DURHAM WINS AT HOME

The first Northern League hockey match for the championship of No. 2 district, to be played on local ice was pulled off on Thursday night last, when the Durham and Paisley teams crossed sticks for the first time in their hockey career.

Though this was their first season in organized hockey, the visiting team were reputedly apt stick handlers and clever pucksters, and as a consequence, over fifty dollars' worth of interested spectators lined the boards to witness the struggle.

For size, the Paisleyites had it all over the local septette, and during their practice before play commenced, showed considerable speed, which, with their advantage in weight, opened had for the locals.

Play was started sharp on time, and the puck was away with a rush. Saunders scored first for the locals in one minute, and Lavelle followed suit seven minutes later, Saunders landing the third score in fifteen minutes of play. It took Lavelle nine minutes more to bring her one on the score board, and Falkingham dropped in another one one minute before time was up. Half time ended 3 to 0 in favor of Durham.

The second half opened much the same as the first, and Lavelle and Smith netted one each in fourteen minutes. At this juncture, something went wrong with the Durham machinery, and Paisley scored their first goal in seventeen minutes of play, and their last in twenty-one minutes. In the twenty-third, Saunders talked again for the locals, and thirty seconds later Lavelle shot in Durham's last goal, making the full time score Durham 9, Paisley 2.

RYMENEAL

MARSHALL-PETTIGREW.

A very pretty wedding took place at Varney Methodist church on Wednesday, December 29th, when Miss Bertha Maud Pettigrew and Mr. Thos. G. Marshall were united in marriage. Precisely at 3 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Ethel Pettigrew, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, Miss Mabel Pettigrew and Mr. James Gadd, cousin of the groom, assisted them through the trying ordeal, while little Alma Pettigrew acted as ring bearer. Rev. Mr. King, of Holstein, tied the nuptial knot, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Wright, of Durham. The church was beautifully decorated. The ushers were Messrs. Wilbert Blyth and Cameron Lauder.

After the ceremony, the guests, numbering twenty-five, repaired to the home of the bride's parents near Varney, where a sumptuous tea awaited them. The bride's cake, a four storey, was beautifully decorated, the handiwork of Mrs. W. Clark, Varney. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents, among them a present from the groom of a muskrat fur coat. The groom's present to the bridemaid was a gold locket and chain, and to the bridesmaid a pearl stickpin, as well as a pearl necklace to the ring bearer. The happy couple will take up housekeeping at Nokomis, Sask.

The bride, who was given away by her father, in the presence of about twenty-five invited guests, immediately relatives of the family, looked quite charming in a dress of white figured tulle, trimmed with cream silk and all-over lace. She wore a wreath of white carnations in her hair, and carried in her hand a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Emma, a sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid, and looked extremely handsome in a dress of white organdie, trimmed with white Valenciennes lace. Mr. McDonald, Gillies, of Priceville, supported the groom.

After the ceremony and congratulations, the bridal party and other friends partook of a very sumptuous repast, quite in keeping with the occasion.

The presents were costly and numerous, showing the high esteem in which the bride was held. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon will take up their residence on the old home on the South Line, Glenelg.

COUTTS-ATKINSON.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, December 29, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Atkinson, Brook Valley, Glenelg, when their daughter, Bessie Mabel was united in the holy bonds of matrimony, to the man of her choice, Mr. Benjamin Coutts, of Bentinck. At one o'clock the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Marion Coutts, sister of the groom.

The nuptial knot was well and truly tied by Rev. Dr. Farquharson, who, in a beautiful and charming in a blue silk princess gown, trimmed with white lace yoke and soutache braid. She carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden-hair ferns. Little Margaret Atkinson, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. After congratulations, the company repaired to the cosy dining room, where a sumptuous dinner awaited them. After doing ample justice to the good things provided, followed by a neat speech by Dr. Farquharson, the happy couple took the afternoon train for a short trip to Toronto and other points, followed by the best wishes of their many friends and relations.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl sunburst. The many other costly and useful presents showed the high esteem in which the young couple are held. They will be at home to their friends after January 6th, 1910, at their home, "Good View Farm," Bentinck.

When buttons are removed from a dress for future use, they should be loosely strung on a thread before being put in the button box. This is a time saver, and keeps the buttons from getting lost or separated.

INJURED FOOT CURED. "I speak for Zam-Buk because it cured me of a terribly bad foot," says Mrs. Alice Berryman of 190 John St. North, Hamilton. She adds: "The injury was caused by a wagon wheel, and the sore was on my right foot. It became very inflamed and swollen and so painful that I faintly away. In spite of treatment, the wound got no better and the foot became more and more swollen until it was several times its usual size. The flesh was terribly bruised and blackened and it was quite impossible for me to walk. My husband's mother at last brought me a box of Zam-Buk. This was applied to the foot and it was surprising how soon I found relief from the severe pain. A further relief from the swelling had gone down considerably, the discoloration was less distinct and the pain was banished. In four days I could go about as usual: the bruised and injured foot had been thoroughly cured by the timely use of Zam-Buk."

Did you ever ask yourself: "How is it that Zam-Buk is so popular?" It is because it is superior and different to other salves. Contrast them! Most salves are nine-tenths animal oil or fat. Zam-Buk hasn't a trace of animal fat in it. Most salves contain mineral coloring matter. Zam-Buk is absolutely without! Many salves contain poisonous astringents. Zam-Buk doesn't.

Zam-Buk is actually more powerfully antiseptic than crude carbolic acid. Yet it stops instead of causing pain an smarting when put on a wound.

It heals more quickly than any known substance, abscesses, ulcers, eczema, bed-sores, cuts, scalp sores, chaps and all skin injuries and diseases. All druggists and stores sell at 50c a box or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Send 1c stamp for trial box.

POISONED FINGER HEALED. Mrs. Frank St. Denis of 305 Thompson St., Winnipeg, speaks for Zam-Buk because it cured her of a poisoned finger, which had caused her days of agony. Hear her experience. She says: "One morning, while washing, I felt a slight pain in the end of my finger. This gradually got more acute until by the evening of the next day the end of the finger had become swollen and hard and so blue I became alarmed. "The pain from it was almost too much to bear. It made me turn quite sick! Poultices of first one kind and then another were applied, but seemed to give me no relief. My daughter-in-law, who had had some previous experience with Zam-Buk obtained a box for me. I anointed the sore place liberally with this balm, and in a few hours, the throbbing aching pains were subdued. "Further applications of Zam-Buk gave me more ease, so that I could get a little sleep. In a few days the nail came off, but inflammation quickly subsided and I continued its use until in the end it had brought about a complete cure."

Flesherton. The Methodist Sabbath School anniversary on New Year's evening was as usual a good entertainment and a financial success. Instead of the usual fee charged a free will offering was received which amounted to $60.00. After an excellent tea served in the school room all adjourned to the auditorium which was well filled. The pastor Rev. H. E. Wellwood, took charge of the programme which consisted of choruses by the school, recitations, solos, etc., in which many of the little folk took their parts exceedingly well and were very entertaining. A doll exercise, a song-writers' exercise and a flag drill were pretty numbers. Rev. J. V. Loughheed gave a short pleasing address. An unexpected and interesting part of the programme was a presentation from the school to the Supr. Mr. W. H. Bunt, who was presented with an address and beautiful mantle clock as a token of appreciation of his faithful services. Mr. Bunt was genuinely surprised but with his usual composure made a neat and fitting reply. The annual report presented by the veteran Secy. Mr. Wm. Clayton showed that the school was in a prosperous condition.

Card of Thanks To the Electors of the Township of Glenelg.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I beg to tender you my sincere thanks for the very liberal support you gave me on Monday last to secure my re-election to the Reeveship for 1910. I promise to use my best judgment for the benefit of the township, and hope you will have reason to feel at the end of the year that your confidence has not been misplaced.

Again thanking you, and wishing you the compliments of the season, I am your obedient servant, E. W. HUNT

GAME ANIMALS OF MEXICO They include Nearly Every Found in North America. It may be said that every one of game animal found on the American continent any of the fiftieth parallel north, moose, caribou and elk, Mexico. The silver tip all through the high Sierras, wherever there are mountains, and wherever grizzlies one may expect to find the huge cinnamon bear, the close neighbor. The common bear is not so numerous, black bear is quite plentiful white faced bear is more rare it is sometimes found in the mountains. I could not learn this species had ever been seen in the Sierra Madre.

The higher mountains at all elevations and over the lower foothills abound with white tail deer. On the Pacific side they are numerous almost to the coast. I saw them just outside the city of Culiacan. They are very plentiful in Tepic territory, and I can vouch from personal experience for the quality of their venison. At many mountain cabins where I stopped they were household pets, where raised by children. The mule, burro or blacktail inhabit portions of the states of Chihuahua, Coahuila and Sonora. The mountain lion lurks in all the high country, and along with him is sometimes found, but seldom killed, the American panther. All the American great cats, in fact, inhabit both the Pacific and gulf coasts and the foothills. The small American leopard is very numerous all along the hot country coasts, and the Mexican jaguar, known locally by foreigners as the tiger, preys upon cattle and ranch animals to such a degree as to be very much of a nuisance. There are some timber wolves, but they are not dangerous. The one animal that is really dangerous in the javalin, or Mexican wild boar. It runs in large bands and will kill both man and horse. If a javalin is wounded the whole band will turn upon the hunter, and woe to him if he has not provided for escape or safety. The javalin is very numerous in some sections, but if not molested it is not likely to attack.—Dillon Wallace in Outing Magazine.
