ZAM-BUK SAVED THIS BABY

Mrs. M. Barrett,
1000 St. Jean St.,
Montreal, says:
"A horrid rash came out all over my baby's face and spread until it had totally covered his scalp.
It was irritating and painful, and caused the little one hours of suffering. We tried soaps and powders and salves, but he got no better. He refused his food, got quite thin and worn, and was reduced to a very serious condition. I was advised to try Zam-Buk, and did so. It was wonderful how it seemed to cool and ease the child's burning, painful skin. Zam-Buk from the very commencement seemed to go right to the spot, and the pimples and sores and the irritation grew less and less. Within a few weeks my baby's skin was healed completely. He has now not a trace of rash, or eruption, or eczema, or burning sores. Not only so, but cured of the tormenting skin trouble, he has improved in general health."
Zam-Buk is sold at all stores and medicine vendors, 50c, a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 6 boxes for $2.50. A certain cure for all skin diseases, cuts, burns, etc., and for piles.

Names of States of the United States and Their Meaning.

ALABAMA—An Indian name, meaning "Here we rest."
ARKANSAS—A compound word of which the prefix is French (arc, "a bow,") and the Indian name Kansas, meaning "smoky water"; so that Arkansas means "a bow (or bend) of smoky water."
CALIFORNIA—A name taken from an old Spanish romance written as early as 1520, and originally applied to a fabulous island near the East Indies. It has in itself no meaning.
CAROLINA—The two Carolinas were originally one tract of territory called Carolina after Charles IX. of France, in 1564.
COLORADO—A Spanish word, meaning, "red color," referring to the hue of a portion of its soil.
CONNECTICUT—An Indian word meaning "the long river," referring to the Connecticut River the mouth of which is in the present State.
DAKOTA—An Indian word meaning "leagued," referring to the allied tribes of the Sioux Indians, who roamed over what are now North and South Dakota.
DELAWARE—A name given first to the bay and thence to the State in honor of Lord de la Warr, who visited what is now Delaware, and died there in 1610.
FLORIDA—From the Spanish, meaning "flowery" because Florida was discovered in 1519 by Ponce de Leon on Easter Sunday, which the Spanish call "the Feast of Flowers."
GEORGIA—Named after George II. of England, when he established a colony in what is now a State of the Union.
ILLINOIS—From the Indian Illini, meaning "men," with a French suffix the whole signifying "tribes of men."
INDIANA—A name given to the territory in 1800, and formed out of the word "Indian."
IOWA—An Indian word, meaning "drowsy."
KANSAS—An Indian word, meaning as noted above, "smoky water."
KENTUCKY—An Indian word, meaning "head of the River."
LOUISIANA—A name formed in honor of King Louis XIV., of France.
MARYLAND—A name formed from the middle name of Queen Henrietta Maria, wife of Charles I., of England.
MAINE—The territory of Maine was so called from the Province of Maine in France in compliment to Queen Henrietta Maria, of England, who was French by birth and had large possessions in the French province. This queen therefore gave her name to two States of the Union.
MASSACHUSETTS—An Indian compound word, meaning "the land around the great hills."
MICHIGAN—A name originally applied to the great lake and meaning a "fish-trap," from the shape of the body of water.
MINNESOTA—An Indian word, meaning "cloudy water."
MISSISSIPPI—A name applied to the State in 1800 from the Mississippi River. The meaning is "long river," being the same, therefore, in sense as the name Connecticut.
MISSOURI—A State named in 1820 from the river which is the greatest tributary of the Mississippi. The term is of Indian origin, and means "muddy water."
NEBRASKA—An Indian term, meaning "shallow water."
NEVADA—A Spanish name meaning "snow-white" and referring to the snow upon the range of the Sierra Nevada.
NEW HAMPSHIRE—Named by John Mason, of Hampshire, in England who, in 1730, obtained from the English Crown a grant of this territory. At one time, New Hampshire was called by the classical name of Laconia.
NEW JERSEY—Named in honor of Sir George Carteret who had been Governor of the Island of Jersey in the British Channel. The name Jersey itself is a corruption of the Latin Caesarea, and thus really means "Caesar's land."
NEW YORK—Named in honor of the Duke of York (afterward James II.) to whom his brother, Charles II., granted the territory in 1664.
OHIO—An Indian word, meaning "beautiful," and originally applied to the Ohio River.
OKLAHOMA—A name borrowed from the Cherokee dialect, and meaning "home of the red men." It was given to the territory by Colonel Boudinot an educated Indian who married a white woman.
OREGON—A name of doubtful origin but probably from the Indian word meaning "river of the West."
PENNSYLVANIA—A compound word from the name of William Penn and the Latin silva, "forest." Hence, the name of the State means "Penn's forest."
RHODE ISLAND—A name given to the territory in 1671, from the Island of Rhodes in the Mediterranean, because of a fancied resemblance between the two.
TENNESSEE—An Indian name, meaning "big bend of the river," that is the Mississippi which bounds this State on the west.
TEXAS—A word of Spanish origin, and probably meaning "the land of the saddle-bow."
UTAH—Named from the Ute tribe of Indians. The early Mormon settlers called it Deseret, a word taken from the Book of Mormon, and supposed to mean "industry."
VERMONT—From the French verb meaning "green mountain," a name officially recognized in 1777.
VIRGINIA—From Queen Elizabeth, whose subjects loved to speak of her as "the Virgin Queen."
WASHINGTON—Named of course, from George Washington, and so far the only State to bear the name of an American President.
WISCONSIN—An Indian name, which means "rushing channel."
WYOMING—A name corrupted from an almost unpronounceable Indian word meaning "the land of large plains."

Little Isabelle Little Killed by a Grand Trunk Train

A very sad accident occurred near Londesboro on Tuesday afternoon, resulting in the death of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little of the 12th con. of Hullett.
Mrs. Little had come in to Clinton on the morning train, bringing her baby and one other child with her, to spend the day with her sister Mrs. Lock Cree. Little Isabelle, aged between two and three, was left at home in charge of the older children and the father. In the afternoon Mr. Little went across the track of the L. H. & B. which runs through his farm, to do some work, and unknown to the father the child followed. She wandered onto the track and sitting down between the rails, quite unconscious of her danger she began playing with pebbles. Suddenly the fast express passed around a curve which occurs at this point. The engineer saw the child and immediately applied the emergency brakes but was unable to stop the train which rushed upon the helpless little one. No inquest was held as the coroner decided that no blame could be attached to the trainmen who had done everything possible to prevent the accident.
A message was at once sent to the mother who, almost prostrated with grief, was taken home. The circumstance is a most heart-rendering one and the sympathy of the whole community goes out to the grief stricken parents in their bitter trial.—Clinton News-Record.
