A MODERN MIRACLE

The following interesting story has been handed us by Rev. A. C.
Doner, who states his implicit belief in the truthfulness of its re-lator. The child referred to is a daughter of Mr. R. J. Scott, who was in business here some years ago keeping a grocery store on Second avenue east, opposite the town hall Mr Scott is in Owen Sound at present

The prevalent opinion among religious peoples to-day is that the era of miracles is past and that the Spirit's manifestation in the supernatural utterance in tongues, (I Cor. 12, 7, I Cor 14, 2, 13, 14, 22.) is a mere hallucination. That such is not the case is clearly demonstrated first, by the Word of God, and then by such incidents as the following:—

This marvellous experience of little Kathleen Scott is just one of the many indisputable proofs of the foregoing declaration, that we still live in the dispensation of the Spirit and of power.

Mr. R. J. Scott, an ex-resident and merchant of Owen Sound, and father of little Kathleen, was an eye-witness to the event herein related.

During his recent visit to Los Angeles, Cal. he attended the wonderful services held by the Apostolic Faith people in the Azusa street mission. One day while in the upper room, where the saints were tarrying for their baptism in the Holy Ghost, according to Acts 1, 4, 8, there entered a man of culture and distinction, who sat down beside Mr. Scott and his eleven-year-old daughter, Kathleen.

Almost immediately upon his being seated, the little girl, who had been recently baptized in the Spirit, arose to her feet and with the anointing of the Spirit resting upon her mightily, she began to speak in her native tongue (English). After saying a few words, her voice began to tremble and the English ceased. She stretched out her little hand, and with one finger pointed straight at the stranger's face she began speaking in another language unknown to all present, save the stranger to whom it was addressed, and finally concluding her testimony in her own tongue sat down by her father's side.

The stranger at once leaned over in front of Mr Scott and asked where the child had been taught to speak Latin, to which she replied that she had never been taught any language but the English. He said, "Do you not know you were speaking Latin?" She replied, "No. He afterwards enquired for the child's mother, and Mrs. Scott having been pointed out the man asked when her little girl had been taught to speak Latin.
The mother's reply was substantially the same as the girl's, and having assured himself that she had never been taught to speak Latin.

He arose and said, "Ladies and Gentlemen, I have something to say to you. First, I will tell you I am a stranger here, My name is not known to any of you. I heard of this work and came here chiefly through curiosity. I have been lecturing on Infidelity for nearly nineteen years. I am thoroughly educated in Latin and Hebrew, as well as in other languages. I have read the Bible thro many times. I have addressed as many as 7,500 people at one sitting who paid fifty cents each to hear my lectures on Infidelity.

I have listened to the most notable preachers of the day, but this little girl (pointing to Kathleen) has preached the most powerful sermon to me that I have ever listened to, and in only a few words, the language she uttered being in the purest Latin. She has addressed me by my first and second names with Latin expression, saying: 'Charlie, you have no right in this room, this room is only for the godly people who are tarrying for their baptism, you are an un-godly man, your place is down stairs with the ungodly. You go down stairs and tell the people there how you have spent your past life and then get on your knees and ask God to forgive you.
Get salvation in your heart, then go out and preach the gospel of Christ.'

The infidel quickly obeyed her command and went down stairs where he told his story to the people in the mission. He fell on his knees, and like a little child plead with God to forgive him. He was there gloriously saved and is now preaching the Gospel of Christ.—Owen Sound Sun.

An attack of the grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies had failed. Sold

Billy Sunday
Evangelist Billy Sunday will not preach at Canton, owing to some of the ministers refusing to unite with him because of some of his utterances. He is making a series of addresses at Youngstown and some of his pulpit statements follow:

"The dance is one of the most hell-born institutions this side of hell."

"Sometimes there is more Christianity in a sandwich than in a tract."

"Some people say that Christ-ianity has failed. You lie!"

"Jesus says: 'Forgive your debtors.' The world says: 'Sue them for the dough.'"

"The principles of Jesus Christ will make capital and labor shake hands."

"When it comes to divorce I am Roman Catholic from the top of my head to my big toe."

"Every seventh home in America has been damned by a divorce."

"Some people are so stingy that when they loan a fellow ten cents they sing: 'God be with you till we meet again.'"

"Can a man be a Christian and use tobacco? He can, but he will be a mighty dirty one."

"If there is anything I despise it is to see a woman with a dog in her arms. That place is for your baby if you are married."

"I have a temper like a sheet iron stove. A bunch of shavings and a match will make it red hot in a minute."

"The most miserable, the most useless and the most good-for-nothing person on earth is the mere society woman."

"If my daughter had only one dress, and if any part of it was cut off, it would be on the bottom and not on the top, I tell you."

"To some people, the raising of two more children simply means another booze-fighter, another girl for the red light district."

"In a church of a thousand, 50 will go to the prayer meetings and 950 will attend some Godless leg show, dance or card party."

"It's of the devil when we lock up our churches in the summer Then all the devils in hell are having a good time."

"Other things change, but God remains the same. Don't limit him and back him on the side-track."

"When some of you people go to church and sing 'Jesus Lover of My Soul', He isn't any such thing.
He's only a chance acquaintance."
