William Clayton—By the death of Mr. Wm. Clayton, which occurred within a few minutes of midnight on Thursday last, this village suffered the loss of one of its oldest and most highly respected residents—a man who by his upright life and strict integrity in all his business relations in every home. Only the widow of the deceased and Mr. A. Munshaw are here now of those who were residents fifty years ago. Mr. Clayton who passed his 78th birthday on April 24th was born in the old city of York, England. When a young man he came to Canada and for some time lived in Toronto and Clarendon. At the latter place he was married to Miss Sarah Strachan in 1830 and the venerable couple celebrated their Golden Wedding here on the 21st of January last. In the beginning of 1861 Mr.
Clayton settled here and has since conducted a successful boot and shoe business in which he is succeeded by his son Thomas. Two other sons also survive, viz. David, J. P. in business at Lang, Sask., and William, Jeweler, at Greenwood, Ont. An only daughter died some years ago. The funeral took place to the public cemetery on Monday afternoon under the auspices of Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M. of which the deceased was one of the oldest members. The impressive burial service of the Order was conducted by the Wm. Master T.
A. Blakely. After interment a largely attended service was held in the Methodist church the pastor Rev. H.
E. Wellwood preaching a short appropriate sermon from Ps. 116:15 "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints". Revs. Jos.
Young, of Markdale, and H. Berry, of Priceville, assisted in the service and Mr. M. K. Richardson, close friend of the deceased for forty-five years, in a beautiful address and touching manner paid a fitting tribute to his memory. Mr. W. Barnhouse of Thor-onto, sang "A few more years shall roll" and Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" was rendered by Miss Trimble, Mrs. H. H. Wright, and Mrs. M. C. W.
Bellamy. The Methodist church has lost much by the death of Mr.
Clayton who was one of the oldest and most faithful members and officials in the church which he frequently represented at District meetings and annual conferences. For about thirty years he was librarian of the church and for a number of years seldom absent from Sabbath School.
On the Quarterly Board he was equally faithful and for a number of years has been Recording Steward. He was a stalwart temperance man and always stood for the best morals of the place. A wreath from the officials of the Methodist church and a pillow from Prince Arthur Lodge were among the floral tributes. The deceased's son William of Cornwall, and brother-in-law Mr. David Strachan, of Toronto, were present at the funeral.
Others who noticed were Mr. Thorp Wright, Toronto, Mr. W. G. Pickett, Markdale, Mr. Frank Irwin, Durham, and Messrs. W. L. McFarland and J.
W. Tucker of Markdale who joined the members of Prince Arthur Lodge.
Out of respect to the deceased the schools were closed in the afternoon and the business places during the time of the funeral. The children of the Methodist Sunday School marched in a body to the cemetery.

At the Quarterly Official Board meeting in the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon last Stewards were elected for the ensuing year as follows:—Wm. Clayton, (Recorder); W. H. Bunt, assistant; W. A. Armstrong, Isaac Sinclair, R. Waller, Jos.
Buchanan, W. G. Shannon, Dr.
Murray was elected pew steward and W. H. Bunt representative to District Wm. H. Bunt the finances were found to be well being over one hundred dollars in advance of last year at the same period. Very kindly words were spoken of the pastor Rev. Mr.
Wellwood and a unanimous invitation extended to him to return next Conference year.

At the annual meeting of the W.
M. S. held in the Methodist parsonage on Thursday afternoon last officers were elected as follows:—President, Mrs. W. H. Thurston; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. Wellwood; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs.
Hibert; Treas., Mrs. Bunt; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Trimble; Rec. Sec., Mrs. Mitchell; dist Ladies' Aid was held on Tuesday evening of last week when the following officers were elected:—Pres. Mrs.

up and gardening on the grounds.

The news on Saturday morning of the death of our Sovereign King Edward was a shock to the community and source of deep sorrow to all.
Flags at half mast indicated mourning for the deceased monarch.

There were large congregations at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches on Sunday when Revs. R.
M. Hamilton and Wm. Kettlewell, representatives of the Dominion Alliance, gave very able and deeply interesting addresses. At the two services nearly $50.00 were contributed to the work of the Alliance. The speakers were also at Vandeleur, Eugenia, Rockvale and Proton all of which we learn gave liberal contributions.

Mr. George Watson completed his cut of logs at the Durham Corners last week and is this week moving his mill to the 10th con. of Collingwood where he has a large contract probably three months sawing.

covered stairway built at the door entrance to his upstairs residence.
The tower of the Presbyterian church is undergoing repairs this week.

Mrs. James Brodie, who has been in Toronto several months under treatment, has returned home so improved as to be able to walk about. Her friends are pleased to see her on the way to recovery.

Miss Ella Karstedt has been laid up for a week having had the misfortune to dislocate her knee cap.

Mr. and Mrs. Nuhn's little 3-year-old daughter has had hip disease develop which we learn will necessitate her being taken to the hospital for treatment.

inst. to Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Phillips, a daughter, still born.

Mrs. John Wright Sr., has returned to her home here after spending the winter with her daughter at Glasgo,

Mr. Fred Hickling paid a short visit here on Friday last.

Mr. W. Trimble has sold the recently purchased Spronle block to Mr.
Wesley Baskin of this place. Mr.
Trimble continues the post office situated in the block.

Mr. David Stevia, of Chesley, has secured the contract for the new Continuation School upon which work will begin at once. The trustees, who already have well drilled on the ground sinking for water, have sold the $13000 debentures issued at a remarkably good figure and expect to complete the building with heating and all the equipment well within the sum realized.

We are indebted to Mr. Jos. Cornfield and Mr. Geo. Harris each for a nice mess of speckled trout—the first treat of the season.

gaged principal of the Continuation
