Mr. R. Mighton is getting along nicely after having his hand cut in a sawing machine, while cutting wood for Mr. Thomas Mighton, of Hutton Hill.

Mr. George Hendry has sold his farm to Mr. Wm. Bailey of this place. We don't like to see Mr. and Mrs. Hendry leaving our town as they have been very kind and obliging neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown have added a nice new Sherlock & Manning organ to their parlor which they purchased from Mr. Snell of Durham. It is a beauty.

Mr. Thompson Boyd and sister Miss Boyd and niece Miss McLean spent a very pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trout, last week.

Mrs. S. Somerville and daughter Mrs. Wilcox of Toronto, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Redford, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adlam for a few days.

Mr. G. Hillgartner, of Hanover, Mr. J. Brown of Allan Park and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reay of Ebenezer, Sundayed with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown.

Mrs. A. McCaslin of Dakota, and Mrs. J. S. Wilson of Pricerville, called on Mr. and Mrs. R. Britton on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Adlam is very ill at present with anemia. We hope that under Dr. Gun's medical care she will soon recover her usual good health.

A Bible class meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hendry.

Our teacher, Miss Clarke, spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt in Aberdeen.

Mr. Wm. Brown, and our teacher, Miss Clarke, Mr. Allan McDougall and sister, Miss Lizzie, attended the wedding of Mr. D. Campbell, of Aberdeen, to Miss Greenwood, of Glenelg, and report a very pleasant time.

Your Vickers scribe's picture appears to be a very true portrait of the original. We don't want to quarrel with our brother scribe over items, but we think he should not collect items from Hutton Hill and Mulock. He wrote an item last week about a sawing machine accident, and the victim was one of our true citizens.

HOCKEY

Four to three is the score in short, of the Durham-Chesley game, played on the latter's ice on Friday evening last, when the locals wrested a victory from the supposedly strongest team in this district, and the team that has been picked all along by Hanover, Walkerton and Paisley, as the one to battle for the silverware in the final games of the Northern Hockey League. And with the continued expression of thought, many Durhamites as well had joined the throng, and could see nothing to it but success for the Chesley team. This, with the poor showing made by the locals a week before, when the lights went out, when Chesley held the long end of the score at half time, seemed but to clinch the argument. But not so with the locals, and their views on the matter have come true. Though not absolutely and positively sure that they could trip up the Chesleyites, they figured that if the Chesley team, with Lavelle on the hospital wagon, and Cameron away off color, could not score more than four goals to their one, they had at least a chance with a full team.

So, it was with no small amount of confidence that they embarked for Chesley, fully satisfied that if they didn't win outright, the other fellows would have no walkover even though the locals had had no full team practise since the previous match, and therefore no chance to become accustomed to the new positions assigned to them on account of Lavelle being placed at point instead of right wing. But the change proved a good one, as did also the playing of Rolph.

It was 8.15 when the special landed at Chesley's front door and discharged its cargo of one hundred people, who headed by a torchlight procession, and the Chesley band, started for the rink.

It was 9.09 however, before referee Hacking, of Listowel, touched the button and let the gladiators loose, and the pandemonium began. Chesley was yelling for Chesley, and Durham for Durham, while the disinterested ones passed the time in cussing the both of them for making such a racket. But it was no use. The big crowd was out to yell, and yell they did.

Chesley drew first blood after fourteen minutes of play, and Durham retaliated one minute later by evening the score. Two minutes more, and Chesley netted another, and for the next eleven minutes ensued a battle royal that ended by Chesley scoring, and leading the local three goals to one at half time.

It was at half time that the band handed out to Durham a bunch of "Home, Sweet Home," which they played very pathetically, not caring to grate on the visitors' nerves too much.

The second session commenced at 9.55, and if any difference was noticeable in the condition of the two teams, Durham had the advantage, for they forced the game from the first tingle of the bell, and succeeded in scoring after eight minutes of play. Three minutes more saw them even the score, and Chesley Hockey Team stock dropped several points, as they saw how easy it was for the visitors to skate away from the home team, who were unable to stand the pace handed out to them by the locals. Seven minutes more and Durham scored again, and for the next twelve minutes, the balance of the game, the Chesleyites worked like trojans, but could not get past the Durham defense. The last four minutes, with two of Durham's men out of the game, the Chesley team made every effort to score, but they were unavailing, and the full time bell rang with the score standing Durham 4, Chesley 3.

It was a great game, and a hard one, and though we won, we must take off our hats to Chesley as the team that made us strike our gait and extend ourselves. Never in their history, we believe, did the Durhams ever play better or faster hockey, and, we are told on good authority, the same can be said of Chesley, who have never in a long, long time, been beaten on their own ice.

For the Durhams, we cannot say too much. That they are a good bunch, and full of grit, we must admit, and even were they twice as good, they would never have won out on Friday night last had it not been for their grit and staying powers. Individually, they all played their game, every man of them; and in combination they showed them all a few. For the referee, too, we must say a good word. Though we fought hard to have another official, and failed, now that the game is over, we must say he gave us a fair and square deal, and made both teams play hockey. He was strictly impartial, and that is what we want for the good of the sport.

NOTES OF THE GAME

And the lights stayed on! And where is that "combination" the Chesley bunch were crowing so much about?

And the lights stayed on! Isn't it too bad to be trimmed by a mongrel aggregation like Durham?

And the lights stayed on! And poor Beatty! Did he find his gloves and cap yet?

And the lights stayed on! "Beatty may have had them guessing" at Durham, but we "guess we had them Beaten" at Chesley.

And the lights stayed on! And, of course, we "tender the sympathy of the whole community to the sorrowing relatives."

And the lights stayed on! Chesley seemed all at sea, and were so closely checked that they could not enjoy themselves at their usual pastime—tripping.

And the lights stayed on! The Chesley band played "Home, Sweet Home!" at the termination of the first half, and when the second half was over, they lost no time getting there.

And the lights stayed on! The Enterprise man was so cocksure of the result that he said of last Friday's game "This game will decide the championship in group No. 2." According to that, WE are the champions.

And the lights stayed on! "Park, the boy who plays the left boards, had Lavelle beaten a block," says the Enterprise. So he did, Mac, so he did. At Chesley he stayed fully a block and a half away.

And the lights stayed on! Of course, it was a fluke. We'll get them when we go to Durham.

And the lights stayed on! Instead of the real championship calibre they were supposed to possess, the Chesley team was evidently built on the balloon plan,—full of gas. And when they blew up, there was a loud explosion,—and an awful smell.

And the lights stayed on! Chesley has all season imagined themselves so much better than the rest of us that the jar must have hurt.

And the lights stayed on! "We're from Missouri! Durham will have to show us," said the Chesley bills. Durham went them one better, and treated them as if they were from Texas—they put it right in their hand.

And the lights stayed on! The Chesley Enterprise man pokes considerable fun at the Durham Hockey Club because the lights went on the rocks. If they had gone "ditto" in Chesley, wouldn't he have been truly thankful?

And the lights stayed on! Oh, where is my wandering boy-to-night? Over at Hanover with Geo. Mitchell, trying to figure out just what the score would have been, had Durham had part of the combination the Post of last week said they were lacking.

This Friday evening, the locals run up against the Walkertonians in the rink here. Though Walkerton have been regarded as easy money in some quarters, this is an erroneous idea, as they, as well as Chesley, have only lost two games, and are still in the running for district honors. This game, therefore means considerable to the locals, who cannot afford to lose it, as the loss of this contest may put them out of the running. The Walkerton team, too, has been strengthened considerably, and are running an excursion over to the game, with the full idea of winning. As they are the only team in the district who have defeated Durham this season, the locals are taking no chances of an easy victory.—At the last moment Walkerton club find they will not get sufficient support to warrant their putting on an excursion, and will come over on the regular in the afternoon. To enable them to catch the night train home, the game has been called for 7.45 instead of 8.30, as advertised.

GREY COUNTY L.O.L ANNUAL MEETING

Address delivered by County Master Chas. C. Hockridge at the Annual Meeting, held in the Town Hall, Durham, on Thursday of last week.

Dear Brethren:—It gives me great pleasure to meet you here at our County Lodge annual meeting. I have not had the pleasure of meeting you as such in the town of Durham before to-day.

I am pleased as I look around me to notice so many who are still loyal to the old flag of civil and religious liberty, and also loyal to the old Orange Order.

It is three years to-day since I received from your hands the important position of Deputy County Master, and one year to-day since I received the still more important position of County Master for the good old county of South Grey and I can assure you one and all that I very highly appreciate the honor you then placed upon me, and its continuance for the three years. During the three years of office I have not done all, by any means, that I should have done. My location in the county is somewhat against me, as is also my business, which keeps me tied down pretty well the year round, but I have ever had the good of the Order at heart, and have always been ready and willing to uphold its principles and to enlarge upon the beauties of our Ritual, and now as we start to-day another year's work of further carrying out the principles of our Order, may all our plans be for good. May the spirit which permeated William of Orange and his brave followers at the Boyne be the spirit in each of us to inspire our thoughts and make us more determined to stand for the old flag and the glorious motto handed down to us by the same William of Orange, and while we defend as best we can the principles of civil and religious liberty, an open Bible, and freedom for every man to worship his God according to the dictates of his own conscience, let us not forget that we are not only doing this for ourselves, but also for those who are to follow us in life, our children, and our children's children, let us pass along those trophies unstained by any traitorous thought, the trophies and the blessings for which our fathers bled and died.

And now, while we receive from our County Secretary the list of dead during the year, I feel that special mention is due to one who has filled different positions in the County Lodge, Bro. William Ritchie. Truly, we can say of Bro. Ritchie that he was true to the principles of Orangeism, and loyal to King and Country. We do here extend to all sorrowing friends our sincere sympathy.

In March last I had the great pleasure of attending the Provincial Grand Lodge of Ontario West held in the city of St. Thomas, and I can assure you I enjoyed the privilege to the very limit. The address by Most Worshipful Grand Master, Bro. Essing, was grand, as was also many others that I might mention, but I trust you have all read them, or most of them at least, so I shall say no more under this head. The Grand Secretary reports Ontario West still increasing in membership to the Orange Order. There were during the year 2412 initiations, 843 by certificate, 444 reinstated, against 804 withdrawn by certificate. 32 expulsions, 259 deaths, leaving a net increase of 2604. He also reports 23 new primary Lodges started during the year.

We have under our Provincial Don't let an unscrupulous dealer force on you an imitation of the "D. & L." Menthol Plaster. Look for the "D. & L." trade-mark on the tin. It guarantees the genuine and the most effective remedy for Rheumatic aches and pains, Lumbago, Sciatica, Backache, etc. 25c. each. Yard rolls equaling seven of the regular size $1.00.

One number which should have been on the programme which appeared in print last week, but owing to an error in copying was not given, was a recitation given by Miss Clara Ritchie, which was very much appreciated.

Mr. Jas. Atkinson spent a few days in Toronto, last week, on business.

Mr. Thos. McComb has recently purchased the Watson farm from Mr. Archie Hunter, of your town, for a handsome figure.

Mr. Wm. Atkinson recently disposed of his chestnut driver, Mr. Herb Hunt of Vickers, being the purchaser.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ritchie called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Meena, Sunday before last.

Mrs. Thos. Meena has been somewhat indisposed for some time past, but at time of writing is on the mend.

Mr. Will Lawrence spent last week with friends in Bentinck.

FERROVIM TRADE MARK THE BEST TONIC for all sickly people. Makes new blood; Gives strength; Restores vitality. Taken after any illness restores a return to health. Davis & Lawrence Co., Montreal.

Is Your Flour, Madam, Milled by Water-Power

When we called last August at the Keewatin mills, we reminded the Local Manager of that moth-eaten story—About the mill owner who boasted that though his mill was the dirtiest in five counties his flour was clean. The Manager laughed heartily, but shook his head most decidedly.

"My only regret," he said, "is that we're in such an out of the way place here. If we could only get more visitors, it would be the best advertisement FIVE ROSES could have." "You don't hear so much about water-power mills these days," he continued as we watched the men putting in new stop logs, "maybe because they are so few. It certainly gives us a big advantage." "In fuel economy?" we asked off-hand. "In cleanliness above all," he quickly added. "You see how light, and airy, and free from dirt this plant is. The absence of a smoky chimney and steam power plant helps a lot."

The first impression one has of the FIVE ROSES premises is of immense size and spotless brightness and cleanliness. The ventilation system is really wonderful. The sunlight penetrates everywhere, both on account of the large number of double-sized windows and the peculiar construction of the plant. Sunlight, you know, is the fatal foe of germs and bacilli. When our guide regretfully declined a good Havana cigar which we had saved all the way from Winnipeg, we almost fainted. It was only then we saw the placards on the walls—"Positively no smoking in the building."

Then the millers all uniformed in white, the spotless machinery with the metal parts polished like piano keys, the floors glistening like a ball-room. We do honestly believe the FIVE ROSES mills are the most sanitary and hygienic in all America—and we have seen a few. When you have been through the mills, Madam, you cannot but say to yourself—"FIVE ROSES flour must be pure, and nutritious, and wholesome." And you are right.

Grand Lodge to-day, 49 County, 101 District, 665 Primary Lodges, owning property to the value of $378,545.

During the year 1908 there was paid out within the limits of our Provincial Lodge $3200 to distressed members, and an additional $1137 for medical attendance, which shows, brethren, that although we do not pretend to be such, we rank high as a benefit society.

The report of the Grand Treasurer was also good, showing a balance on hand or in the bank of $7,355.65.

I would like to say a few words about the official organ of our Order, the Sentinel. I think the Sentinel is a credit to our Order. Every line rings true to our principles, and to the Protestant faith. If we are not all now subscribers, we should become so, and at once. Give it the loyal support it deserves.

Brethren, I now lay down the gavel of this County Lodge, feeling many regrets at the way I have performed my duty. I know that I have done many things I should not have done, and left undone very many things that I might have done. I cannot thank you as I ought for the confidence and honor you have bestowed upon me in giving me the highest office in your power, but I hope I have at least been not unworthy of your esteem.

Now, I sincerely trust that this County meeting may be a benefit to each of us, and that we may each go away with a determination to work harmoniously together during the coming year.

Fraternally yours, C. C. HOCKRIDGE, County Master, South Grey.
