Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers and few of these who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says,—"I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all drug stores.

Corner Concerns.

We wish the Chronicle and its numerous friends a happy New Year.

A very pleasant event will occur in the home of Mrs. E. Dennett this Wednesday, being the marriage of her daughter, Ethel, to Mr. Donald Watson.

John Barbour is unwell, and receiving medical attendance from Dr. Gun.

Wm. Allan and family spent Xmas with his daughter, Mrs. R. Atkinson, of Fairbairn.

Rev. Smith preached a Christmas sermon in St. Paul's church Sunday.

Rev. Little accompanied by Messrs. D. Allan and D. Cameron, of Holstein held forth in the school house on local option on Tuesday night.

The township nominations on Monday were well attended. Reeve Hastie was elected by acclamation.

We have almost broken the heart of the Holstein Leader correspondent by our allusions to a sermon in the school house. He speaks of being grieved beyond measure by the un- limited presumption of a fake professor, daring to allude to the utterances of such a good christian gentleman as the speaker is known to be and which we have always said he was. We two correspondents seem to be like the story of the two bad eggs—both bad; he in his small way and we in ours. We as a fake professor and he as the greatest specimen of the unjust person that has yet been known since the world began. If he would just lay our utterances about said speaker side by side with his own, possibly the last time we heard his opinion in the matter, he must at once conclude that he is as extreme in his condemnation of us as he was in his actions of jumping to find the throat of the one who took those fourteen second hand tea cups from this school section. Almost immediately after the fourteen dollar episode, both cases being as alike in all their bearings as the number of stars in the sky, but it is discouraging to us fine young men who puff ourselves up that we are such big broad gauged christians that the ordinary people of the world have to look up to us and have some fellow come along and throw on the measuring pole and show us what scrubby wee men we are.

[Address and presentation to the teacher, Miss Aljoe, will appear next week.—Ed.]

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says,—"Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well. For sale by all drug stores.

To the Electors of the Township of Glenelg.
