THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor. DURHAM, JANUARY 27, 1910.

Priceville

The death of Mrs. Reilly, about 65 years of age, occurred on Friday morning, January 21st, after a lingering illness of two years from paralysis. During that time she was speechless, and unable to do anything to assist herself, and it is a blessing to herself, and to the members of the family attending her that she is relieved of the pangs and pains she suffered so long, and that she is at rest. Her husband, who so faithfully administered to her during these years can reflect on the past and can truly say that they did what they could to relieve her trouble. When these dear sons and daughter give a backward look and consider a mother's love to them in times when unable themselves, and now that she is gone, their thoughts will be to the effect "What is a home without a mother." Mrs. Reilly was a true and devoted Presbyterian, and during the time of health her place was never vacant in the church. Her husband, the late Michael Reilly, predeceased her four years ago. Mrs. Reilly was a woman who suffered the trials and tribulations of this life in bygone years, as in a couple of weeks she saw five of her family borne to the graveyard, where her remains are placed. Those children were taken with diphtheria and all died from the effects of the disease. Mrs. Reilly was a resident of Priceville for nearly forty years, and during that time, she won for herself, the goodwill of all she came in contact with. She leaves to mourn her death, one daughter, Miss Maud, at home, and two sons, Frank and Willie, at home, and Robert, in the far West. The funeral was held on Monday morning, was fairly well attended, considering the bad state of the roads. The body was taken to the Presbyterian church, where her pastor, Rev. Mr. Matheson, preached the funeral sermon, which suited for the regular sermon as well. The annual meeting was held in the Presbyterian church here on Wednesday, January 19th, and was not as largely attended as should have been; however, the business was done in an ordinary manner. The financial statement showed a balance on the right side after all claims being paid. Ten had been removed by death, and six by certificate, and eighteen new members were added, leaving only a gain of two members during the year. Rev. Mr. Berry, of the Methodist church, was away at the opening of a new Methodist church somewhere in New Ontario, on Sunday last. Mr. Peter McArthur moved his lately fixed up for that purpose in connection with the general store which will be more convenient for himself and those patronizing, to have both departments near each other, and everything in that line of business will be found there.

We admired the splendid likeness of the Corner Concern correspondent in last week's paper, and we think the Editor made a mistake in commencing with the best looking fellows for it only discarding those of us that are more homely looking in sending ours. But we expect to see the next in order next week, which by the way is from Traverson, and although in person he may not be as big up and down as the Corner man yet his photo may stand a good chance of being nearly as good looking.

Lots of timber of all kinds coming into our town, such as telegraph poles, ties, sawlogs, wood, etc.

Mr. Donald McLean, of the south line, Artemesia, is spending five or six weeks visiting in Manitoba.

Traverston.

(Received too late for last week.)

We are glad that half of the winter is over; but the hungry half is yet to come.

Miss Abbie Robson returned to Toronto on Friday last.

Since our last hadget, the following parties have made horse deals.—W. L. Falkingham sold a team of 3-year-olds to Mr. Jos. Atkinson; T. Glenecross a good working mare to McNally, of Walkerton; Maurice Connor one of his team to Mr. Jas. Lawrence of Egremont.

The pitch-holes this winter have been somewhat fierce on roads running north and south. We had the inspiration that comes from an aeroplane into our shanty last week. But we strike for the barn when "practice" hour draws nigh.

The hypnotic eye and the persuasive tongue of Mr. Will McEdden, coupled with the melody of the machine, were the powers that brought a Doherty organ into our shanty last week. But we strike for the barn when "practice" hour draws nigh.

Mr. Jas. Bartly leaves at the end of the week for his home near Elbow, Sask. He was around the old neighborhood on Monday renewing the ties of bygone days. Few Glenelgians were held in higher esteem and the same good qualities have won him many warm friends on the prairie. He is a pillar before he left so he had to hasten back to attend to the duties of his office. As a thresher he had few equals in this country and the same holds good out on the prairie.

To very few is given the power to win and retain friendship like that possessed by the late Miss Flora Stewart, who passed away at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. D. McArthur, on Sunday Jan. 8th. Her frankness of manner, kindness of heart, cheery spirit and deep spirituality made her a favorite wherever she went and the bond of affection between the sisters and brothers evoked the highest esteem and admiration of a very wide circle of friends.

A large number from this neighborhood attended the funeral on the Wednesday following and very appropriate were the words of the Rev. Mr. Farquharson, who conducted the service in the fine, old home and at the graveside. It was a sad, yet tender sight to see the six sisters gather around the casket taking a last farewell. These are Mrs. John McNally, Eborale; Mrs. John Mills, Dornoch; Mrs. Dan McArthur, near town; Mrs. McKinnon, B. C.; Mrs. McNabb and Mrs. Campbell, of Rochester. In the Sacred Acre at Lathrop, the remains were laid away beside those of her parents. Her brothers, Donald and Malcolm live in Dauphin, and were unable to come to the funeral.

(This week's budget.)

Reeve E. W. Hunt is attending the County council this week.

Miss Bessie Peters arrived home on Monday from Brantford, where she has been for the past year and a half.

Mrs. Jos McNally of Waudby, is very ill and is being operated on this Tuesday for appendicitis.

Mrs. E. W. Hunt and Master Harold came home from Detroit on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Godfrey Robinson arrived from the West on Saturday and is visiting his son Dan.

Buyers from Guelph were around on Monday and bought 3-year-old colts from each of the following.—M. J. Davis, P. Nelson and A. Anderson. Then, the latter purchased a five-year-old from Geo. E. Peart. A farmer is hardly safe to leave his horses these days.

A well known and one of Glenelg's early sons passed away on Friday evening after some months' suffering from cancer of the stomach. The late Thos. Dunn was born May 24th, 1853. Thos. Dunn was on the 2nd con. N. D. R. and has lived on the 2nd con. for many years. He was wedded twenty-two years ago to Miss Maggie Townsend and to them were given seven children—four boys and three girls. One of the boys died in infancy. The family are, Misses Violet, Vera and Clara; the boys—Russel, Ettridge and Frank. Deceased was an industrious man, honest, most obliging and likable and was at the large concourse that followed the remains to their last resting place in Zion cemetery on Monday afternoon. The Rev. M. Start of Mulock conducted a most earnest and helpful service in the home and officiated likewise at the graveside. His brother Mr. Peter Dunn of Elora, with his son attended the funeral.

We were pleased to see the photo of the clever scribe of "Corner Concerns" in last week's issue. "Mack" has the reputation of not only being the oldest but the most original member on the staff and his naive sayings and droll humor has made for him hosts of admirers wherever the Chronicle goes.

'Tis too cold yet for the pen-wielder of this hamlet to get his wool cut, so that he cannot get his "mug" tooked before spring, but go on with the other animals and birds and we'll butt in some time, when the spring sphyx wanders.

Flesherton.

Fifty years ago, on January 21st, Mr. Wm. Clayton, who was born in the old city of York, England, and Miss Sarah Strachan, born in Pickering township, Ontario, were joined in wedlock at Claremont, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. John Baird, Presbyterian minister of that place. On Friday last, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton were the subjects of many congratulations while they quietly celebrated the event at their home here, where they have resided for forty-nine years, and Mr. Clayton, by industry and strict integrity, which has rendered his name a household word, has built up a successful boot and shoe business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton have seen many changes since settling in Flesherton, Mr. A. Munshaw being now the only one in the village who was here when they came to it. Though many old friends have passed away, new ones have risen up in equal numbers. To Mr. and Mrs. Clayton were born three sons and one daughter, the latter deceased. The sons are Thomas, of Flesherton, David, J.P., of Lang, Sask., and William, jeweller, at Cornwall, Ontario. There are also three grandchildren. A pleasing feature of the celebration was unexpected presentations to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton. It was Masonic lodge night, and in the lodge room immediately after opening Mr. Clayton was presented with a Masonic jewel, the presentation being made in behalf of the lodge with a neat address by Worshipful Brother H. K. Richardson, who was Master of Prince Arthur lodge when Mr. Clayton was initiated thirty-four years ago. Mr. Clayton thanked the lodge for the much appreciated token of brotherly love. About nine o'clock, over forty of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton's friends in the Methodist church assembled at their home laden with gifts and baskets. Mr. W.H. Bunt, who conducted the proceedings, after explaining the object of their visit, called upon Mr. M.K. Richardson, who with an address most appropriate to the occasion, presented Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, in behalf of the church, with a handsome leather covered couch, and some letters in behalf of the Ladies' Aid, presented to Mrs. Clayton half a dozen sterling silver spoons and a gold lined sugar bowl. The gifts were deeply acknowledged by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, who have rendered long and faithful service to the church in all its branches. Mr. Clayton is one of the oldest members of the Quarterly Board, and has been for years the painstaking recording secretary of the circuit. Short congratulatory speeches were made by Rev. H. E. Wellwood, R.J. Sproule, J. A. Boyd, George Mitchell, W. J. Bellamy and Wm. Barnhouse, who came from Toronto for the event. The ladies served refreshments, and the celebration continued pleasantly until midnight.

We overlooked noting last week the social at Rockvale Baptist church, which was quite successful, the freewill offering amounting to over $17.

Mrs. James Brodie, who has been ill at the home of her parents, since July and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, since last C.P.R., was taken to Toronto last week and underwent a critical operation in the hospital, which it is hoped will lead to her restoration. She is reported doing as well as could be hoped for.

Miss Mabel Munshaw is in the Toronto hospital, where she underwent an operation last week on her hand, which has been giving her trouble for some time, the result of a burn. Dr. Bruce Percival, who performed the operation, which necessitates Miss Munshaw's retention in the hospital for two or three weeks.

Dr. Murray's little daughter, Miss Shirley, is ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Dan McLeod is laid up with a bad cut in his foot received while chopping in the bush.

Reeve Boyd and deputy-reeve McKenzie are at Owen Sound this week at County Council. W. J. Bellamy and F. Henry are also at the County Council on business.

Rev. F. C. Harper, recently at Drummond Hill, will supply the Presbyterian pulpit next Sunday, and Rev. Wilfrid Cullis, of New Ontario will preach in the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. F.G. Karstedt were at Elmwood last week attending the funeral of the former's father who died suddenly, aged 82 years.

Mrs. Fred Rutledge, of Credit Forks, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Bellamy, in town.

Miss Kate Bellamy left last week to spend a month with friends in the city.

Mr. Jeffrey Jacques, of Lang, Sask., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Bulmer.

Mr. Jack Karstedt, of Indianaopolis, Indiana, left for his home on Monday, after spending a few days with his brother here.

Mr. W. Barnhouse, of Toronto, spent a few days among old friends, and assisted the Methodist choir on Sunday, and taking part in a duet with Dr. Murray in the evening.

Mrs. VanDusen left on Monday to spend two or three weeks with friends in Dundalk and Toronto.

Miss Beatrice Hales visited over Saturday and Sunday with friends at Harriston.

Mr. Ball, of Warminster, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wellwood, at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pedlar and his daughters, of Sparling, Man., are visiting old friends here, and relatives in this vicinity.

Rev. H.E. Wellwood is spending part of this week in Toronto.

Mr. D. McTavish was in the city over Sunday and Monday.

Miss Hattie Cole is home from Toronto on a short visit.

Mr. R.J. Sproule, who, at the beginning of the year resigned the position of postmaster here, after

Only Medicine That Did Any Good

After Suffering Tortures For Years, This Lady Found Happy Relief In "Fruit-a-tives".

Frankville, Ont., June 11th, 1908.

"I have received most wonderful benefit from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' I suffered for years from headaches and pain in the back, and I consulted doctors and took every remedy obtainable without any relief. Then I began taking 'Fruit-a-tives' and this was the only medicine that ever did me any real good. I took several boxes altogether, and now I am entirely well of all my dreadful headaches and backaches.

MRS. FRANK EATON

I take "Fruit-a-tives" occasionally still, but I am quite cured of a trouble that was said to be incurable. I give this testimony voluntarily, in order that others who suffer as I suffered may try this wonderful medicine and be cured." (Signed) MRS. FRANK EATON.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50 or trial box, 25c—or sent post-paid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

thirty-eight years of service, was banqueted on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. M.K. Richardson, and by the citizens presented with a solid gold watch as a token of the esteem in which he is held, and a mark of appreciation of his unflinching courtesy and obliging conduct during all the years of his public office. Mr. Richardson presided, and after pleasing introductory remarks called upon Mr. Geo. Mitchell, Manager of the Standard Bank, who gave a neat address, and made the presentation in behalf of the citizens, represented by about twenty-five present. Mr. Sproule expressed his appreciation of the honor done him. Short speeches were given by Rev. Boyd, editor Thurston, Rev. Wellwood, W.H. Bunt, J.A. Blakely and others. Pleasing music was also rendered, and at the festive board an enjoyable time was spent. Mr. Sproule was also recently presented with a gold chain and seal by the mail carriers delivering at this office. He was also the recipient of a letter from a young gentleman at Grand Rapids, Mich., who formerly resided here and remembers courtesies received at the hands of the Flesherton postmaster.

A Card of Appreciation--1910

Our business for 1909 so far exceeded in volume of business any former year in our history that we cannot but believe that our "PUTTING OUR CUSTOMERS AHEAD OF OURSELVES" Policy, has been the means to the end, but even with that square deal policy we have an appreciative host of customers to heartily thank for our great increase in business for 1909.

You will find that a safe policy to trade under whenever you require anything from the DRUG STORE and only under that policy is your patronage solicited for 1910.

STOCK FOOD

There never was a time that all kinds of animals on the farm were as valuable as they are at present. Flesh makes more money for the owner than appearance. It is an easy matter to produce flesh. There is nothing that I know of at the present time that will produce flesh quicker and for less money than INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD.

I bought a mare from Mr. Neilson, of Proton Station, for $1 and after feeding her on International Stock Food for a short time, disposed of her for nearly double the money.

I purchased a gelding from Capt. Snider, of Normanby, and after feeding him on International Stock Food for a short time, disposed of him for $100 more than first cost.

I purchased one from Dr. Gun that some people thought was worn out, and after feeding him on International Stock Food for a short time, sold him at a good advance.

I purchased one from Tim Grady for $150 and after feeding him on International Stock Food, sold at a handsome profit.

Get in line. Use INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD for every animal on the farm and you will receive good results.
