the Remainder of For Almost Nothing

eight at 25c each, rey, brown, fawn . Six at 60c each ider at 98c. Now genuine bargain, as possible. All ited except black.

of a Cent a Day

RPLE STOCK SPECIFIC can and does. It is Food" But a "Conditioner"

e stock. One 50 cent package will last twenty-five fock Specific or Poultry Specific is

32 page booklet on cattle E STOCK and POUL-direct, express prepaid. a ting as our agent in all up-to-date merchants. Mfg. Co., London, Can.

S pecifics and free booklets are kept P. SAUNDERS.

And we are the only Fence-makers in this country Making and Galvanizing Wire

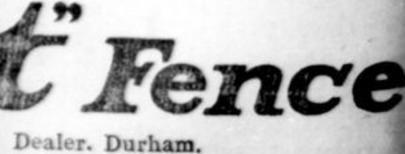

Nearly every Wire Fence is Galvanized too thinly for Canadian purposes. That's why so many rust about twelve or fifteen years sooner than they should.

Frost scientific Galvanizing is about 100 per cent, thicker and smoother than that on any other Fence made in Canada. Yet it will not chip, scale and fall off.

No matter where you look, or how severeyou test, you simply cannot find another

Fenceabuilt and Galvanized for permanency like the Frost. Send for free Booklet. The Frost Wire Fence Co., Ltd.,

Hamilton, Ontario 23 Agents Wanted in Open Districts

THE DURHAM CHRONICLE

VOL. 43-NO. 2240

DURHAM, ONT., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1910.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

The Chronicle is $1.00 a Year, 50c for 6 Months, or 10c a Month.

NEWS AROUND TOWN

Saws gummed at the Foundry. tf Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean, of Aberdeen, intend moving to town shortly.

Are you using "Cream of the West" flour? Every bag guaranteed .- Mrs. Beggs & Son.

Flesherton, Darkies Corners and McWilliamsville correspondence crowded out this week.

We carry a full line of fresh groceries. Special price on best Valencia raisins, 4 lbs. for 25c .-Mrs. Beggs & Son.

A large stock of the John Mc-Pherson & Co. boots and shoes at old prices. At Grant's.

Mr. Dan. McAuliffe, of the 4th home. Concession of Glenelg, sold a span of colts to Archie Beaton for the handsome figure of $345.

general work. Small family. Ap- for distribution Friday night. ply at once to Mrs. (Dr.) King, 740 Dovercourt Road, Tcronto.

town, has purchased the Col. Mc- matrimonial venture. Lean property up town. We hope Mr. Burt and his estimable wife may live long to enjoy their new home.

must be doing a big business, music.

Mrs. R. W. Wright attended the annual Conversazione at the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, last had been received by Miss Burk- Kelsey. Artist. holder, lady principal, Miss Eaton. representative of the staff, and Miss Norma Wright, representative of the students, a very enjoyable programme was given. one of the numbers being a song by Miss Eleonore Wright.

cates were suspicious that intoxi- visiting friends in town. cants were being sold around the Knapp House, and on Monday last they made a search of the premises, under Inspector Davis. We understand they got nothing but local option beer. There may be a little drinking done occasionally, but evidences of violation are not very numerous. The law, we think has been pretty well observed, and unless there is a very strong tack on the hotels. The town is Mr. Wm. Little, of Hampden, was regularity might easily be ac- his cousin, Mrs. Redford. know the difference between whiskey and castor oil.

Mr. Hugh McCrae was taken by moniously, and left off an article of Mr. H. Allen. of furniture shipped from Toron- Mrs. Grant Whittaker, of Toronto, and bearing his name and ad- to, is visiting friends in town and dress. Mrs. McCrae objected to vicinity. the delivery of the goods, but the right. When Mr. McCrae came main for some time. home from work. he too, was at a loss to know what it all meant, and proceeded to investigate. He unpacked the parcel, and found it town. contained a beautiful hall seat in quarter cut oak. artistically finished in what is known as early English style. It was just the kind of article Mr. McCrae intended purchasing, and he felt tickled more than ever when he thought he had been relieved from making the investment, and especially so, since the article now in his possession was much better than he himself would have purchased. It was not for some time that Mr. McCrae learned that the beautiful piece of furniture was a gift from his friends in the Methodist church, as valuable services he rendered them ford and Mrs. Ed. Burnett. as leader of the choir, from which he had recently resigned. Mr. Mc-Crae prizes the gift very highly, but language fails when he tries to put his feelings into words.

Apprentices wanted to learn dressmaking.-Mrs. A. Whitmore.

Six apprentices wanted to learn millinery. Commence March 1st. Good wages to start .- Miss Dick.

Farm produce wanted .- Trade or day. cash, and one price for butter and eggs.-Mrs. Beggs & Son.

All orders sent to us in town carefully filled and promptly delivered.-Mrs. Beggs & Son.

Health."

Mr. John Murdock purchased Mr. just opened out, and will be sold T. Swallow's brick residence on Albert St. This is a neat property, and will make a comfortable

A list of 34 new books added to

Mr. James Burt, who disposed of friendly visit on Thursday night, taken in all matters relating to mink furs. the gift of the groom, his farm recently, and moved to to offer congratulations on her the town's welfare. This is Mr. The evening was spent in games.

We are unable to give a portrait of a correspondent in this issue as we were unable to send a photo to Toronto in time for its return A new shipment of organs, and a before going to press. We hope

We are going to give away 25 and every home will soon have large 12x14 beautiful photographs our best cabinets. This is the best offer ever made in Durham. Friday evening. After the guests Do not fail to secure one .- F. W.

PERSONAL

Miss Bertha Truax, of Walkerton. is visiting friends in town.

Mr. W. S. Hunter was home from Hamilton for a few days.

Some of the temperance advo- Mrs. Chas. Noble, of Dundalk, is Mr. Robt. Adlam left Tuesday for Hanover, to work in the furniture factory there. Mr. Geo. Heard visited at his home at Swinton Park for a few Mr. Geo. Harbottle, and sister.

Miss Lottie, spent a couple of days in Toronto last week.

Mrs. John Clark, and daughter, a few bottles. Some of those en- ed the funeral of her niece, Miss gaged in the search would hardly Penington, of Windsor, last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickering.

drove up to his door very uncere- Park spent over Sunday as guest

Miss Ella Kinnee left Monday for drayman assured her it was all Toronto, where she intends to re-

Miss Essie Burnett, of Hopeville, spent a few days visiting her numerous friends and relatives in Miss May Aljoe, of Ansley Hall. Toronto. arrived home just before the death of her father, Mr. Wm. Aljoe. on Saturday last.

Mrs. Walter Jenkins, and little daughter, Mary, from Carman. We extend our sincere sympathy Man. visited Mr. and Mrs. James to the sorrowing relatives, who Hepburn, and other friends, over are called upon to bear such a the week end.

Miss Dick is attending the millinery openings in Toronto, and will secure the services of a milliner who has had first class ex-

Mrs. Muir, a resident of Mor- nesday. den, Manitoba, for the past five or six years, was in town this week a token of appreciation for the to visit her cousins, Mrs. J. Red-to take a course in the Business College. Stratford. Durham and vicinity has quite a number who graduated from the Stratford

THE HORSE FAIR

The Horse Fair on Thursday last was the most successful ever held in Durham, and this is saying a great deal. There were, in all. seventy-nine horses purchased, at an estimated average of $180 each. over $14,000.00 paid out to the rimony to the man of her choice, farmers in the vicinity in a single Mr. Wm. Prew.

The prices ran from $115 to $235. a great many being sold at $195 to $200. There were about twenty present from Toronto. Guelph. Winnipeg, Walkerton. Breslau and other places. Owing Sermon themes in the Methodist to the condition of the roads, it church next Sunday will be "See- was thought a day or two preving the Invisible," and "Good ious to the fair that the attendance would be small, but it was not so. blue chiffon broadcloth, wearing a the fair, even Mr. Black himself. was highly delighted with the success of the enterprise.

Mr. Black is the advance agent, room, where a sumptuous tea the star actor, and chief manager awaited them. The bride's cake, the Public Library, is crowded out in this horse fair scheme, and to a three-storey one, was beautiful-Domestic wanted.-A girl for next issue. They will be ready creased activity the town has pre- the bride's mother in the culinary sented on these occasions. It is to department. The bride received The Varney choir, of which Mrs. be regretted that a livelier and many beautiful presents, among Prew was a member, paid her a more united interest could not be them a costly set of marmot Black's way of bringing out a and other amusements. The best crowd, and for any benefit receiv- wishes of the community are exed by other business men, they tended to the happy couple, who should be willing to give him part intend going West in the near of the credit.

The greatest benefit is to the Heintzman & Co. piano of high to continue next week and then to farmers who have horses to disgrade, were taken into stock at keep on continuously till the com- pose of. It has an educative in-McFadden's warerooms last week. pleted. Those who have not yet fluence inasmuch as it shows the and the daughter of Mr. Nelson From the large number of instru- favored us with their photos will kind of horses that are most in Eden. ments disposed of, Mr. McFadden greatly oblige by doing so at once. demand. and brings the owners into living touch with the prices they should expect. We under- "Bonnie Brae," the home of Mr. framed, to the first twenty-five March 17th, and let it be hoped stand another fair will be held on it will eclipse all its predecessors.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM ALJOE.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. William Aljoe, of Glenelg, was taken suddenly ill with what the doctors diagnosed as a perintense suffering on Saturday afternoon last.

The deceased gentleman was a ground for suspicion it is not best Miss Elsie, visited friends in Owen born in Stuarttown, on the 19th of to the many virtues which the in our opinion, to make any at- Sound the latter part of the week. January, 1857 and had passed his bride possessed. fifty-third year just a month beso quiet and orderly that any ir- in town Thursday and called on fore his death. When an infant, was spent in music, song and he came to Clarely with his ran he came to Glenelg with his par- all too quickly. counted for by the bringing in of Mr. and Mrs. Pennington attend- ents, and settled on the farm on which he died.

About twenty-six years ago, he Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pickering, of was married to Miss Carrie The children are Arthur, of Hanover; May. of Toronto; Emma. William Ada Lorne, Herbert, Lena its best wishes for a long and and Milford, at home. One son, prosperous married life. Albert, died in infancy some years > sisters, Mrs. Matthew Scott, in the North-west, and Mrs. Crowther, in Chatsworth.

Interment took place Tuesday afterroon to Durham cemetery, Rev. Mr. Wright officiating at the home and grave.

sudgen bereavement.

The snow storm of Tuesday has tied up the railroads to-day, Wed-

The Provincial laboratory examined the heads of two dogs sent Miss Annie Aljoe left Saturday from Drew Station and London BOYLE,-AT the residence of his and found that both were infected with rabies. The dogs were capture dafter they had bitten several persons.

HYMENEAL

PREW-McANULTY.

A very pretty Valentine wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McAnulty on Wednesday, February 16th, when their daughter, Nellie, was This would make a grand total of united in the holy bonds of mat-

> The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Wright, of Durham.

Precisely at six o'clock p. m.. the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, where the groom awaited them under an arch of evergreens. The bride was beautifully attired in a waist of white silk, trimmed with lace and insertion, with a skirt of wreath of white carnations, and carrying in her hand a bouquet of white geraniums. Both were unattended. After the ceremony, Right here, we might say that the guests repaired to the dining

> At the close of the marriage ceremony, the right of baptism was performed on two children, the

> > McKECHNIE-MORTON.

Last Wednesday, February 16th, and Mrs. Alex. Morton, was the scene of a very pleasant event, when his eldest daughter Francis May, was united in marriage to Mr. John McKechnie, of Bethune, Sask., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKechnie, of Saskatchewan, late of Rocky Saugeen, Rev. Dr. Farquharson officiating.

Precisely at five o'clock, the groom took his place, and was immediately joined by the fair who was in his usual health until bride, leaning on the arm of her Wednesday of last week, when he father, while the wedding march was being played by Miss Gertrude Morton. The bride was gowned in a handsome cream foration of the stomach, from silk, and carried a shower bouwhich death came to relieve his quet of carnations and maiden hair fern. Little Effie Milligan acted very gracefully as flower girl. After hearty congratulations from about sixty relatives and friends, the happy company son of Mr. and Mrs. Aljoe, of this sat down to supper, the tables. town, who celebrated their diam- which were decorated with good ond wedding two or three months taste, and laden with all the good ago. He was a man of fairly things skillul names could propare, rugged constitution, careful and after which Dr. Farquharson most industrious in his habits, and high- complimentarily proposed the ly respected for his integrity and toast to the bride, to which the uprightness of character. He was by many others, who all testified

The bride received many costly and handsome gifts, showing the high esteem in which she is held. Mr. and Mrs. McKechnie will Toronto, spent over Sunday with Schwandt, who survives, with nine their many relatives in the two children, to mourn the loss of an townships. and leave early in surprise last week when the dray Mr. J. K. McLean. of Swinton affectionate husband and father. March for Bethune, Sask., where the groom has prepared a fine

The Chronicle extends to them

Besides his father and mother, Mr. Robt. Smith, of Sperling, still living in Durham, he leaves itors, was one of the horse buyers two brothers, George, in Glenelg, here on Thursday last. We are and Robert, in Durham, and two pleased to learn he is doing well

BORN

RANCE.-In Durham, on Thursday February 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. C Rance. a daughter.

MARRIED

McKECHNIE-MORTON.-At the residence of the bride's father, on Wednesday, February 16th. by Rev. Dr. Farquharson, John McKechnie, of Bethune, Sask., to Francis Marion, daughter of Mr. Alex. Morton, Bentinck.

PREW-McANULTY .- At the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday. February 16th, by Rev. R. Walter Wright, B. D.. Wm. G. Prew, of Normanby, to Sarah Ellen, daughter of Mr. T McAnulty, of Glenelg.

DIED.

daughter, 3 Ann Street, Toronto, on Feb. 21st, Wm. Boyle, in his 90th year. ALJOE.-In Glenelg, on Saturday. February 19th. William Aljoe.

New Spring Dress Goods

Never before have we had such a large showing of Fashionable Dress Goods and Suitings as we have this season.

We have the very latest weaves in plain and fancy stripe and self striped effects in Broad Cloths

Venetians

Pophins

Taffete Cloth

Blugalines

Voiles Panamas

Satin Cloths And Serges with a wide choice of the newest shades in browns, blues, greens, tans, greys, cardinals and black and such new shades as Copenhagen, Blue Reseda Wisteria.

Word About Our Black Dress Goods

This one part of our Dress Goods Department we always pay special attention to and our stock was never as large as it is at the present time. We cordially invite you to inspect our Dress Goods whether you buy or not.

S. F. MORLOCK

JUST RECEIVED

FROM THE LARGEST CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS IN CANADA

A STOCK OF MEN'S, BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING, WHICH FOR style, quality and fit cannot be excelled, and for cheapness we defy competition. Call and be convinced.

LADIES' FURS - A large assortment.

Men's, Youths' and Boys' Caps just to hand. A full line of GROCERIES for the Christmas trade.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID For FOWL DRIED APPLES, BUTTER & EGGS

J. & J. HUNTER.

THE BUSY STORE ON THE BUSY CORNER