THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

W. IRWIN, Editor and Proprietor. DURHAM, FEBRUARY 3, 1910.

WHAT'S WHAT IN THE PRINT SHOP

"Get what your work is worth," was the slogan of the International Cost Congress of the printing trade, held in Chicago in October last. Mr. F. H. Dobbin, of the Peterborough Review, was present, and no better man from the Canadian Press could be found to look after the financial end of the printers' work. Mr. Dobbin is a hard worker, he believes in work, and he believes in getting pay for what he does. Not so with all printers, many of whom are built on the jelly fish plan, and are so spineless that they'll work for nothing rather than stand up as men for fair, honest prices, or let the other fellow have the work. The man who puts a low value on his own work is sure to have a low value put on his work by the general public, and once they know him to be a wobbler, he'll be eternally meeting the price-cutting customers, whose main business in life seems to be to knock the heart out of all profits. A printer, as well as another man, should get what his work is worth, yet a very little reflection shows that work is frequently turned out of the print shops at a price that wouldn't pay decent wages to the compositor. It's only a few days ago since we learned that a county council not many thousand miles away from here got 700 copies of the county minutes of each session at the ridiculously low price of thirty-eight cents a page. Three times that amount per page would be nearer the right value for the work, but we are not going to find fault with a council for getting work as cheap as possible. We are only too sorry to believe we belong to a fraternity in which too many fools are operating to the detriment and ultimate destruction of an honorable business. No man, printer or otherwise, can be considered honest if he charges different prices to different individuals, under similar conditions, for identically the same work.

man came in to renew the Chronicle and get another paper at 55c. He tried to get both for $1.50, but we had charged everyone else $1.55 for the same two papers, we didn't feel justified in making the cut, and told him so, with the result that he didn't take either. He thought it was a very small matter to stick over five cents, and so it was perhaps, but it was no smaller on one side than on the other. As a matter of principle, we felt it better to lose one subscriber than to have others dissatisfied because they had to pay more than he did. We have given papers for nothing, and in one instance we gave a rich man a paper for a whole year just to find out how mean he was. All the small men are not in the newspaper business.

Corner Concerns.

Mr. Fred Ball has leased Mr. Sam. Caldwell's farm in Normanby for a term of years and is giving up the Hillis farm. Mr. James Eden has taken the agency for Frost & Wood machines, and is now hustling for orders. Some of our citizens are laid up with an affliction of the throat. We trust it is nothing very serious and that they may soon be around again.

Mrs. A. Baird, of Holstein, spent part of last week visiting old friends in this locality.

Mr. Johnson Wilkinson, of Waterloo county, spent a day with us last week, while attending the wedding of his brother, he being a cousin of ours.

We must confess, the Chronicle did a good job in giving our portrait a fortnight ago, and our brother correspondents said some mighty nice things about it, but we will be forced to do a bit better if we do anything like justice to theirs when they appear, especially if they are as fine looking as the fellow in last issue.

We hear of fellows wearing three overcoats to a Methodist prayer meeting. It surely isn't to escape eternal fire they are going.

Yes, farmers were indignant a week ago to hear of any hindrances being placed in the way of the new oatmeal mill, and it is not only because the market for oats has been better this fall, when they were a good crop, but also on account of the food for stock that is brought in by car load after car load being imported from other provinces when they are a failure here. Many farmers in the vicinity of Durham will remember in years of scarcity how the Mt. Forest mill was besieged with farmers wanting the refuse from a meal to feed their stock, and many farmers in easy distance of the town benefit much right along. Of course there is consolation in seeing some of these citizens trying to obstruct, for it may have a tendency to make them stay back for a while. We have found such fellows very much in the way at Mt. Forest. There are several just as big farmers and stock raisers, great customers at Mar-tin's mills. They almost weekly leave a bundle of sacks and their money in advance for their order, and, after them, we lesser farmers are supplied, although the millers often show us urgent requests for orders by stock men at a distance.

Last Wednesday the home of Mr. Wm. McFadden was the scene of a very pleasant event the marriage of his daughter Sadie to Mr. R.H.E. Wilkinson, of Edmonton. The ceremony took place at five o'clock p.m., in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride is well known as a faithful worker in the Episcopal church, but Durham branch is out of an ordained man at present. Rev. Kendall, of Dromore, is not only a neighbor, but also held in high esteem by all denominations, and his services are sought under all such circumstances in this place, and it was he who made them man and wife. The bride looked handsome, dressed in a travelling suit of blue, with fancy silk blouse. After congratulations, the guests sat down to a sumptuous supper, such as the bride and all her family know so well how to prepare. At the conclusion, Rev. Kendall proposed a toast to the bride, fraught with good wishes and good advice. The happy groom ably responded.

followed by a few lesser lights, who were at least able to testify to the many virtues which the bride possesses. The groom possesses also those good qualities that go to make a model husband, and has considerable possessions in Edmonton, although much of it was earned in Waterloo county by honest, hard work. While friends wish to be present at marriage ceremonies, they also wish to witness the baptism of each other's children, and as one little fellow, son of the eldest daughter, was eligible for such a ceremony, it was considered a fitting time for that also, and the little fellow, George R. Matthews, received his name from the reverend gentleman retired. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games. The bride received many handsome presents, amongst which was a handsome gold watch and chain, the gift of the groom. The happy couple left on the 3 p.m. train on Saturday to spend a week with the groom's relatives in Waterloo, before going to their home in Edmonton. They carry the best wishes of all in this part for a long, happy and prosperous life.

As Mr. Andrew Seim, of Holstein, has bought out Mr. Geo. Pollock, of Varney, the postoffice will also be kept by him, and while we believe he will make a very efficient official, there is naturally a feeling of sorrow at parting with such faithful and well tried officials as Mr. and Mrs. Pollock have been. The latter has served in the capacity of postmistress for the past sixteen years, and the former for twenty-two, and we would all wish them every success wherever they go, and hope that they may get an office of greater remuneration.

Swinton Park.

A number of the farmers here are making ready to go West in the spring.

In connection with the Literary society, a spelling match was held at Mr. Don. Campbell's home on Thursday evening, when a pleasant and profitable time was spent.

Pleased to learn that Mrs. D. McMillan is slowly recovering after a serious illness.

Mrs. Alice Campbell entertained a number of her many friends at her home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. McEwen, accompanied by Miss McEwen, from the West, have been visiting at Messrs. Aldcorn's.

Messrs. Richard and John Parslow purpose holding their sale on February 4th. They have rented their farm to their uncle, Mr. Hugh Wilson, and intend going to their homesteads out West.

Mrs. Chas. Haw's many friends are glad to know she is able to sit up again.

A sad accident befel Mr. Hugh Wilson at his mill Saturday evening when he had his head cut. The doctor put nine stitches in the wound. Hope that it may not be serious with Mr. Wilson.

Mrs. J. S. Hardy had a successful wood bee on Wednesday.

Rev. J.A. Matheson was unable get here on January 23rd, on account of having a funeral to take charge of at Priceville. Last Sabbath he preached a helpful sermon on the importance of making right use of our life here.

Darkies' Corners.

Miss Smith, trained nurse of Fergus who has been in charge of Mrs. A. Watson since the operation, left on Monday of last week, her services, owing to the rapid improvement of her patient being no longer required. Mr. David Davis had a wood bee on Tuesday of last week, and got a nice lot of wood cut.

A new departure has been taken by the editor of the Chronicle, in reproducing the photographs of his staff of correspondents, two of whom have already made their appearance in the columns of the Chronicle. By the pictures of the Corner Concerns and Businessmen those places are well represented. Owing to the lack of a machine strong enough to reproduce our homely mug without breaking the glass, we have not as yet tried the skill of the photographer.

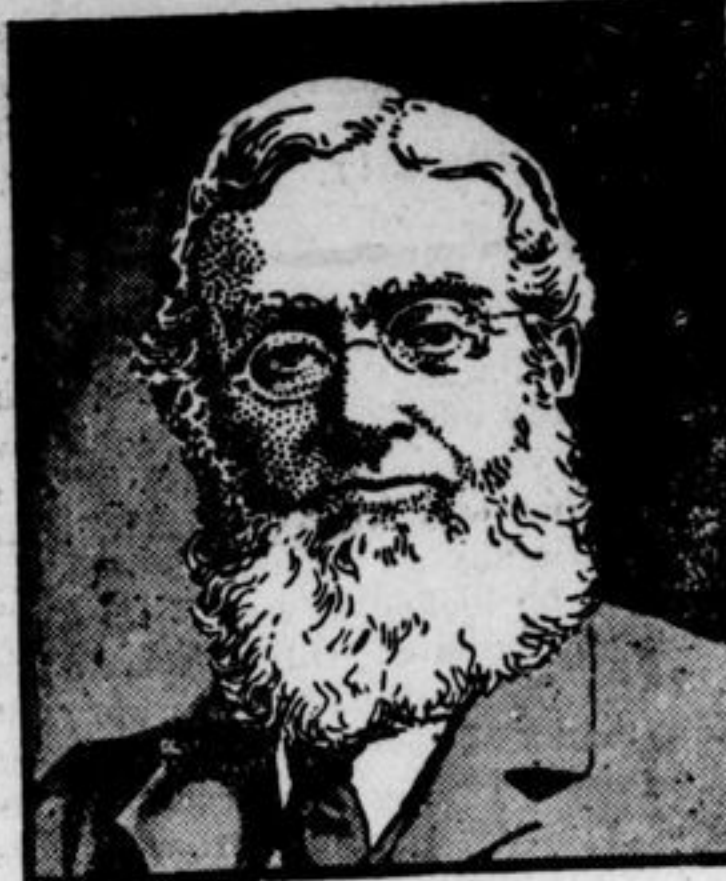

A very enjoyable night was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Al-joe, Wednesday of last week, when a large number of the young people of this community were gathered together and passed the evening in music, singing and games. Everybody had a jolly good time.

Mrs. Wm. Perry and daughter Miss Etta, of Toronto, are at present on an extended visit at the home of her sister Mrs. Charles Ritchie.

Mr. Wm. Weir who has been in the county capital the greater part of last week in connection with county council business returned home Saturday night.

Kidney Disease For Years

This Well Known Gentleman Strongly Recommends "Fruit-a-tives" to all Sufferers.

JAMES DINGWALL, ESQ.

"I have much pleasure in testifying to the almost marvellous benefit I have derived from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' I was a lifelong sufferer from Chronic Constipation, and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was 'Fruit-a-tives.' This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also, last spring I had a severe ATTACK OF BLADDER TROUBLE WITH KIDNEY TROUBLE, and 'Fruit-a-tives' cured these complaints for me, when the physician attending me had practically given me up. I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' for chronic constipation and bladder and kidney trouble. This medicine is very mild like fruit, is easy to take, but most effective in action." (Signed) JAMES DINGWALL. Williamstown, Ont., July 27th, 1908. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50—or trial box, 25c—at dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

held their regular monthly entertainment in the school here, Tuesday evening of last week, in the form of a debate, the subject under discussion being,—"Resolved that wealth causes more misery than poverty." It resulted in a victory for the affirmative by one point. The judges were Messrs. Chas. Moffat, John L. McDonald and Wilbert Rlyth. Miss Bella McGirr performed her duty very creditably as the honorable lady in the chair. A large crowd was present and enjoyed themselves. The following is a copy of programme. The meeting called to order by the lady in the chair; Chorus by the Glee Club, "Clementine;" Secretary's report by Miss M. McFadden; Debate; Chorus by the Glee Club, "Some day I'll wonder back again;" An address by Wm. Sirrs; Editorials to the Green Grove Eye-Opener, read by Miss Lizzie Weir. Recitation, by Miss A. Sirrs Judges' decision. Closing number, God save the king. Mr. Jos. Collett, of British Columbia, is at present on a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay.

BORN.

EWEN.—In Fergus, on Wednesday January 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ewen, a son.

To Cure Toothache.

Search over the whole globe and you'll not find the equal of Nerviline. An aching tooth it relieves at once. Fill the cavity with bating dipped in Nerviline and rub the gums with Nerviline also. If the face is swollen and sore, bathe with Nerviline, and then bind on a hot flannel. This can't fail because Nerviline kills the pain outright. Just as good for earache, neuralgia or stiff neck. A 25c. bottle of Nerviline cures the aches of the whole family. Try it.

A Card of Appreciation--1910

Our business for 1909 so far exceeded in volume of business any former year in our history that we cannot but believe that our "PUTTING OUR CUSTOMERS AHEAD OF OURSELVES" Policy, has been the means to the end, but even with that square deal policy we have an appreciative host of customers to heartily thank for our great increase in business for 1909.

You will find that a safe policy to trade under whenever you require anything from the DRUG STORE and only under that policy is your patronage solicited for 1910.
