

What the "Crown" Gang Plow does

One man instead of two

Make this test: The first day give your hired man a single-furrow plow and two horses. Take another single-furrow plow and two horses yourself. Then, do one day's plowing. Together, you will plow three acres, under favorable conditions.

Three horses instead of four

Next day, use the "Crown" Gang plow and three horses. You'll find that you can still plow three acres.

One "Crown" Gang Plow instead of two single furrow Plows

The second day the same work has been done with one man instead of two, three horses instead of four, one "Crown" Gang instead of two single-furrow plows. What this saving means to you in dollars and cents you can figure out for yourself. But it is enough to pay for the "Crown" Gang in a few weeks.

The "Crown" Gang stays right down to its work. It turns the furrows more evenly than a single-furrow plow. The easy-working levers are conveniently located. The wheels have dust-proof boxes with roller-bearings. You should learn more about the "Crown" Gang right away, and about our special orchard gang plows, too. Mark Twain Likes the Weed.

Mark Twain, in a sermon to anti-tobaccoesites says: "I don't want any of your statistics. I took your whole batch and lit my pipe with it. I hate your kind of people. You never try to find out how much solid comfort, relaxation and enjoyment a man derives from smoking in the course of a lifetime, which is worth ten times the money he would save by letting it alone or the appalling aggregate of happiness lost in a lifetime by your kind of people from not smoking."

Russia's Mutton King.

There is only one man in the world who owns 35,000 sheep dogs, and he is a Russian. Some people call him the "Russian Mutton King." He is the largest owner of sheep anywhere. They whiten the Siberian plains for hundreds of square miles, and the whole of the flocks which he owns total up to 1,750,000 sheep. Gustav Jovanovitch is his name. We are not in the habit of thinking of Russian millionaires, and yet a man whose flocks necessitate 35,000 sheep dogs to keep them in order, one dog to fifty sheep, must be a millionaire and more.

Mothers, you will find Nerviline an invaluable aid in preventing and curing sickness. Keep a bottle right at hand, some day you will need it badly. Sold everywhere at 25c.

Another Joshua

It is always a temptation to air one's special knowledge. A county judge down in a Southern State, who was proud of his familiarity with Scripture, was weak enough to yield occasionally to this temptation.

One day an old negro was brought in from the mountain district under suspicion of maintaining an illicit still. There was no real evidence against him.

"What's your name, prisoner," asked the judge, as he peered at the shuffling black man.

"Mah name's Joshua, judge," was the reply.

"Joshua, eh?" said the judge, as he rubbed his hands. "Joshua, you say? Are you the same Joshua spoken of in Holy Writ—the Joshua who made the sun stand still?"

"No, judge," was the hasty answer, "Ah'm de Joshua dat made de moon shine."

Discovered Just in Time.

The Nixon block, occupied by Messrs. Ritchie Bros., general merchants, had a close call from fire Monday evening shortly after six o'clock. The fire originated in a dressmaking shop upstairs, just vacated that day by Misses Thompson and Jamieson. It appears that some live ashes, which were supposed to be dead, were emptied from a stove into a wood-box in the room. The room was then locked up. Luckily, the smoke was noticed before the store below was closed for the day or the blaze would have got such a start that it would have been very difficult to handle, particularly so if it had got a start in the dry goods below. As it was, a hole was burned in the floor, and a couple of joists partly burned through. It was a very narrow escape for one of the good business blocks of the village, and possibly adjoining places.—Dundalk Herald.

Must Produce Them

A doctor tells a good story in connection with a lad who recently was in his employ. It was part of his duty to answer the surgery bell and usher the patients into the consulting room.

One morning there presented himself at the surgery door a young fellow with whom Buttons was on speaking terms.

"Halloa, Jackson," he remarked, "what's the matter with you?"

"Oh, I just want to see the doctor," was the reply.

"Have yer brought yer symptoms with yer?" inquired Buttons, "cos that's the fast thing he'll ask yer about. If yer ain't brought 'em ye'd better pop back and get 'em; he won't be down for another quarter of an hour and he's awful pernickler about 'em."

Shooting Accident at Markdale.

Tommy Gallamore accidentally shot a bullet through his left hand while handling a revolver in Hill's hardware department on Monday. It was a thirty-two calibre bullet and after going through his hand entered an opposite wall about two and one-half inches. Tommy has scarcely yet gotten over his fright, but will carry a sore hand for a while to remind him of his narrow escape. It's the old, old story: "He didn't know it was loaded."—Standard.

Boy Fred Barn.

Wesley Cuyler, of Huron, suffered a loss on Thursday that necessitates his leaving the township in which he was born. He was working in the granary cleaning seed grain, and his little boy was playing elsewhere in the barn. The boy had got hold of matches and he set fire to some fodder, and the flames spread so rapidly that he would have been burned to death if the father had not been so near him. There was a heavy wind blowing and the barn as well as all the contents, including one horse and a lot of implements, was soon in ashes. The building had been insured for $1500, but the policy, through some oversight, was allowed to lapse in November. Mr. Cuyler's loss is complete, and he will therefore sell his farm and seek better luck elsewhere.—Kingardine Review.

Woman

Her waist begins just below her neck. Her hips have been planed off even with the rest of her body. She is usually buttoned up the back and around her neck she wears a section of barbed wire covered with lace. She wears on her head a blonde haystack of hair, and on top of this a central dome, with rings about the same size as those of Saturn. She is swathed in her gown like an Indian pappoose, and on the end of her feet are dabs of patent leather. She walks on still-like heels with the expertness of a tight-rope dancer. The pores of her skin are full of fine, white powder. This is a woman.—Harper's Weekly.
