

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

We have reason to be grateful to our correspondents who contribute their budgets of news so faithfully, week after week.

In order, however that we may cultivate even a slight acquaintanceship between the correspondent and the reader, we intend to give photo engravings of all as soon as we can get the photos and have the engravings made.

This week, we start the series, beginning with Mr. James Mack, who contributes under the heading "Corner Concerns."

For long service, Mr. Mack is the oldest correspondent on the list, and we must say, he is a very valuable and faithful contributor.

MR. JAMES MACK.

Mr. Edwards, of Traverston, is next in order, but it is not at all likely that we'll be able to give his picture next week.

DURHAM 9, HANOVER 2.

Such, in short, was the beating handed out by the locals on the rink here on Wednesday evening of last week to their Hanover brethren.

And then, too, the Hanoverians, as is generally the case with them, seemed to be affected with stage fright.

The loose playing of the Hanoverian seemed to be contagious, and the locals contracted the malady after the first fifteen minutes.

The second half saw the visitors get the first tally in six minutes, which was their only counter for this half.

But this is not the kind of hockey that will be witnessed this Friday evening, January 21st, when the Durham septette goes to Hanover to play the return match with that team.

Those who witnessed the Chesley-Hanover game in Hanover on New Year's night know what a hard fought contest it was.

The Mt. Forest juniors took the measure of the local junior team on Friday night, and went home victors by four goals to two.

The game for the first half was a scoreless one for the first twenty minutes, when the visitors counted, and duplicated three minutes later.

In the second half, the Durham's gingered up, and with some pretty combination work, V. Elvidge and A. Hutton scored in 8 minutes, and by good team work held Mt. Forest down and prevented them from scoring for fifteen minutes.

The game, especially the last half, was good, and is a conclusive proof that combination hockey is the only kind it pays to follow.

Though beaten, the juniors were not disgraced. Considering that the visiting team, averages being taken, is older, heavier and more experienced, they are to be commended that they did as well as the score indicates.

Geo. Langdon, of Mt. Forest, referred to the satisfaction of both teams.

A Card of Appreciation--1910

Our business for 1909 so far exceeded in volume of business any former year in our history that we cannot but believe that our "PUTTING OUR CUSTOMERS AHEAD OF OURSELVES" Policy, has been the means to the end, but even with that square deal policy we have an appreciative host of customers to heartily thank for our great increase in business for 1909.

You will find that a safe policy to trade under whenever you require anything from the DRUG STORE and only under that policy is your patronage solicited for 1910.

IF YOU GET IT AT GUN'S IT'S GOOD

STOCK FOOD

There never was a time that all kinds of animals on the farm were as valuable as they are at present. Flesh makes more money for the owner than appearance. It is an easy matter to produce flesh. There is nothing that I know of at the present time that will produce flesh quicker and for less money than INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD.

I bought a mare from Mr. Neilson, of Proton Station, for $132, and after feeding her on International Stock Food for a short time, disposed of her for nearly double the money.

I purchased a gelding from Capt. Snider, of Normanby, and after feeding him on International Stock Food for a short time, disposed of him for $100 more than first cost.

I purchased one from Dr. Gun that some people thought was worn out, and after feeding him on International Stock Food for a short time, sold him at a good advance.

I purchased one from Tim Grashy for $150 and after feeding him on International Stock Food, sold at a handsome profit.

Get in line. Use INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD for every animal on the farm and you will receive good results.
