7-8. EDWARD VII. CHAP. 73

An Act to Restrain the Use of Tobacco by Young People.

Assented to 29th July, 1908 His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows.

1. Every one is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction in the case of a first offence to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars, and in the case of a second offence to a penalty not exceeding 25 dollars, and in the case of a third or subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, who, directly or indirectly, sells or gives or furnishes to a person under the age of sixteen years any cigarettes or cigarette papers, whether for his own use or not, or sells or gives or furnishes to such a person tobacco, he knows or has reason to believe is for the use of that person.

2. It shall be the duty of any constable or person having the powers of a constable, or person authorized so to do by any by-law in that behalf made by any authority or person having power to make such by-law, to seize any cigarettes, cigarette papers or tobacco in any form other than cigarettes in the possession of any person apparently under the age of sixteen years whom he finds smoking or chewing or about to smoke or chew tobacco in any street or public place.

3. Every one is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction in the case of a first offence to be reprimanded, in the case of a second offence to a penalty not exceeding one dollar, and in the case of a third offence to a penalty not exceeding four dollars, who, being under the age of sixteen years, who smokes or chews tobacco in a street or public place, or purchases or has in possession, whether for his own use or not, any cigarettes or cigarette papers, or purchases or has in his possession for his own use tobacco in any form other than cigarettes.

4. It shall be the duty of the justice to examine upon oath or affirmation all persons brought before him who are found guilty of violation of this section, as to where or from whom such persons purchased or obtained the cigarettes or cigarette paper or tobacco found in the possession of any such person; and the refusal to give such information to the satisfaction of the justice shall be deemed a contempt of the court.

5. The provisions of this Act, other than those which make it an offence for a person under the age of sixteen years to smoke or use cigarette papers, or tobacco in any form, shall not apply to any case where the minor is employed for the purpose of his business, by a dealer in tobacco, either wholesale or retail.

6. For the purpose of this Act the word "cigarette" includes any small cigar made of tobacco rolled up in paper, tobacco leaf or any other material.

7. For the purpose of this act any person who appears to the justice dealing with an information or complaint hereunder to be under the age of sixteen years shall be presumed to be under that age unless it is shown by evidence that he is in fact over that age, and the provisions of section 94 of the Criminal Code shall apply to offences under this section.

The Bold Critic.

Princess Lwoff Parley, the Hungarian painter was asked in Philadelphia to address a women's club on portrait painting—a subject that would have had much interest, for the artist has done portraits of the Kaiser, the Czar and other celebrities.

But she declined to deliver the address. "I cannot speak impromptu," she said, "and what is more wearisome than a speech read from notes?"

"A friend of mine once spoke before a class of school children on literature. She had spent a week writing the speech. She read it to the little ones, as she hoped with great success.

"But the next day she heard that a boy, on being asked by his mother what had happened at the school, replied carelessly— "Oh, nothing much, except a lady talked to the girls on a piece of paper."

CHRISTMAS IN JANUARY.

Has Not Always Been Celebrated in December. Nobody knows the real date of Christmas Day. If there ever was a written record of the actual date of the Nativity, it has perished beyond hope of recovery.

During the earliest times the favorite date for Christmas was in January. It was held in England in that month at the time of the coming of the Anglo-Saxon conquerors.

The reasons which led the early Christians to fix on December 25th as Christmas Day were various, but one of them at least, appears to have been curious. For a long time after the beginning of Christianity the world was divided into two hostile camps of believers and pagans.

Plenaure and topsy-turvydom reigned during the Saturnalia. Scenes of wild gaiety were to be witnessed on every hand and law and authority ceased to exist for twenty-four hours.

Heir to Millions.

While Mrs. Horn, of Byram road, Margate, England, was dusting an old picture, she was surprised to see a document fall from the floor. When she examined it she discovered that it was the will, dated May 25th, 1795, of Jacob Graby, by which the testator's property, which is now estimated to be worth more than £1,000,000, was left to the members of his family.

ANALYTICAL CHEMIST TELLS OF PATENT MEDICINES

A graduate in organic chemistry, who has made a study of many of the best-known patent medicines on the market, states that many have virtue, but as a rule people have to pay for a lot of unnecessary expense. The following is the recipe of a well-known secret preparation, and is known by authority to be one of the best stomach and liver tonics. It is prescribed by many of the best physicians.

This mixture cures constipation and biliousness. The recipe:— Fluid Extract Cascara..... ½ oz. Syrup Rhubarb..... 1 oz. Carriana Compound..... 1 oz. Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla 5 oz. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. An eminent authority, who has made a careful and scientific study of the relative values of drugs having a specific action on the kidneys, bladder, and liver, pronounces this an excellent combination. You can buy the ingredients separately and mix at home. Cut this formula out and save it.

Rival Detectives.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle once had an amusing experience with a cabman in Paris. The author had just arrived at the French capital, and to his great surprise, the cabman who drove him from the station to a hotel addressed him by name. Sir Arthur asked the man how he knew who he was. "Oh," replied the cabman, "I read in the newspapers that the famous Conan Doyle would come to Paris from Marseilles and Lyons, and directly I saw you I observed that your hair had been cut by a Marseilles barber, and that on the heel of your left shoe there is mud from Lyons. Sir Arthur was highly flattered and gratified to think that an ordinary cabman was so intimate with his famous detective stories that he could apply the facts of their central character to the methods of everyday life. "Are those the only signs by which you recognized who I am?" asked Sir Arthur. "Oh no," replied the cabman, "I recognized you by the mud on your shoes and the cut of your hair."
