ie spent hearly forty years. Mis bristian resignation Al that could kindness of her family for her relief and c mfort was freely bestowed.

She was d vo ed to her family and a kind neighbor who will be missed in beso maiden name was 'na Ward.

. and was there matrice to Me.

was born in Yorkshire, England, in Harrison in 1859. In 1871 they came to Canada and settled wear ... vir ner husband, who is at present very ill, two sons Ward of Slver Creek.

Mrs. John Whitten, Toronto.

J., and Alfred near Fie-herton, and

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Pidlar, east of the village was the cone of a quiet wedding on Weater.

daughter Leta Pearl was joined it.

marriage with Mr. Carlton Emerson near the village. There were no at-tives witnessed the ceremony performed by Rev. H. E. Wellwood, B. D. of this place. The bride's sister Mrs.

John Beecroft, played the wedding march. The bride who was given away by her father was prectily gowned in gray taff ta silk trimmed, wi h silk applique and wore a wreath of orange biossoms in her hair. After honeymoon, the bride travelling in a stylish suit with hat to match. She was the recipient of numerous valuable wedding presents. Mr. and Mrs.

purchased Davis farm west of the news on Saturday from Coldwater of the death of his little four-year-old grand-daughter, Gertrude England, who was fatally burned on Fr day by a lamp upsetting and igniting her clothing. The child was terribly burned and died after three hours suffering. Mrs. Breen and doughter

Mrs. John Wright left on Saturday evening for Coldwater, Numerous friends deeply sympathize with the bereit parents who formerly resided

The annual meeting of the executive of the Pible Society here was held in the Presbyterian church last week, the President, Mr. T. R. McKenzie in the chair. The treasurer reported a good year $86.15 having been received.

A balance on hand from former year of $17.30 made a total of $103 45 out of which $100.42 were contributed to the work of the Society. 73 Bibles were sold by Mr. Bunt amounting to $18.15.

President, T. R. McKenzie; Secretary,

Richard Allen; Treasurer, and Bibie depository, W. H. Bunt; Auditors, W.

dition to the resident ministers the executive:-Flesherton, C. Stewart, J.

F. Chard, Geo. Cairns, W. J. Bellamy,

T. Clayton, Dr. Murray, T. Whitten.

L. Betts, B. Wyatt, Cevion,-S.

Hemphili; T. Chislett. Eugenia,-R.

Plantt, H. Williams, E. Graham, H.

Cairns. Vandeluer, - Jos. Buchanon,

J. I. Graham. Proton Station-N.

M. Phintps, R. Akitt. Mount Zion-outside points and a union mass meeting in F.esherton the dates to be fixed

No. 6 Company which leaves for

Niagara Camp to-morrow (Tuesday) morning will be a few men short of the full number. Capt. C. N. Richardson has asked for leave of absence

Mr. Wm. Burnett lost a valuable

Mr. Richard Bentham and mother

Mr. James Hemphill and son Walin-law, Mrs. Eliza Paul were at Elm-owing to business ties.

J. Watson, W. Merton, It was re-

J. Belamy and Chas. Stewart, In ad-

Mr. John Breen received the sad the mariage a dainty wedding rapast day evening of last week when their Larison had a prolonged and at times evere i hess which was borne with

TELEPHONE No. 10 CALL ME UP

When you want anything in the fine of draying done promptly and carefully.

CHARGES MODERATE PROMPT SERVICE

F. HIND DRAYMAN, DURHAM Orders may be left at the

LAMBTON STREET TELEPHONE No. 10

***

*****************

Hahn House Stable or at my residence-

The Store to Buy Your Fruit At

Strawberry season just opening. Pineapples by crate, the season now in; low prices. Fresh stock of Oranges, Bananas Lemons. Nuts and Candy of all kinds.

We are the good Flour people. All the best brands in stock. Are you buying from us? Prices

BUSTER AND EGGS WANTED. Cash orgtrade and one price.

Mrs. Beggs & Sons

BIG

Ha Solls Cheap

Caider's Block

Lace Curtains

2 yards long, 25 inches wide. 21 yds. long, 33 inches wide, pair ..... 50c 3 vards long, 30 inches wide, pair ...... 70c 31 yds, long, 50 inches wid-. 34 yds. long, 60 inches wide, paic.....$1.00

Table Linen, 51 inches wide, Table Linen, 63 inches wide, yard ..... 50e Table Odeloth, 45 in. wide, yard ..... 25c From Oilcioth, 1 and 2 yards

Large 30x00 Smyrna Rugs at Infant's, Childrens' and

Ladies' Vests all prices New Prints and Ginghams See our 25: and 50c Dress Goods New lot of Glassware just in CALL AND SEE US

H. BEAN

You will regret you did not attend one of Canada's Highgrade Business Colleges, located at

Peterborough Welland Orangeville Wingham Walkerton Clinton

> Now is a good time to enter

Our graduates receive from $400,00 to $1500,00 per annum

Mail courses in 100 different subjects.

Write for particulars

WINGHAM BUSINESS COLLEGE

GEO. SPOTTON, President A. H. SPOTTON, Principal

Pumps, Curbing, Tile

ANYONE ONE NEEDING run-through the two families it"-New Pumps, Pump Re-Culvert Tile, see . . .

JNO. SCHULTZ or myself at the shop

George Whitmore

THE MAN FROM BRODNEY'S

Continued from page 3. the sunlit edge of the ferrace, where two servants awaited them with para-

"There he is! See him: almost whispered Browne, as if the colitary, motionless figure at the foot of the a enue was likely to hear his voice and be frightened away.

The enemy was sitting serenely on one of the broad iron benches just in side the gates to the park, his arms stretched out along the back, his legs extended and crossed. It was quite apparent that he was basily surveying the chateau, pulling with consistent ease at the cigarette which drooped from his lips.

"Mr. Britt was right," said Mrs Browne irrelevantly. She was peering at the stranger through the binoculars

"He is very good looking." "And you from Boston, too," scone Lady Deppingham. Mrs. Browne flush ed and smiled deprecatingly. "Wonder what he's doing here in the grounds?" puzzled Browne. "It's plain to me that he is resting his audacious bones," said her lady ship, glancing brightly at her co

Three men were approaching by the path which led down from the far away stables. Browne recognized the dark skinned men as servants in the chateau-the major domo, the chef and the master of the stables.

"Lord Deppingham must have sen them down to pitch him over the wall, he said, with an excited grin.

"Imposed do! My husband is hunting for sapphires in the .... me back of She did not complete the sentence.

The enemy was greeling the statuesque natives with a friendliness that upset all calculations It was evident that the meeting was prearranged. There was no attempt at secrecy. The conference, whatever its portent, had the merit of being quite aboveboard. In the end the tall solicitor, lifting his helmet with a gesture so significant that it left no room for speculation. turned and sanntered through the broad gateway and out into the forest road. The three servants returned as they had come, by way of the bridle path along the wall.

"The nerve of him!" exclaimed Browne. "That graceful attention was meant for us. I'll have Britt interview those fellows at once. Our kitchen, our stable and our domestic discipline are threatened."

They hastened to the chateau and regaled the resourceful Britt with the last after a long illness there passed disquieting news.

That evening he dragged the reluc-

The enemy was sitting serenely on one of the iron benches.

hanging garden and deliberately interrupted the game of bridge which was going on.

Britt, calmly dropping into a chair family marked for longivity of life. near by, "this place is full of spies." "Spies!" cried four voices in unison Mr. Saunders nodded a plaintive apol-

"Yes, sir, every native servant here is a spy. That's what the enemy was here for today. I've analyzed the situation and I'm right. Ain't I, Mr. Saunders? Of course I am. He came here to tell 'em what to do and how to report our affairs to him. See? Moreover, he's getting the evidence of everybody to prove that Skaggs and Wyckholme were men of sound mind up to the hour of their death. He has the depositions of agents and dealers in Bombay, Aden. Suez and three or ralgia, earache, sprains, burns, four European cities, all along that bruises, insect stings, cuts, piles, Wellwood a short visit last week. line. He goes over the day's business at the bank as often as we do as agents for the executors. He knows just how many rubles and sapphires were washed out yesterday and how much they weigh. It's our business as your agents, to scrape up everything as far back as we can go to prove that the old chaps were mentally off their base when they drew up that agreement and will. Of course if we can prove that insanity has always

"Good Lord!" gasped Browne nervpairs, Cement Curbing or -"It would be a great belp. If we can show that you and Mrs .- er-Lady Deppingham have queer spells occacionally, it"-"Not for all the islands in the world." eried Lady Deppingham. "The idea:

Queer spells! Please be good enough to leave me out of the insanity dodge as you Americans call it."

"Is it necessary to make my husband | nedence by medical attention and the insane in order to establish the fact that his grandfather was not of sound mind?" queried pretty Mrs. Browne, with her calmest Boston inflection.

the community. Mrs. Harrison was "It depends on your husband," said an estremed member of tha mers Britt coolly. "If he sticks at anything burch here and the pas or Rev. G. S. which may help us to break that will Milligan conducted the fomeral service held at the house at our o'cleck he's certainly insane. That's all I've on Sunday afternoon after which a got to say about it." large cortage followed the remains to c'estierion cemetery. Ta deceased

"Well, I'm hanged if I'll pose as a insane man," roared Browne. "Mr. Saunders hasn't asked me to be insane, have you. Mr. Saunders?" asked Lady Agnes in her sweetest "I don't apprehend"- began Saun- tage. Mrs. Harrison is survived by ders nervously.

"Saunders," said Britt calculatingly and evenly, "next thing we'll have to begin hunting for insanity in your family. We haven't heard anything from you on this little point, Lord Deppingham." "I don't know anything about Mr. Saunders' family." said Deppingham stiffly. Britt looked at him for a mo- Wickens, son of Mr. Andrew Wickens, ment, puzzled and uncertain. Then he gave a short, hopeless laugh and tendants and only immediate + 1. said under his breath;

"Holy smoke!" When he finally called the conference adjourned and prepared to depart he calmly turned to the stenog-

"Did you get all this down, Miss Pel-"Yes, Mr. Britt."

"Good!" Then he went away, leav- was served. The following day the ing the quartet unconsciously de- young couple left for Toronto on their pressed by the emphasis he placed upon that single word

The next day but one it was announced that the enemy had moved | Wickens will reside in the recently into the bungalow. From time to time his gray, blue or white clad figure could be seen directing the operations of the natives who were engaged in rehabilitating Wyckholme's "nest."

The chateau was now under the very eye of the enemy.

(To be continued)

Fresherton

(Last week's budget.)

Perhaps never before in so short period has the death rate been so high in this community as within the post four weeks and especially among old residents of whom six have passed away whose ages averaged 83 years

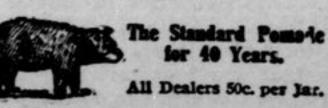

Five children have died under 8 years. Mrs. Hemphill Sr.-On Thursday away at her late home on the 4th line one of the earliest settlers in Arte mesia in the person of Mrs. Hemphill Officers were elected as follows:-Sr., relict of the late Mr. James Hemphil. During all of Mrs. Hemphill's trying illness, borne with christian for nude, she was nursed with untirirg attention and most tender care by the members of her family about her. following were appointed on the She was a good wife and mother, but her many self sacrificing deeds and onsistent christian ufe make her es term dand rich in influence for good far beyond her own home. In Mourt Zi n Me hodist church where her name was enrolled among the first members over fifty years ago she was faittful worker and zealous in all its McCannel, A Shearson. Rockvaleinterests. In pr. ise and prayer and testimenvishe readered a widing and. helpful e vice The funeral, which solved that meetings be held at the vas very marge took place to Mount Zion on Saurday afternoon when an the church by the pastor, Rev. T. later. Laidiaw, after which interment was Miss Flossie Calquett, or rather now made in the family plot beside the re- Mrs. W. Marr. who has been for some mains of the decra ed's husband, who time the obliging assistant in the post predeceased her 27 years. The de- office retired from the position on Satceased whose maid n name was Mar- urday, we presume to look after the garet Watson, was born in the county | comforts of her newly found hasband Tyrone, Ireland, in 1821 and was Mr. Walter Marr, foreman in Mr. D. therefore in her 60th year, In 1842 McTavish's shop. Recently the young she came with her father's family to couple quietly embarked in the boat Canada and in the township of of matrimony and now that the Vanghan met ber future husband to secret's out their friends wish them whom she was married in Toronto in pleasant sailing. Mr. and Mrs. Mar 1848 and with whom she came to Art- | will continue to reside here. emesia in 1854 settling near Mount Mrs. Andrew Carr, an esteemed old Zion where thirty years were spent lady of nearly eighty years of age, and the past twenty-six on the 4th had the misfortune to fall in the line. To Mr. and Mrs. Hemphili were house on Monday and fracture her born eleven children of whom are thigh bone at the hip joint, Mrs dead, John, Ellen, Rebecca (Mrs. John | Carr's numer - s friends deeply sympa-Semple), and Mary (Mrs. W. G. Dun- ahize with her in her suffering. can.) The surviving members are Joseph. Dundalk; James, Toronto; Margaret (Mrs. John Warling), Vandeluer: William H., Robert J. and Fanny C. 4th line, Artemesia; and "Ladies and gentlemen," said Mr. Sangster, Caylon. Out of a large ne brother, Wm., at Laskay and two sisters Mrs. Miller, at Whitechurch, | mare some nays ago by getting her and Mrs. Speer, at Feversham survive. leg broken in the pasture field. Mrs. Harrison Sr.-On Friday last Mrs. John Harrison a very highly 1epecter old resident massed away at vale last week at ending the funeral her he me on Toronto line east where of the latter's brother-in-law, W Invest 25 cents in a box of ter of Toronto. Mrs. J. Mulligan, Tor-Davis' Menthol Salve ("The onto and Mr. Geo. Hemphill of Vang-D. & L.") and be prepared for Mrs. Hemphill on Saturday. a hundred ailments, which may not be dangerous but are very Minnie Munshaw,) a daughter, (Helen annoying and painful, like neu- Gertrude.) etc. It is a household remedy always useful for some trouble, and should be kept in the Manager of the Standard Fank. Torfamily medicine closet.

WILL MAKE HAIR GROW

BEARINE

Prepared from the grease of the Canadian Bear. Delicately perfumed.

Davis & Lawrence Co., Montreal.

Mr. Samuel McDonald and daughter Marion of Ivy paid Rev. and Mrs. o spend a month with her daughter. Mr. J. J. Louden, Assistant General onto, was on a fishing outing and the turned from Emo, Rainey River. where he has been for some time. Mrs. Hickling and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong spent part of last week in the city. Rev. H. E. Wellwood, accompanied patronage solicited. by wife and little daugh er leit on Monday to attend Toronto Canference.

Mr. Bunt will also attend as lay d le-Mr. and Mrs. John Whitten of Toronto, attended the funeral of the lat- Garafraxa Street ter's mother on Sunday.

Continued on page 2.

New Summer Shirts for Men

These are new patterns and made in the roomy, well-proportioned models that every man wants. They are a lesson in shirt comfort, ask any weater; he knows.

New Print and Gingham Shirts, regulation style, light, but tough, 75c, $1, $1.25; News Negligre Shirts, soft collar, for summer comfort, 90c. $1. $1.25; Men's Work Shirts, dark and medium colors, strong cloth, good fit, 50c, 65c, 75c, 90c, $1.

Men's Balbriggan Underwear

For big men or small men, all sizes, 34 to 44 ..... 50c a piece

Men's Hats, Hard & Soft Felt CRUSH HATS-Have you seen these new Hats? They're full of style and top-notch values, up-to-date and absolutely correct Hats to go with any style of sait. Hard and Soft Felts, $1 and $2.50; Pocket Hats, black, grey, fawn, will roll up and go in the pocket, $1.25; S raw Hats in the new shapes, 50c to $1.50; Straw Work

HOSIERY Splendid

All kinds of bose, cotton or cashmere, ribbed or plain. Hose for everybody, all prices and all good values.

Carpet Squares and Mats In variety. We have some handsome patterns in Carpet Squares and a lot of new Mats in new designs, at 25c up. See our special range of Mats at $1.25. Old lengths of Carpet reduced to clear, pieces from the season's cuttings, sufficient in most of them for one room, reduced to clear.

Broken Lines in Lace Curtains

To clear, this season's goods, but the quantity in each pattern is limited. We will close them out at a sacrifice.

Boots and Shoes, several hundred pairs to clear at reduced prices. OUR GROCERY DEPARTMENT is kept well stocked with fresh new Groceries of best quality, BRING US YOUR BUTTER AND EGGS We'll pay the highest market price for an unlimited quantity.

JAMES IRELAND

The Thing That

Draws The Caroful Buyer

Of Boots and Shoes to us is the tact that they are sure of getting first-class goods at reasonable prices. Sure of ample variety to choose from. Sure of quality being as represented. Sure of getting what they want and when they want it. In a word sure of getting their moneys worth in reliable goods at reasonable prices We aim to dease and hit the mark with our Boots and Shoes. Hosiery, Trunks, Suit Cases, Telescopes, Valises.

J. S. McILRAITH The Down Town Shoe Store

Matthews & Latimer

*

For Flour Feed Seed Fresh Groceries New Fruit and Nuts Choice Confectionery Pure Spices and Vinegars No. 1 Family and Pure Manitoba Flours Fine Sait. Farmers Produce Wanted

FROST AND WOOD han, attended the funeral of the late Born-At Toronto, on May 31st to Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Welton (nee Implement Emporium

HEADQUARTERS for Frost & Wood Implements Mrs. Jos. Radley has gone to Niagara of all kinds; Cockshutt Plows, "Mellotte" and "Standard" Cream Separators, Stratford Ladders and Swings, Turnip Sowers, and "Conboy," "Brantford" and "Barrie" guest of Mr. Geo. Mitchell part of last Buggies, Orillia Steel Trucks, Woodstock Wind Motors, Mr. Robt. Thistlethwaite has re- Waterloo Threshers and Engines, etc., etc.

Best Grade of Binder Twine

Good attention and prompt delivery.

McKinnon's Old Stand .. Durham

Without 6 crowded v beautifully

5 Ladies' Boni 1 beautiful black mobair, tulle, wheat and osprey, jet 4 good quality silk taffeta ties, price $5.00 sale price I bonnet with cornet of edged with jet and draped e feather mount and sweet pea ful black taffeta ribbon, reg. $4.50, sale price ..... 1 black silk draped bonnet, black silk rose and foliage and osprey, reg. price $4.50

1 folded black silk bounet. silk, black lilacs and foliage, I silk ties, reg. price $3.75 going

1 sequin bonnet with tour trimmed with three ostrich taffeta ribbon reg. price $4.23

7 Brown and Tau

1 large taupe hat of silk with gray velvet, shaded bunches of dark red roses and iage, reg. $5,98 sale price .... 1 medium taupe hat of fine chantecler red, trimmed with of taupe ribbon piped with 6 bunches of red geranium very stylish, reg. price $6.7 1 rolling moire silk shape, bon, pale blue and taupe to reg. $4.90, bargain ..... 1 brown hat, trimmed with tan drape, nice bunch of roses at side reg. $3.80 now .. 1 small brown shape trim and tan foliage and flowers

reg. $2.95 now ..... 1 handsome brown mohail crown, cluster of tuscan re side, reg. $1.75 selling at ... 1 large brown and tuscan tam lace crown, handsom rose at side reg. $4.00 selling

7 Green Ha

1 bicorn, chip straw turba good quality silk taffeta and beautiful green wings fancy buckle, reg. price $6.

I handsome mohair turba beautiful large pink rbses ornaments, reg. price $6.7

1 beautiful Nile green tu braid and trimmed with be and tan ribbon, reg. price sale price....

1 stylish Napoleon made trimmed with good qualit foliage and cherries, beauti nament reg. price $6.00, sale

1 large Milan cavalier with green shot silk also f shot silk and fancy mohair reg. price $6.00, sale price

I dressy chip shape, rolli ed with green shot silk and foliage, reg. price $4.

1 handsome chip shape back trimmed with green i bon, reg. price $5.98, berga

9 Rose and Ma I handsome flower turbs and foliage, reg. price $9.5

I fancy chip shape, trim silk taffeta ribbon and and foliage, reg. price 87. I fancy chip turban, tri ful mauve rose and ri match, reg. price $7.75, se

REMEMBER

Every d choice vantage

21 Days