Killed by a Log

While assisting her son to load sawlogs on a sleigh at their home in Carrick, Mrs. Carolina Evers was killed by one of the logs rolling over her. The log in some manner, having slipped, rolled back on the old woman, pinning her to the ground. Her son, by a desperate effort, succeeded in rolling off the log, when it again rolled back, breaking several bones in her body.—Ayton Advance.

Varney.

Winnie Lauder has been helping Mrs. David Marshall with her housework for the past few weeks.

Mrs. David McOrrie while returning home from her daughter's Mrs. George Marshall last week, got upset out of the cutter and received a very severe injury from which she is suffering severely.

The roads are in very bad shape now and upsets are a common thing. While Mr. and Mrs. A. McClinton and Maggie McNeice were going to Durham last Thursday they toppled over and the horse got away and ran from Wm. Mountain's gate to Jas. Burt's where it was caught. Nobody was hurt and but little damage done to horse and rig. And again while the load of Hockey boys were going up to your town they turned the whole load over and the sleigh on top of them. Holstein.

A very sad fatality occurred at Hanover on Friday morning of last week, by which John Pettigrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pettigrew of Holstein lost his life while assisting in shunting cars in the yard of the Furniture Co.

He was proceeding to turn the switch at the siding when he apparently slipped and fell the car passing over him. Death was instantaneous. The remains were brought to this village on Friday evening.

The memorial services were held Sunday in the Presbyterian church conducted by his pastor Rev. Mr. Fish of Owen Sound assisted by Rev. G. A. King whence the funeral cortege proceeded to Reid's cemetery, the pall bearers being six of his associates, members of the Brotherhood from Palmerston. John entered the services of the G. T. R. about five years ago and at the time of his death was 24 years 4 months and 8 days old. He was married on July 21st of last year to Miss Edith Murray of Owen Sound. They had established a comfortable home in the county capital and were happy and contented. He leaves to mourn his loss and early demise his young wife, who will miss his regular return from duty, and his parents, brothers and sisters who will look in vain for his periodical visits to the old home of his childhood. We join with the many sympathizing friends in wishing the bereaved the consolation that Heaven alone can give.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray of Owen Sound were present at the funeral of their son-in-law.

James Galloway returned last week from Thamesville.

Darkies' Corners.

We had the pleasure of seeing the new folding machine (which was recently installed in the printing room of the Durham Chronicle,) in operation on Wednesday of last week. The Chronicle which was heretofore folded by hand was run through this machine after leaving the press, and came out at one end of the machine folded neatly. We were surprised to see how smoothly those little rollers took in the large sheet, and with the aid of tiny canvas belts conveyed it back and forth until it dropped into a kind of trough, all ready for labelling. As the paper goes through, it is neatly trimmed by a revolving knife. Taken all through the machine is a beauty, does its work perfectly, rapidly and with clock work regularity and will prove itself a time and labor saver in the work of printing.

Miss Kate McNally is home from the Queen city for a few weeks holidays.

Prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McGirr, on Wednesday of last week and was well attended.

Speakers on the affirmative are T. A. Allan, R. McFadden, C. Ritchie, Negative A. McGirr, M. McFadden, R. G. Hewitt.

Miss M. Farr of Gorrie and Miss Jane Ritchie of Edge Hill are at the home of Mrs. A. Watson at present.

In our last budget we mentioned the fact that Mrs. Adam Watson was under Dr. Jamieson's care. We did not really think her case was so serious but it proved serious enough, and on Saturday morning last between the hours of 9 and 10, she underwent a very successful operation which was performed by Dr. Brad. Jamieson. Dr. Jamieson Sr. was present, while Dr. Hutton administered the anesthetic. Mrs. Watson is doing well we are pleased to say and with first class medical attention, kind friends and a trained nurse, Miss Smith, from Fergus Hospital, we had to hear of her speedy recovery.

Mr. Samuel Collier of Durham, Man., is at present on an extended visit at the home of his sister Mrs. Jas Wilson.

Corner Concerns.

Mr. Palmer Patterson has moved onto the farm he leased from James Johnston and for the present is batching it.

Mr. Samuel Morrison has been away for a few weeks in the States, Pennsylvania we think, looking after the winding up of an estate of which he may be a beneficiary.

The Dromore Forresters held last Friday night in their hall, what they called a rally but we would call it a dance. As for the going and coming over the drifted roads we can find no name for it.

Mr. Major Eccles has purchased Mr. Charles McKenzie's farm on the 18th con.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McLaughlin and son George visited Chesley friends recently.

Other correspondents report hearing wedding bells in their district, but we couldn't hear bells or anything else for the people talking about weddings in a half dozen different homes.

It is a long time since we saw a pack pedler in this part until last week and it might have been so long again and it not been for the patronage of a few of our bachelors. He was selling ladies' waists and it was a nice present for them to buy a nice present for their girls in their own home away from the public gaze.

When Tom Wilson engaged to cut and haul 50,000 ft. of logs to the Durham Furniture Factory, people said he couldn't do it, but he has it almost completed before the January thaw. Tom is a hustler.
