The Comet and the World.

No need to worry about making wills; we shall all be spiculated together by a noxious gas from the tail of Halley's comet, which seems to be a sort of pestilence in its way. The world has been coming to an end from so many causes since it began—while it was still thought to be flat and since it has been known to be round—and has nevertheless so stubbornly persisted in pursuing its recurring round of night and day, spring and summer, autumn and winter, that Camille Flammarion, the fanciful astronomer, will hardly be credited to any great extent when he suggests that if the earth passes through the tail of Halley's comet we shall be all asphyxiated with cyanogen, or potassium salt, one of the deadliest poisons known to toxicologists. That cyanogen is present in the tail of the comet is told by astronomers of Harvard Observatory, who have found pronounced bands of it in a photographic spectrum. But we doubt if the comet itself, to say nothing of its tail, is dense enough to make any serious inroad upon our atmosphere, while its tail emulates the early homeopathy in its attenuation. Time was when some of us already felt our bones freezing when told by some high authority that the earth would lose heat that in course of some millions of years it would be incapable of sustaining human life. Then the secret of radium and its inexhaustible energy was discovered and we were told on equally high authority that there was no apparent reason why our entire planetary system should not go round indefinitely. And the million-year scare ceased to perturb us.—Montreal Witness.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS

To brighten oil lamp burners, boil for fifteen minutes in buttermilk.

Boil vinegar in the fish skillet or pan to destroy the fish odor.

If feather pillows have a disagreeable odor dry them thoroughly before a clear fire.

Japanned trays should be cleaned with a little sweet oil and then polished with a soft cloth.

Never bathe a baby immediately after it has fed. Two hours, at least should elapse before a bath.

When a child is fretful, give it a little water to drink. Just as often as not, it is simply thirsty.

A piece of mosquito wire screen is an excellent thing to run a flat iron over to take off the rust.

To save grease when frying doughnuts put half a teaspoonful of ginger into the grease when hot.

Bearine, a delicate pomade, grows hair because it contains genuine Canadian Bear grease. 50 cents a jar.

Comforts and quilts should be dried in a good breeze, so that they may be as light and fluffy as when new.

Thin brown bread and butter sandwiches are the most appetizing accompaniment for fish salad of any sort.

Allen's Lung Balm is the standard cure for coughs and colds in the States and Canada.

A spoonful of oxgall to a gallon of water will set the color of almost any goods soaked in it before washing.

A discolored beanpot may be restored to its original whiteness by letting buttermilk stand in it for a day or so.

Underwear brought in a little damp from the line, folded carefully and put near the stove to dry will need no ironing.

A cheap cotton blanket with one thickness cotton batting between and tied like a comforter makes an excellent bed pad.

If you should scorch any colored goods, such as linen, percale, etc., dip instantly in vinegar, then wash and rinse well.

If fish is lightly rolled in flour after having been well dried with a clean cloth, it will be less likely to break up with cooking.

A good polishing cloth for the kitchen, and one that will not be soaked quickly, is made from the small coarse Turkish towels.

Put a tin of ointment in a clock. Davis' Menthol Salve cures quickly a great many of the simple ailments such as cuts, skin injuries, insect bites and stings. 25c. a tin at druggists.

Peel lemons with a knife clear to the white skin, before you put them in the squeezer; the work is easier and you get more juice thereby.

A builder—Are you losing weight? "The D.&L." Emulsion will always help and build you up. Restores proper digestion and brings back health.

Plaster figures in hard or alabaster finish are easily cleaned by dipping a stiff toothbrush in gasoline and scrubbing into all the crevices.

To feed pared apple to the baby run a white tape or cord through the apple and hang the cord around baby's neck. The apple cannot get away.

Brasses take a most beautiful polish if washed in a mixture made of one ounce of alum and a pint of lye, boiled together and used while still warm.

Mix cookie dough at night and set where it is cool. In that way you can use more shortening and roll thinner than when baking right after mixing.

Garments that are to be hung on a rack should be put on hangers rather than pinned to the line. This prevents sagging or marking with clothespins.

To clean old glass pour strong ammonia on it, scrub well with a brush and rinse in clean water. Dry and polish and it will then appear as new.

Sufferers from rheumatism find instant relief in "The D.&L." Menthol Plaster. Be sure and get the genuine. C. Made by Davis & Lawrence, C.

Wet a towel in cold water and cover all kinds of roasted meats, turkey and chicken, to prevent drying. They will retain the flavor and keep moist a long time.

In giving an alcohol rub to a child use an old toilet water bottle with shaker cord, allowing only a few drops to fall. The other hand is then free to massage.

To create a desire to stimulate the heart and circulation. It means a full, high chest, and broad shoulders. It means a good carriage and a well poised head.

No better tonic could be devised than Ferrovim, which consists of fresh lean beef, Citrate of Iron and pure old Spanish Sherry Wine. Just enough of the latter to stimulate the digestion and enable a weakened stomach to assimilate the beef and iron. Try this invigorating tonic if you are thin-blooded, weak and generally run-down. $1.00 per bottle.

If you are doing your own washing and are in a hurry to iron immediately after the clothes are dry, sprinkle with warm water and in ten minutes they are ready to be ironed.

Papers are now more used than tint for walls. The new self-toned or plain papers come in lovely textures, and give more depth and color to a room than the painted wall.

A liberal supply of carbonate of soda placed around the kitchen hearth, and any other favorite haunt of black beetles, will cause their complete disappearance from those places.

If fishy knives and forks are well rubbed with a little butter and put aside for a few minutes, then washed in hot water, the unpleasant smell and taste will be entirely gone.

If hot fat is spilled on the floor pour on it hot water at once. This will set and prevent its soaking into the boards or tiles. When set it can be easily removed with a knife.

Are you frequently hoarse? Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Does your cough annoy you at night, and do you raise mucous in the morning? Do you want relief? If so, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you will be pleased. Sold by all dealers.

Your carpets and rugs should be very much alike so far as weaves are concerned. It is a mistaken idea to buy a fine rug for the best room and put a cheap one in the adjoining room.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are safe, sure and reliable, and have been praised by thousands of women who have been restored to health by their gentle aid and curative properties. Sold by all dealers.

To remove stubborn rust spots from steel, put oil and quicklime on and leave it on for several days. Then remove the coating and rub thoroughly with oil and rotten stone or Bristol brick.

All table linen stains, fruit, and even coffee stains where there is cream in the coffee, may be removed by rubbing the spots with pure glycerine. Let it remain a while, then rinse in lukewarm water.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invariably bring relief to women suffering from chronic constipation, biliousness, headache, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia. Sold by all dealers.

When ironing fine white waists or underwear, lay a bath towel on ironing board, lay buttoned side on it, and iron over wrong side of garment. Between buttons will be ironed and not any ironed off.

Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

When rooms are cramped it will give seeming space to use on the hall and rooms opening out of it the same paper in soft, light tints, as gray, green, or light, cold brown. If there be plenty of sunlight.

Before turning jelly out on to a saucer, wipe off the latter with a damp cloth. The jelly will then slip over to the centre of the dish and not stick to one side of it as it does when no dampening is used.

Ink stains may be soaked out in some milk. If any trace of the stain should still be left, rinse the garments in a weak solution of chloride of lime, always supposing that the garment is white, for the lime is a bleaching agent.

To keep stove brushes clean, always use old newspapers first, to take off the grease of the stove and oven, and then to polish. A daily polish with old newspapers will keep the stove and steel in good order, and with less labor.

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which will require any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Sold by all dealers.

Varnish and oil paints.—Turpentine and soap.

Iron rust and ink.—Weak solution of oxalic acid (one tablespoonful to one glass of water.)

Coal tar or wagon grease.—Lard, then soap; wash alternately with water and turpentine.

$100 and Costs

A couple of interesting liquor cases were argued out before Magistrate Harness and Armstrong here on Friday last, when Capt. D.D. McLaughlin, of Ceylon, and Richard Armstrong, of Pricerville, were accused of selling liquor in their hotels, which are in the local option township of Artemesia.

A couple of private detectives in the employ of the Provincial Government visited these places a couple of weeks ago, and claimed to have been served with whiskey at Ceylon, and beer which they believed contained over two and one-half per cent. alcohol at Pricerville. They communicated their belief to the Provincial authorities, they in turn to Licenses Inspector Halbert, who laid the information, and the trial was the result. After hearing the evidence, the magistrate imposed a fine of $100 and costs, amounting in all to about $125 each.

Provincial Inspector Ayearst, of Toronto, conducted the case, while Mr. W.H. Wright, of Owen Sound, acted for the defendants.—Markdale Standard.
