Facts as we find them

On account of the amount of friendly opinions expressed by the people, "the consumers," about our recent sale, and the unfriendly opinions expressed by others, we wish to place the matter before the people plainly so that everybody may understand the true position of affairs. Our aim was to give the people, "the consumers," good goods at low prices, and the result was that during the sale we sold goods to people living in four provinces, Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia. The closing night of the sale was so successful that even the large City Departmental Stores could not touch it. We accomplished all we undertook, but we still want to do more, and we are still selling at the sale prices.

Furs Furs

Now that the weather is getting cooler, we are offering an excellent stock of Furs at less than wholesale prices.

REGENT SUITS

OBITUARY.

MRS. SAMUEL WHITMORE.
On Wednesday, Nov. 25th, Mrs. Samuel Whitmore died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Davis, in Glenelg. The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Jane Dimond, was born in the Co. Leitrim, Ireland, in the year 1837. In 1840, at the age of three years, she came to Canada with her parents, one brother and one sister, and settled in the County of Halton, where they remained until the year 1850, when she moved to the vicinity of this town, at the age of thirteen years, having received a common school education in the village of Acton or where the village now stands.

In 1856 she was married to the late Samuel Whitmore, and settled on his farm Lot 8, Con. 22, in the township of Egremont, and remained there till 1886, when Mr. Whitmore sold the farm and moved to the township of Glenelg, where they lived on Lambton street till the death of Mr. Whitmore in 1893. Subsequent to her husband's death, the deceased lived in Durham and with her daughters in the vicinity. After disposing of her property in town two or three years ago, she spent a year or two with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Watson, and later with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Davis, where she died, as above stated, on the 25th of November.

Like all pioneers, she was a hard-working, industrious woman, a kind and affectionate wife and mother, and a very much esteemed neighbor in the communities where she dwelt. She was a devoted member of the English church, and her remains were laid away Friday afternoon in Trinity Church cemetery, the Rev. Mr. Farquharson officiating at the services in the absence of Rev. Mr. Bice, who is absent on account of his severe illness.

MODEL SCHOOLS.

The bare mention was made last week that Dr. Merchant, Chief Inspector of Schools, had paid the town a visit. It is a well-known fact that the Provincial Government decided to do away with Model Schools, and increase the number of Normal Schools. It was subsequently thought advisable to retain a few Model Schools, and to "spy out the land" was the object of Dr. Merchant's visit.

Every town and hamlet will be wanting one of the Model Schools and Dr. Merchant will find a host of advisers in making the best selections. The Chronicle has no idea that Dr. Merchant will be influenced by opinions, he isn't a man of that kind, and his recommendations whatever they may be will be based upon his own judgment of the requirements of the Province. If he thinks Durham is a good place and better than Hanover, Flesherton, Markdale, Walkerton, Waton or Owen Sound, then he will recommend Durham as the site for one of the Model Schools.

There are many things to be taken into consideration in selecting the most suitable sites. They should be located with a view to their geographical position in the centre of a large area, their accessibility by rail and other transportation facilities, the present or immediate future equipment of buildings and grounds, the accommodation, board, etc. These considerations, we believe, will be fully weighed by Dr. Merchant, and these and other things will form a basis for his recommendation to the Government.

We would like very much to see Durham one of the Model School centres, especially under the new conditions, but we do not imagine that any views of a Durham citizen or a Durham paper will influence Dr. Merchant in making his recommendation.

An observer once wondered why it was that Providence had always arranged it so as to have large cities at the mouths of large rivers. He might with equal propriety wonder why Providence so arranged it that Model Schools would be located in the centre of large educational areas.

SONS OF SCOTLAND.

The Sons of Scotland celebrated St. Andrew's night on Monday last, when officers were elected and a good program was disposed of. Dr. Jamieson occupied the chair and discharged his duties well.

Short addresses were made by Messrs. George Binnie, Wm. Calder, Chas. Ramage, Dr. MacLaurin, H. H. Miller, M. P., and Robt. Macfarlane. Interspersed with the addresses was a song by Mr. J. P. Telford and a gaelic song by Mr. Colin McFadden.

A bountiful supply of oysters was disposed of, for the excellence of which Mr. Geo. Stinson, as caterer, is receiving much praise. The meeting was in their own hall.

The following are the officers:—
Wm. Black Chief
Dr. Hutton Past Chief
J. H. Hunter Chaplain
R. Torry Recording Sec'y.
C. Ramage Fin. Sec. and Treas.
James Baird Standard Bearer
Geo. McKay Senior Guard
J. E. Hunter Junior Guard

"I don't see why Mr. Stubbs wasn't willing to lend Willie Porter the $200 he needed to get that business opportunity in Nashway," said Mrs. Compton to her husband on her return from the sewing circle. "Everybody was talking about it this afternoon, and Mrs. Porter feels real hard to Mr. Stubbs."

"Folks have lent money to Willie Porter before this and never seen the color of their money again," said Mr. Compton, "and Mr. Stubbs made his money by hard work and saving. He'd hate to lose a mite of it."

"He wouldn't lose a mite of it," said Mrs. Compton indignantly. "Willie's been unfortunate, but so have some others now and again. Do you recollect your fancy squash investment? Well, anyway, this time Willie had excellent security to offer, and he was willing to pay back 2 per cent at the end too."

"What security?" asked Mr. Compton, not deigning to refer to the rate of interest offered.

"He offered Mr. Stubbs two dozen silver teaspoons and a ladle," said Mrs. Compton impressively, "besides a feather boa and a seal plush coat and a sewing machine that runs the easiest of any in this town. I don't know what he could have wanted more than that, I'm sure."

Death or Insanity

Nervous. Sleepless. Worn Out.

EXPECTED TO DIE OR GO CRAZY WITH NERVOUSNESS.

"I could not sleep—I could not rest—yet I was plump and fat. Can you imagine a more distressing condition than weakness of body and mind?" writes Mrs. Wensley, of Halifax, "I lost myself in a sort of self pity because health seemed so shattered, and with the seemed distress that grew with my bodily weakness, I was a burden to myself and a greater burden to my family. "Though I sought and really needed pity, I got very little, for I did not look as very sick, and anyone who has sick nerves knows too well how awful a sickness it is."

"From the first Ferreroze attempted my nerves, and it seemed to me more composed, slept more and grew more hopeful. When I had taken Ferreroze for about two months I lost that miserable sense of dread, I never could tell what I was afraid of, but expected something was going to happen me; Ferreroze gave me strength to throw aside all those fancies and made me well again."

Go at once to any druggist, get a few boxes of Ferreroze—start right on the road to health and vigor. Ferreroze will keep you there—will show you what it means to be healthy, vigorous, full of nerve energy. Once you're braced and energized with Ferreroze you'll never again be content with ill-health.

All dealers sell Ferreroze, 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50.

Life Should Last 150 Years.

Paris, Nov. 24.—Prof. Metchnikoff, the Russian sub-director of the Pasteur Institute, who will receive half the Noble Prize this year for medico-physiological research, said to-day that he will devote the sum to further study of means to promote longevity. Said the professor: "I shall spend the sum of 95,000 francs ($19,000) in continuing my efforts to discover how the body can get its chance, so to speak, and how it can be prevented from being needlessly sacrificed in early youth, comparatively, that is at 70 or 80 years, when it ought to hold out until it is 150."

For That Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating. —David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills, but cost no more. Get a free sample at Macfarlane & Co's. drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

CANADA'S POOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Story more Touching than anything from the Pen of the gifted Ian MacLaren.

In the current issue of the DOOR OF HOPE, published by the National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, a page is given over to letters received from the many persons from all parts of the Dominion seeking admission to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

Seldom have we read anything more pathetic. Here, for example, is a letter from a physician in Cremona, Ontario, asking for the admission of a patient by the name of Morrison. He says:—"I would like to urge strongly upon you the great claims of this patient. He has no home—mother dead—father working as a farm laborer. The boy has been living with an unmarried uncle—a housekeeper—work, cooking, etc., being done by the uncle. The boy has absolutely no place to go where he might be given any reasonable care, and he can get none where he is."

Another case is from Thorold. Johnston Weldon writes:—"I am a young married man, twenty-three years of age. For several years I have been sick, but always able to keep my feet. Now I have come to the time when I cannot work, and cannot get medicine without means. My lungs are affected, and I am writing now to see if you can get me into the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. My young wife is here, and her parents have kindly opened their doors to her if I go away."

Just one more of the many we might quote. This is from a physician in Campbellford, Ont. He writes:—"I have a patient suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis, who has been laid off work for about three months now—was in bed part of that time, but latterly both his pulse and temperature have kept down and his weight going up. He is the only support of the family—mother, crippled father, and younger brother, but his neighbors are trying to raise a small amount of money to help him."

We have sometimes thought that if Ian MacLaren, who has given to us the character of Dr. McClure, were alive to-day that in letters such as these he would find material for a book more touching and pathetic in many parts than his Bonnie Briar Bush.

It is on behalf of cases like these, of which there are scores reaching the Secretary of the Sanatorium every week, that the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives makes its appeal to-day for funds.

This institution has not at any time, since its doors were first opened in April, 1902, refused a single patient because of the applicant being unable to pay.

Contributions may be sent to Mr. W. J. Gage, 84 Spadina Ave., Chairman of the Executive Committee, or to J. S. Robertson, Secretary-Treasurer of the National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, Ontario.
