Bunessan.

Miss Etiza McCormick left on Monday last to visit friends in Walkerton. Miss Sadie McKeown and Miss Katie McFarlane, now of your town, visited their respective homes over Sunday.

Mr. Colin McIntyre is visiting his son-in-law, Mr. Archie Beaton, at present Miss Leah McComb was the guest of Miss Maud McGillivray a few days last week and took in the social at the church.

Mr. Alex. McQueen, of Boothville, was a caller in this burg on Saturday evening. Better not forget that basket the next time, Alex.

Mr. Jack McArthur, of the Glen, is erecting a building for the purpose of chopping grain this winter.

Mr. Hugh Edwards' little daughter is under the care of Dr. MacLaurin at present with acute inflammation of the kidneys. Hope the little sufferer will soon be in her usual health again.

Mr. Jones and family, of Priceville, moved into this burg last week, having rented Mr. Andy Ford's house. Mr. Jones is a son-in-law of Mr. John Pilkey, the butcher.

The tea meeting held in the Glenelg Centre Baptist church on Friday, the 27th inst, was well attended considering the very dark night. Tea was served about 8 o'clock, and we heard some say that the eatables were much to the credit of the young ladies that baked them. After tea was over, Mr. George Binnie took the chair to dispose of a lengthy program.

As we all know, Mr. Binnie makes a good chairman, and by his good command of the audience the very best of order was kept. Appropriate speeches were made by the Revs. Farquharson, Jamieson and Newton, who is pastor of the church. Also Mr. H. H. Miller, M. P., of Hanover, who Glenelg people were pleased to see, gave a fine address. Mrs. Newton, of Durham, gave two or three solos, showing her ability as a musician, and was greatly applauded by the appreciative audience.

Miss Maud McGillivray gave a recitation which took very well. Also Mr. Andy Watson, of McWilliamsville, gave two recitations which were well received by the audience. The Glenelg Centre choir, under the leadership of Mr. Binnie, furnished excellent music throughout the evening. Door-keeper C. H. Kenney handed to the treasurer $9.00, being the proceeds of the evening. After singing the National Anthem, all went to their respective homes well pleased with the evening's enjoyment. As there were a lot of eatables left over, it was suggested that any who wished could come the following evening and finish them. Quite a number turned out, and a very social evening was spent.

Varney.

Mr. Geo. Hopkins and his sister, May, visited their friends, Wilbert and Eva Blyth, one night recently.

Miss Mamie Redford, of Hanover, is visiting at the present time with her friend, Miss Florence Clark.

Mr. Geo. Burnett and Miss Myrtle McDonald visited the latter's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. Grasby, on Sunday.

A goodly number from here intend going up to the fowl supper at L.O.L. No. 1192, on Wednesday night.

Mr. W. Clark got struck on the knee one day last week while cutting shingles, which took away his appetite for a few meals, but he is able to eat again. We are glad that he came off so well.

Miss Mary Brown and Miss Maud Hamilton, of Egremont, visited with the former's aunt, Mrs. W. Clark, from Friday until Sunday, when Mr. Wilbert Blyth accompanied them home.

J. W. Blyth erected 33 rods of wire fence for Mr. Adam Pettigrew. He also has an order for three wire gates for the same person. Adam was well pleased with the job. Jim always tries to give satisfaction.

Since we last wrote we are sorry to say that Mrs. D. Allen has been very sick, but at time of writing are pleased to say that she is getting better and we hope she may continue to improve until she enjoys the best of health again.

The people of this neighborhood and especially the members of the Varney L. O. L. were very sorry to hear of their friend, Mrs. J. M. Hunter, getting so badly hurt, and we hope that she may soon fully recover from her injuries.

The box social held in the school house last Friday night, speaking from a financial stand point was a grand success. The program, which was mostly from Durham, was excellent, and during the rendering of it the order was fairly good, but during the selling of the boxes it was pretty noisy. Mr. W. Johnston, ar., of Durham, was auctioneer, and this being his first attempt, he found it rather difficult so much so that he does not want to auction off any more boxes, but at any rate he succeeded in pulling over fifty dollars out of them. The proceeds all told amounted to $66.55.

Corner Concerns.

Mrs. James McLaughlan is slowly recovering from her illness contracted while taking care of her mother in early fall.

The local option by-law is a quiet affair. People have seen it's working and will vote according to their own convictions.

Mr. James Barbour returns home from his years' work near Listowel, and will remain till after the holidays.

Rev. Thomas Farr, of Gorrie, conducted sacramental services in St. Paul on Sunday. Mr. Farr has always been on very friendly terms with our people, and the bonds seem to strengthen as time goes on.

Our School Trustees have engaged for 1909 Mr. Fred Ir's of East Gray to have charge of the academy. In fact many of the applicants was of that part, showing conclusively that the "Chronicle" is much read in the Editor's former place of residence.

Mr. E. Johnson concluded not to sell his farm last week to Dr. Jamieson. We hear the doctor has since bought a fine piece of bush from Mr. J. Brown. The general doctor seems bound to have a winter's work in the woods.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman and William Morrison returned from the Western harvest fields. The former tells us that he was lucky in getting a good job before the rush of laborers arrived; that the crops was far better than he likes the place well enough to think of permanently locating there.

Mr. Wm. Dav's concluded the purchase of Mr. John Sharpe's farm on Saturday. While we are very sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe from this neighborhood, they having been worthy citizens much esteemed, we welcome Mr. Dav's, who is also a good head, to our midst. Mr. Sharpe says it pays to advertise in the "Chronicle."

As we have always contended that there is no use doing a thing when it is a day too late, we would urge all our people to go to Miss Irwin's school concert on Thursday evening, December 10th, as announced on first page, instead of the eleventh as we announced last week. The mistake was ours, but the treat will be by the teacher, pupils and other talent, and well worth partaking of.

Quite a number of intending purchasers have gone up to Mr. Geo. Twamley's sale to-day. George did well to put the 1st. of articles in the Chronicle in this very busy week as few are out to see posters, and everybody reads the Chronicle even if it has to be done on Sunday.

Since the death of the late George L'pard some years ago, the heirship of the estate has been a contention, but we presume it must have been settled on Mr. Hugh McLean, of Durham, as he was out last week and removed the barn, and no man in his sober senses would think of carrying away another persons barn in broad day light without being noticed.

Our swamps are crowded with hunters and their dogs these days. They come early and stay late. Their liberties are being curtailed and their grounds reduced. In fact there are more people than some would imagine who have to depend on rabbit soup for an existence, and have notices out against trespassing in their woods by hunters.

Mrs. James Mack, and her winsome little daughter, May, of Westminister, who have been spending the past two and a half months with friends, returned home on Tuesday. The former's mother, Mrs. S. Lawrence, accompanies them to spend a while with other five of her children in B.C.

Yes Mr. Editor dandelions are again in bloom, crisp and fresh looking. Elderberry bushes and other shrubs show signs of budding out for a second time; and what is more the bustle of farmers at the plow from the first break of day till dark, would look as though they were going to start seeding again.

Flesherton.

The annual band meeting was held in the town hall on Friday evening last, at which there was a good attendance and much interest manifested in the local organization, which had a successful year. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mark Wilson; Vice President, T. A. Blakely; Manager, John Runstadler; Secretary, C. H. Munshaw; Bandmaster, Fred Tucker; Auditors, W. H. Thurston, W. J. Bellamy.

Mr. Bert Green's moving picture show, which is reported very fine, will exhibit under the auspices of the band in the town hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Mr. James McMullen, J. P., had occasion to again occupy the bench on Saturday last to deal with another violation of the county by-law with respect to peddling without a license. In this instance Charles James was the offender and was fined $12 with costs $2.25.

Mr. John Brown, of this place, received the sad news on Saturday of the death at Palmerston of his brother-in-law, Mr. Andrew Caswell, who has frequently visited Mr. Brown and family. Mr. Caswell was one of the very highly respected pioneers of Minto township, but retired from the farm about six years ago to reside in Palmerston. Mr. Caswell was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church, and served in the office of elder forty years. He assisted in building the first Presbyterian church—a log building—in Palmerston nearly fifty years ago.

Word was received last week by Mrs. (Dr.) Carter of severe injuries sustained by her mother, Mrs. Pye, Sr., who had fallen down stairs at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Fulton, Woodstock, whither she had recently gone on a visit. Mrs. Pye's friends here are sorry to learn of her misfortune, but hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. J. Boyd gave a thimble party to about thirty of her lady friends on Saturday afternoon last. A very enjoyable time was reported.

Mr. Wilson McMullen, west back line, moved last week into his new residence, which has taken the place of the old one destroyed by fire in March last. The building, which is of red brick laid in dark mortar, presents a fine appearance. It is finished throughout in good style and the heating is by furnace.

Mr. Sangster Hemphill, of Ceylon, has also erected a handsome new residence, into which he is moving his family this week. The building, which is of cement grout, is modern in style, and the workmanship throughout, much of which was done by Mr. Hemphill himself, is of the best. The new structure is an ornament to our sister village.

Mr. Andy Wilson has invested in a neat driving outfit.

At the close of the service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. G. C. Little, Frank Chard and Mr. Andrew Gilchrist were appointed delegates to the Laymen's Missionary Convention to be held at Orangeville on December 15th.

Mr. Norman E. Raham, a beautiful cornet player, who, for the present, is assisting Mr. Sproule with an agency here, assisted the Methodist choir with his instrument on Sunday evening. Mr. Raham will play at the band entertainments next week.

The Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday Schools are now preparing for their anniversary entertainments on Christmas and New Year's evenings respectively. The Baptist School is also preparing for date not yet fixed.

The Flesherton Advance has promised its readers a pleasing surprise this week. This, we believe, will be the paper in enlarged form and chucked full of interesting news.

Rev. Dr. Caldwell and Rev. J. W. Tibble, of Corbetton, are to exchange pulpits next Sunday.

Mr. Joseph Cornfield has been at Milton the past two weeks with his brother Robert, who is at the point of death.

Messrs. Victor and Noble Riley, of Alliston, were visitors the past week with their aunt, Mrs. W. J. Caswell, and other relatives.

Mr. Charles Wickens arrived here on Saturday from Winnipeg and was a visitor at Mr. John Thistlewaite's. Mr. Wickens has been in the West since August.

Mr. Leslie Norris is, this week going into business for himself, opening a new barber shop at Ceylon.

Mr. Ed. Richardson, of Iron River, Wisconsin, is on an extended holiday visiting his mother, Mrs. Henry Richardson, here.

Mrs. W. E. Southgate, of Seaforth, is visiting her brother, Mr. George Mitchell.

Miss McAuley, nurse, is home from Toronto visiting her parents.

Miss Katie LeGard is home from Toronto visiting her parents.

Mrs. (Dr.) Murray returned on Saturday from Toronto for a few weeks which has somewhat benefited her.

Mrs. M. K. Richardson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. B. Lucas, at Markdale.

Miss Maggie Spell, of Holstein, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Snull.

Mr. and Mrs. Bingham, of Shelburne, visited over Sunday with Mr. A. Munshaw and family.

Mrs. Linton, Sr., who lives with her son on the 10th con., had the misfortune to fall down stairs one day last week, and sustained severe injuries, though fortunately no bones were broken.

While coming to the village on Friday last, a horse driven by Mr. Geo. Cairns, of Ceylon, took the liberty of a skip, overturned the cart and landed the driver on the roadside. The horse reached town with the cart intact, and George escaped with an abrasion over the eye.

A number of neighbors and friends were entertained at a fowl supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood on Monday evening, when an enjoyable time was spent.

Hutton Hill.

WE ARE THE PEOPLE

Was there ever a people with a brighter outlook than we of Canada? Have to-day? Was there ever a people who faced greater opportunities for good than we do at this time? We laugh at the school who shout and cheer themselves hoarse after a school game, and claim, "We are the people," but in a time when "we are the people" is very truth. "We are the people" who banded together in one Dominion, must make it and keep a God fearing nation. "We are the people" who make the laws, must make just and righteous laws. "We are the people" must welcome the throngs now coming in our Dominion from all parts of the earth. "We are the people" who must educate not only our children, but all those who come us from countries where they had no strength for anything but the struggle for the necessities of life. "We are the people" who must enforce the influence of the Lord's Day in spite of the influence of those thousands who come to us from other countries where they never have realized prosperity and wealth which is from honoring God's command to keep His day holy. "We are the people" who must banish from land the use of alcohol; we are clear sighted enough to see that it brings and the sorry degradation it leaves to the children whose fathers have striven for it. "We are the people" who must clear the great stream of liberal which has such a tremendous influence in this day; we, who can do it by refusing to subscribe to buy any paper or book which is clean and worthy of support. "We are the people" who, having all and much more to do, yet know many blessings of prosperity, strength, of good laws and increasing wisdom, of peace and unity as ourselves and the guardians of our mother, England, that we will give thanks to God and gloryward with much joy and a consciousness of our power and to all by His help.

GOD BLESS OUR BROAD DOMINION

God bless our broad Dominion, bonny northern land; Our thousand forests waving, our lakes and torrents gleaming, From where the misty surges of the Atlantic roar, To where the brighter Pacific along our Western shore; O bless our broad Dominion, make Thy truth to stand, So shall Canadians freemen be true in heart and hand. God bless our broad Dominion, rugged Northern land; From polar icebergs to Southern frontiers' band; God bless all tribes and peoples in our vast domain, And make them all as brothers and not for greed or gain. O bless our broad Dominion, make Thy truths to stand, So shall Canadians freemen be true in heart and hand. God bless our broad Dominion, homes, our flag, our king; Spread happiness and plenty, as at our maples green; In peace or war our Guard as Thou our Father still. And what our wisdom sees shall be our Father's will; O bless our broad Dominion, make Thy truth to stand; So shall Canadians freemen be true in heart and hand. —K. S. KNIBB

M. J. Lawrence has taken up for farming purposes.

Beware of Frequent Colds

A succession of colds or a prevalent cold is almost certain to result in chronic catarrh. From which persons ever wholly recover. Every cold the attention it demands. How can you cure? Why not try Chamberlain's Remedy? It is highly recommended by Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn. "Several years ago I was with my throat and lungs. I told me of Chamberlain's Remedy. I began using it at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound, and I am well." Beware of Frequent Colds
