Flesherton

The masons have commenced the brick work on Dr. Murray's new residence.

Mr. Thos. Bentham, of Chatsworth, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Spence, of Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. Best, and other relatives.

Mr. Chas. McTavish was home from Toronto for a visit over Sunday and Monday.

Misses Lynette and Amy Hanbury, of Dundalk, visited over Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Robt. Moore.

Mr. Chas. Ottewell is home from the Veterinary College, Toronto, and will again assist his father in practice.

Mr. Will Bentham has taken the position of traveller with Lemon Bros. wholesale produce merchants of (V.V.) Scund.

At the monthly meeting of the W.M.S. in the Methodist church last week, Mrs. W.H. Bunt was elected delegate to the annual meeting of the Toronto Conference branch in May.

Leslie Norris and John Hastie were before Magistrates McMullen and McGill last week charged by Inspector Halbert with supplying liquor to one on the prohibited list. After taking the evidence, the case against Norris was dismissed, but Hastie was fined $25 and costs.

As the result of the work of General Organizer Lees, a new Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters was organized here last week with officers as follows: P. C.R., Fred Pedlar; C.R., J.A. Boyd; V.C.R., Robt. Swanson; Chap., Rev. J.V. Laughlin; Treas., John Wright; F.S. — Shank; R.S., Ed. Thompson; S.B., Geo. Clark; J.B., Lewis Pedlar.

At a meeting of the high school trustees held here last week, the site for the new building was decided on being the Boyd property two acres on Campbell Street, south of the Methodist parsonage. The location is good, and the site an excellent one for the very handsome structure to be erected thereon as shown by the plans, which have come to hand.

Mr. Wm. Griffith, traveller for the W.B. Hamilton Shoe Company, Toronto, made a special trip here on Saturday to spend part of Sunday with his old friend, Mr. Wm. Clayton, who has been in very poor health recently. Mr. Griffith has visited here regularly for 37 years during all of which time Mr. Clayton has been a valuable customer.

Among the sick.—Mrs. Clinton is no better. Her daughter, Mrs. J. Smith of Kimberley has been with her the past two weeks. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Stewart have slightly improved. The latter is under the care of a professional nurse. Mrs. Archie Boyd has been very ill the past week, and Mrs. Dr. Murray has also been quite ill, but both are recovering.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons, near Saugeen Junction, was the scene of a quiet, but pretty wedding on Wednesday evening of last week, when their youngest daughter, Hannah, was joined in marriage with Mr. Wm. H. Little, of Osprey township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H.E. Wellwood, B.D., of this place. The bride, who was unattended, wore the conventional veil, with wreath of orange blossoms, and looked sweet in her dainty wedding gown of white batiste, trimmed with valenciennes lace. After the marriage, a choice wedding repast was served, and later the young couple left for their home near Wareham, followed by many good wishes. A short honeymoon will be spent in Muskoka visiting the groom's sister, Mrs. Rev. W. Gaudin. The bride's traveling costume was of navy blue broadcloth with hat to match.

On Thursday last sad news was received by relatives here of the sudden death of Mr. Rody Bentham of Buffalo, locomotive engineer, who was almost instantly killed on the tender of his train by his head striking the beam of an overhead bridge. The deceased, who was about 30 years of age, was born near Flesherton, the second son of the late Mr. John Bentham. A few years ago he moved with his widowed mother to New York State, bearing with him good credentials from Chalmers' church, of which he was a member. He was a fine specimen of young Canadian manhood, and had risen to a good position on the other side. His untimely end was a shock to his numerous friends here, who sympathize with his sorrowing mother, and young wife, left with two children, the youngest an infant of three weeks. Mrs. Wm. Wilcock, an aunt of the deceased, went to Buffalo to attend the funeral, accompanied by her son, Thos. of Toronto.

On Tuesday evening of last week there passed away at her late home at West Toronto, a very highly respected woman in the person of Mrs. Thorp Wright, who had numerous friends in this community, where she spent many years of her life. Mrs. Wright's illness, which extended over several months, and ended with a paralytic seizure, was borne with that fortitude and cheerful Christian resignation possessed only by the believing heart. The remains were brought here for burial, and on Thursday afternoon interred in the family plot, the obsequies being conducted by Rev. H.E. Wellwood, a relative of the deceased. Mr. Wright, two daughters, son Edwin, and Mr. C. James, accompanied the remains from the city and were met at the depot by a large number of sympathizing friends and relatives, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Pickell, Mr. Chas. Pickell, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Hill and Miss Hill of Markdale. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes, and the pall-bearers here were Thos. Henry, R. Wilcock, Thos. Clayton, John Wright, W.A. Armstrong and J.J. Brown. The deceased, whose maiden name was Eliza Jane James, was born in Lanark County on October 21st, 1831, and was therefore in her 79th year. When a young woman she came to Artemesia, and met her future husband, to whom she was married 51 years on the 22nd of September last. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Low Wright, Toronto line, the marriage being performed by Rev. Jos. Hill, one of the pioneer Methodist ministers here. Mr. and Mrs. Wright were among the earliest members of the Methodist society here and continued faithful in their allegiance to the church. Mr. Wright is the only surviving member of the first trustee board of the Flesherton church. After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Wright settled on the farm east of the village, now owned by Mr. Miles Thistlewaite, where they resided until April 1st, 1897, when they retired at Weston, later settling at West Toronto. To them were born three sons, and two daughters, Geo. E., of Kettle Falls, Wash.; John T., of Independence, Kas.; Sarah, wife of Dr. Earl Strain Great Falls, Mont.; and Edwin, of Wichita, Kas, all of whom, with the bereft husband, have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sorrow.

ANTI LOCAL OPTION PAPER.

There arrived at the Rep. sanctum since last issue a copy of the Owen Sound Herald, the organ of the anti-local optionists there, and the fourth paper to be issued in Grey's county town. It is a credit to Owen Sound's three established newspapers, The Times, Advertiser and Sun, that not one of them would become the defender of bar-rooms.

The established press of the Province as a rule stands true to the public's best interests in the battle against vice in every form, and recognizes in the public sale of whisky as a beverage, one of the greatest sources of vice, hence their practically unanimous support of all measures, such as local option, license reduction, etc., aiming to lessen the sale of intoxicating liquor. No well-edited Canadian newspaper that we know of has any desire to injure hotel keepers, or the business of hotel keeping, it is the bar-rooms such newspapers are against, and see the great need of being closed in the public interest—bar-room keeping has no right to be a part of hotel-keeping, and he is not a crank or a faddist who thinks so.—Mt. Forest Representative.

It is well to have on hand a remedy, simple, effective and easily applied, for mosquito bites, insect stings, sores, bruises, sunburn, and injuries to the skin, and forty other ailments not always dangerous, but which can be cured by outward application. Such a remedy is Davis' Menthol Salve (The D. & L.), which comes in tins for 25 cts. at druggists.
