Corner Concerns.
 Miss Sarah Tucker has been quite ill but is recovering nicely under the treatment of Dr. Jamieson.
 A case of diphtheria is reported at the home of Mr. Samuel Ritchie, but there is not much likelihood of it spreading.
 Mrs. James Eden is in Toronto visiting her daughter, Miss Lottie, who is quite ill, and intends bringing her home as soon as she gets sufficiently strong.
 Mr. Andrew Scott has been ill during the past week, but we sincerely hope he will regain his usual health and strength very shortly, as he has had more than his share of trouble lately.
 St. Paul's Sunday school was re-organized last Monday with James Matthews as Superintendent, Jas. Mack, Secretary, and Thos. Tucker, Treasurer. The former teachers were re-appointed.
 The Darkies Corners Crew believes in the old adage
 That he who in the world would thrive
 Must either hold the plow or drive, and keeps his old dad trudging along beside him to do the driving.
 He who in the world would thrive
 Should hold the plow and also drive.
 Now since you have started to give the pictures of lady correspondents, we must leave it to the bachelors and widowers to put in their best digs. All we married people can do is to admire them secretly, and keep our wives in the dark.

 "Blest be the tie that binds," followed by the chairman's address. The address and presentation came next, to which Mr. Meena made a brief, but suitable reply. Speeches followed by Messrs John Bell, Thos. McFadden, Jas. Atkinson, Henry Lawrence, John Hewitt, W. Weir, Thos. McComb, and A.A. Alloe. Singing by the Misses Weir, readings by Messrs Thos. A. Allan, and Ernest McGirr, a chorus by the McGirr family, and instrumental music. At midnight, supper was served by willing hands, and the inner man was satisfactorily attended to. Mr. Thos. McGirr read the address, while Mrs. C. Ritchie, Blanche Bell, Chrissie McGirr and Lena Ritchie made the presentation which consisted of a purse containing a nice sum of money to Mrs. Meena, to Ruby, a Bible, to Jennie, a hymn book, to John, a book, and to Della, a child's set of three pieces, knife, fork, and spoon. The meeting closed by the singing of the farewell hymn, "God be with you till we meet again." The following is the address.

To Mr. and Mrs. Meenagh.
 We your friends, neighbors, and well-wishers, hearing you are soon to depart from our midst, have met here this evening to express our regret that you are leaving our neighborhood to make your home in the great west. For the many years you have been with us, we have always found you an obliging neighbor and a kind friend. To those who possess those qualities of true greatness and uprightness of character, it makes it doubly hard to say goodbye. As a slight token of the esteem in which you and your family are held, we ask you to accept this purse, and your family these small gifts, as we wish to recognize in some way, the kindly feelings we have for you. When in your new home, and you have gathered around the family circle, we wish you to remember the friends you have left behind, who will be glad to hear of your success in temporal and spiritual things.
 Signed in behalf of the neighbors

When you buy Paint, get the real thing
 It is extravagant and foolish to buy and pay for paint, and instead of paint, get a mixture containing cheap adulterants.
 Pure paint—the real thing—spreads easier, covers more surface (and covers it better) and wears longer than adulterated paint. Pure paint is far more economical to use. Pure paint gives the handsomest finish.
 Pure paint insures you against paint "troubles", the cracking, the peeling, scaling, etc. that comes from the use of impurities.
 "English" Liquid Paint is pure paint—made from 70% pure white lead (Brandram's B.B. Genuine) 30% pure zinc white, pure linseed oil, pure turpentine and dryer. It will give you the greatest satisfaction and save you money on your paint bill.
 Made by Brandram-Henderson Limited, in 45 shades in addition to black and white. Come in for a color card. 3
